New Dimensions Added At Ataturk By Palmers

Business and dramatics classes were unknown to Turkish students at Ataturk University until two and a half years ago.

It was then Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Palmer began their work at the University of Nebraska's sister school in Erzurum and added new dimensions to the program.

Dr. Palmer, formerly the head of business research at NU, established the first business curriculum for students to major in at Ataturk and his wife began teaching English and the school's first drama classes.

Dr. Palmer said lack of textbooks was a major problem for his students. He wrote a small economics textbook and had it translated into Turkish.

He was the faculty adviser to the first six business doctoral candidates at Ataturk.

Puppet Shows

Mrs. Palmer said her drama students had never read any plays before her class was started. She said they never staged a play while she was there but did put on puppet shows.

She said one student wrote his senior thesis on playwright Christopher Fry and his works.

Dr. Palmer said he had been told Turkish students memorized their work and didn't think on their own. "This wasn't true. My students asked more questions than any American students I've had.

"The students were outspoken in class. If they disagreed with something, they said so," Dr, Palmer said.

Not being able to speak Turkish was not a problem because "the people were so good at pantomiming and those who spoke some English were anxious to practice it," Mrs. Palmer said.

"Made In Turkey"

Dr. Palmer said English was used in many advertisements and said some products made in Turkey were labeled in English, "Made in Turkey."

The Palmers were impressed with the hospitality of the Turkish people. Guests are treated with much honor; often a hostess is so busy serving her guests that she doesn't eat, Mrs. Palmer said.

Dr. Palmer recalled that when President Kennedy was assassinated, they had a steady stream of visitors to their apartment expressing grief.

He said Turkey is relatively isolated from neighboring nations by choice. "There's no sympathy for communism in Turkey," Dr. Palmer said, even though the Soviet Union borders Turkey on the east.

Turkey's rapid progress in the past 45 years impressed Dr. Palmer. He said 45 years ago under the Ottoman Empire, Turkey was a backward nation without progress. "Since then Turkey has started to develop, mostly on its own."

One of the frustrations the Palmers faced was keeping tabs on the world.

Dr. Palmer said they used a shortwave radio to pick up Voice of America or British programs. He said they subscribed to The Lincoln Star but the papers were about two months late.

Electric Wires, Limbs Felled During Storm

. . . WIND, RAIN, HAIL HIT CITY

By MARV McNEFF
Star Staff Writer

Sharp lightning, gusty winds and rain lashed Lincoln briefly Friday night and Saturday morning, leaving fallen electric wires and limbs behind.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said .29 inchs of rain had fallen at the Municipal Airport, and .50 was measured in east Lincoln by midnight.

Around 30 trees were blown down or uprooted Lincoln police said, including one at 39th and Cornhusker Highway.

Police said a number of traffic signals were knocked out due to downed power lines.

Don Young, District Supervisor for Consumers Public Power, said late Friday night they had received between 150-200 calls on fallen wires. He said they had as "many men as they could get" working on the repair job and he estimated all or most service would be restored shortly.

Young said as summer thunderstorms go, it was not exceptionally destructive. From the varied locations in which damage was reported, Young said it appeared the gusty wind and lightning had been quite spotted around the city.

The Lincoln Fire Department made 11 runs after calls started coming in about 7:06 p.m. At least one minor fire resulted from the lightning, at 2535 Stockwell, and other calls were on hot wires.

A large plate glass window at the IBM offices at 601 So. 12th was broken by the storm.

The Pinewood Bowl production "My Fair Lady" was rained out.

Elsewhere in Nebraska, hail the size of softballs was reported by the Weather Bureau at Lyons, in the northeast part of the state. The hail smashed windows and windshields of cars, damaged roofs and did some crop damage.

Walnut sized hail was reported in Lincoln.

The temperature reached 95 degrees in Lincoln at 3:30 p.m. Friday—highest so far this year. The high a year ago was 100.

WEATHER

LINCOLN: Partly cloudy, warm and humid, thirty to 50% chance of showers in late afternoon. High 90-95.

EAST AND CENTRAL NEBRASKA: Partly cloudy with about 30% cloud coverage of western sector Saturday. Continued warm and humid. High 90-95.

Mariner Reports Mars Air Is Too Thin For Known Life

. . . MORE PHOTOS COMING

Pasadena, Calif. (AP) — Earth's marvelous Mariner 4, now televising a stream of historic closeups of Mars, has found that planet's atmosphere is too thin for any known form of life.

But, Jet Propulsion Laboratory scientists who announced the new finding Friday said they will expect to find some kind of life when American vehicles land on Mars in the 1970s.

Mariner 4's first picture, snapped as the 575-pound spacecraft swept past Mars Wednesday and released Thursday night, showed an earth-like desert bordered by smudges which may nor may not be vegetation.

Better Pictures

Even better pictures are likely among as many as 21 expected to be transmitted by Mariner 4 over the next week or 10 days.

Dr. William H. Pickering, laboratory director, told a news conference that Mars' atmosphere at the surface appears to be about as thin as earth's at an altitude from 90,000 to 100,000 feet.

"Men landing there certainly would need space suits," he said.

"But when you consider the amazing complexity and variety of life forms on earth, you can't exclude the possibility that some other kinds might have evolved on Mars."

Kliore Report

The report on Mars thin blanket of air was made by the laboratory's Dr. A. J. Kliore, chief of a team of scientists who measured the fading of Mariner 4's radio signals as they passed through the planet's atmosphere Wednesday.

From the gradual weakening of signals they figured Mars' atmosphere extends upward no more than eight miles — less than half the height of earth's. They also found it to be only one to two per cent as dense. Previous estimates of the density had ranged up to 10%.'

Further study will be required, Pickering said, before it can be determined whether Voyager spacecraft now being designed to land capsules on Mars in the 1970s, will use parachutes or retro-rockets to brake a descent.

No Oxygen

Telescope analysis previously has shown Mars' atmosphere is largely nitrogen, with some carbon dioxide, argon, and a trace of water. No oxygen has been found.

Kliore said the radio signals —affected differently by the various kinds of molecules in Mars' atmosphere — show no indication of other elements.

"There seems to be no oxygen at all," he said.

Pickering said this does not eliminate the chance that some form of life could evolve which does not require oxygen.

Climaxing Journey

The news conference was held as Mariner 4, now climaxing a 7½-month, 325-million-mile journey, was radioing back its third picture across 134 million miles of space.

The first picture, showing markings as small as three miles across, looked much like some jungle-bordered desert on earth.

Later pictures, taken at a lower altitude and showing details as small as 1½ miles across, are expected to cover broad dark areas which some scientists have specualted are vegetation fed by canals carrying water from the polar caps.

Pari-Mutuel Dog Bill, Lottery Measure Axed

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

The Legislature Friday killed bills proposing a vote of the people on pari-mutuel dog racing and a state-operated lottery.

The dog bill, LB630, fell on a narrow 16-14 vote, tight enough to indicate that the hound issue may enjoy another romp through the Unicameral before it adjourns.

But the lottery measure, LB671, appeared to be buried for good on a 22-4 vote.

As a result of legislative action on the two gambling bills, only revenue bills left pending on general file are two measures which would broaden and reduce the intangible property tax.

Both the dog racing bill and the lottery measure proposed constitutional amendments which would have appeared on the 1966 general election ballot.

Taxed At 10%

Sen. George Gerdes of Alliance, chief sponsor of LB630, said dog race betting could be taxed at 10% and raise between $2 million and $3 million annually.

Revenue, he noted, could be returned to local school districts to help alleviate their property tax burden.

His motion to advance fell on a 14-15 vote before Sen. Albert Kjar of Lexington filed a kill motion.

Voting to advance LB630 were Sens. Hal Bauer and Marvin E. Stromer, both of Lincoln; Elvin Adamson of Valentine, Kenneth Bowen of Red Cloud, Jules Burbach of Crofton, Cecil Craft of North Platte, H. C. Crandall of Curtis, George Fleming of Sidney, Gerdes, Rudolf Kokes of Ord, Richard Lysinger of Ravenna, Richard Marvel of Hastings, Harold Moylan of Omaha, and William Wylie of Elgin.

Carried The Ball

Wylie carried the ball for the lottery proposal in the absence of its chief sponsor, Sen. Eugene Mahoney of Omaha.

New Hampshire is the only state with a lottery, Wylie noted, and "we might just as well be 'firstest with the mostest' west of the Mississippi."

A lottery would be "an easy way to raise revenue" which could be distributed to the schools, Wylie said.

Sen. Maurice Kremer of Aurora warned that "for every dollar we raise in taxation, we'll have to spend two for welfare."

New Hampshire raised $2,768,000 for support of school districts in 1964 through its lottery.

Motion Failed

Wylie's motion to advance LB671 failed on a 7-18 count before Sen. Henry Pedersen Jr. of Omaha put the bill to the kill test.

Voting with Wylie to advance: Sens. Bowen, Rick Budd of Nebraska City, Gerdes, Calista Cooper Hughes of Humboldt, Lysinger and Moylan.

Phillips Man Killed, Area 4-Hers Hurt

Grand Island (AP) — An elderly Phillips man was killed Friday when his car and a bus carrying Lancaster County 4-H members collided about six miles east of here.

The victim was John Denker, 84, a retired farmer from the Phillips area.

One of the youngsters on the bus, Linda Green of Lincoln, was held for observation at the Aurora Hospital Friday night.

Joan Allen, from a farm south of Lincoln and Carla Judkins of Davey, were treated and released.

The Safety Patrol said that the bus remained upright and the car was demolished. The 4-H members returned to Lincoln late Friday evening.

The bus, driven by Lancaster County Agent Allen Boettcher, was returning the group of youngsters from the 4-H camp at Halsey.

Adlai's Body Is Returned Home

Springfield, Ill. (UPI)—Adlai E. Stevenson came home to Illinois Friday for a solemn, 19-gun salute from the state he served as governor and for a final sad tribute from old friends and neighbors.

The body of the U.S. ambassador to the United Nations was borne to this heart city of the "Land of Lincoln" in a presidential plane after President Johnson led the nation in paying homage to Stevenson in Washington's National Cathedral.

Two 105 mm. howitzers of the Illinois National Guard boomed out the salute traditionally reserved for a governor as the presidential plane, Air Force I, touched down with Stevenson's body and the funeral party.

Kerner Meets Plane

Gov. Otto Kerner, a delegation of state and federal government officials and a hushed crowd estimated at between 2,500 and 3,000 persons met the plane at capital airport. It arrived at 1:50 p.m. CDT after a two-hour flight from the nation's capital.

A procession headed by a hearse bearingStevenson's remains rolled slowly away from the airport. It proceeded past Abraham Lincoln's tomb in hilly, wooded Oak Ridge Cemetery to the black-shrouded Illinois statehouse.

There the closed casket was to be placed in state on the same catafalque which was used to carry the assassinated civil war president home to Springfield from Washington 100 years ago.

The capitol rotunda, swathed in black mourning cloths, was to be opened to the public at 4 p.m. CST. Officials said mourners would be permitted to pass the bier from then until 9 a.m. Sunday, except for a two-hour period Saturday morning when the State of Illinois in brief ceremonies will say a formal goodby to one of its favorite sons.

In services at National Cathedral, the 65-year-old statesman who died suddenly in London Wednesday was eulogized as "this completely civilized man."

President and Mrs. Johnson, the Stevenson family and many of the nation's mighty listened solemnly as Judge Carl McGowan, a long-time Stevenson friend, paid tribute to the U.N. ambassador.

"Our sense of the fitness of things must be touched by this completely civilized man doing battle for the persistence of the very idea of civilization," McGowan said.

Harriman Mission To Avert Russian Clash Over Issues

Moscow (AP)—W. Averell Harriman's mission to Moscow is to avert misunderstandings between the United States and the Soviet Union on issues—particularly Viet Nam—which might accidentally lead to nuclear confrontation, informed sources suggested Friday.

Harriman, a U.S. ambassador at large, told newsmen the two great powers have a responsibility to the world to make their positions clear to each other.

He explained U.S. positions to Premier Alexei N. Kosygin Thursday in the Kremlin and heard Kosygin outline Soviet attitudes. Harriman said later he had gained "some significant information" which he cabled to President Johnson.

Informants said Friday the three-hour meeting had not been long enough to cover all the subjects adequately and Harriman is tentatively slated to meet Kosygin again next week.

Harriman told newsmen Friday that he thought he would leave Moscow before the end of next week. But the veteran American diplomat, who said on arrival Monday that he was on vacation and might travel outside Moscow, added that he now has so much to do in Moscow that he cannot leave the Soviet capital.

There have been suggestions that Harriman's visit might involve trying to get Viet Nam peace talks moving. But Harriman told newsmen this is "a subject not between us and the Soviets but between North Viet Nam and South Viet Nam." He restated the American position of supporting a settlement between Saigon and Hanoi that satisfied the Saigon government.

Harriman said in an interview in Red Square Friday that the Soviet Union and the United States "always ought to be ready to negotiate and ready to try to settle our differences.

"We must be careful to make our positions clear—that they understand ours and we understand theirs."

Soviet leaders, including Kosygin, "have no desire to become involved in nuclear war," Harriman said. "It's too dangerous not to make every effort to reach understandings and settle issues one by one that come between us.

"As nuclear powers, we owe it not only to ourselves but also to the whole world."

An appointment was arranged for Harriman to meet Saturday with the Soviet minister of agriculture, Vladimir V. Matskevich, who helped him see farming areas on a 1959 visit.

CABINET SWORN IN DURING GREEK CRISIS

Athens, Greece (AP) — King Constantine swore in a new government Friday night in an attempt to dispel Greece's worst crisis since the Communist civil war days of 1947-1949.

Political tension gripped Athens and much of the rest of this volatile member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization as the 25-year-old monarch's new premier, George Athanasiadis Novas, hastily put together a cabinet of 15 members.

Seven of these were holdovers from the government of George Papandreou, 77, whom the king fired 24 hours previously in a clash of wills.

The announcement of the new government came suddenly amid reports that the new premier was having difficulty getting members of his—and Papandreou's—Center Union Party to accept portfolios.

Athanasiadis Novas, 72, was sworn in Thursday as premier after Papandreou broadcast a resignation statement. The new premier, who had been president of parliament, quickly joined battle with Papandreou for the loyalty of the Center Union Party, threatened with a split which conceivably could force new elections.

The fact that seven members of the former Papandreou government joined the new premier's cabinet indicated, however, wide defection from the ranks of Papandreou's followers.

Attempting to thwart formation of a new government, Papandreou had said he would regard any persons joining the new cabinet as a traitor to the party. He had been appealing for public demonstrations against the new premier.

Athanasiadis Novas quickly banned demonstrations. The interior ministry ordered police to crack down on disturbances. There were demonstrations for Papandreou Thursday night but no major outbursts were reported Friday in Athens.

Rocky Tells Dissidents He'll Be Hard To Dump

New York (AP)—Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller served notice Friday on party dissidents that he is not going to be easily shoved aside. He reiterated his determination to run for a third term in 1966.

And he left open his long-standing ambition for the GOP presidential nomination, telling a news conference:

"We are so far away from 1968 it is meaningless. I am not giving it time or thought."

There was nothing new in Rockefeller's announcement that he will run again for governor—he said the same thing as long ago as May 5.

Rumblings

But the timing seemed significant since there have been rumblings of discontent with Rockefeller from the ranks of the state Republican Party.

The gist of this criticism is that Rockefeller's popularity with New York voters has waned, and that if he runs next year he may take the party down to defeat with him.

On this subject Rockefeller, just back from an 11-day vacation at his Venezuela ranch, told newsmen that he recently had to increase taxes, and added:

"You always go through a period of reaction following that. I'm very proud of our record of the past seven years."

Denies Split

Rockefeller denied that the Republican Party was split in New York, and said he thought his opposition "is more in the newspapers than anywhere else."

Dissident support has appeared to center around Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., the state's best GOP vote-getter. He outpolled Rockefeller by nearly 290,000 votes in the 1962 election.

Javits is believed to have his eye on eventual nomination for vice president.

French, Italians Open New Tunnel, Old Talks

Mont Blanc Tunnel (AP)—The presidents of Italy and France joined Friday in opening the Mont Blanc Tunnel and called it an example of international cooperation. Then they reaffirmed their opposing views about European unity.

The ceremony high in the Alps on both sides of the world's longest highway tunnel demonstrated the hopes and frustrations in the post-war drive toward European unity.

Presidents Charles de Gaulle of France and Giuseppe Saragat of Italy took huge scissors and snipped tricolor ribbons on the French side of the tunnel. Then they traveled through the 7.2-mile, two-lane tunnel and emerged in Italy for formal speeches, followed by almost an hour and a half of political conferences.

It was raining in France. It was sunny in Italy.

And Saragat was the more forceful in his speech. It was a pointed appeal to De Gaulle to seek to overcome differences in the European Common Market. The Italian president said the $64 million tunnel was "above all a symbol" that men could "conquer even the greatest obstacles in order to meet in works of peace." Addressing himself directly to De Gaulle, he said the tunnel was "an augury and step toward that broader union" which France, Italy and their allies seek.

De Gaulle did not mention the Common Market or European unity, but said the tunnel was a great technical, economic and political event. He spoke of international cooperation and the possible achievement of what he called a "European Europe."

Then, with the speeches over, De Gaulle and Saragat and their foreign ministers conferred in the Italian resort of Courmayeur. Informed sources agreed there had been no progress toward resolving differing views on the Common Market.

French sources said each side reaffirmed and clarified positions. They said they were "neither more optimistic nor more pessimistic" than before the talks. Italian sources said there "was complete agreement on the disagreement."

Russians Orbit Big Proton 1

Moscow (AP) — The Soviet Union launched into orbit around the earth Friday "a scientific space station" weighing 12.2 metric tons, Tass reported.

The station, named "Proton 1" was heavier than the biggest load launched into orbit by the United States, a dummy satellite weighing about 10 metric tons.

The announcement distributed by the official Soviet news agency said "a new powerful booster rocket has been developed in the Soviet Union."

The American Titan 3C rocket that launched a 21,000-pound satellite last month had a thrust of 2.65 million pounds. So far as was known at the time the largest Russian rocket generated only 1.43 million pounds of thrust.

But the reported launching Friday of a payload — without the last stage of the booster — of 26,840 pounds indicated the Russians now have the world's most powerful rocket.

Tass said Proton 1 was intended to study cosmic particles of super-high energies.

Alabama Negro Near Death From Nightriders' Shooting

Anniston, Ala. (UPI) — A Negro shot by white nightriders from a trailing car was reported near death Friday with a bullet lodged in his spine.

Doctors said the victim, 38-year-old Willie Brewster, is paralyzed from the waist down. It is "problematical if he lives," said Dr. William Sellers.

The shooting occurred about 11:30 p.m. Thursday, about two hours after the militantly anti-Negro National States Rights Party (NSRP) concluded a rally on the Calhoun County Courthouse steps in Anniston.

About 100 persons heard NSRP speaker Rev. Connie Lynch declare:

"If it takes killing to get the Negroes out of the white man's streets and to protect our constitutional rights, I say, 'yes,' kill them!"

Brewster was wounded while driving along Highway 202 en route home from work at the Alabama Pipe Co. of Anniston. The spot where the shooting took place was in the same general area where a "freedom riders" bus was burned on Mother's Day of 1961.

Anniston is about 100 miles northeast of Lowndesboro, where Mrs. Viola Liuzzo of Detroit was fatally wounded the night of March 25, a few hours after the Selma-to-Montgomery civil rights march ended.

Brewster, father of two children, was able to talk, despite his injury.

Buildup May Make More Problems For Top Soviets

By WILLIAM RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The steady U.S. buildup in South Viet Nam appears to be creating new problems for Soviet leadership. It seems eager to break through a Red Chinese wall of opposition blocking any reasonable approach to Communist leader Ho Chi Minh in North Viet Nam.

Something new may be in the wind. Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin's long talk with U.S. roving Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and the London report that Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah has been invited to Hanoi warrant speculation as to the possibility of cautious new approaches to the crisis.

Harriman has made it clear that his mission is to prevent Soviet misunderstanding of the U.S. position, but it is equally clear that the Soviet leadership fears the United States will misunderstand Moscow's difficulties.

May Be Desperate

For the edgy collective leadership in the Kremlin, the search for some means of lessening the Southeast Asian danger may be desperate. Between the lines in the Soviet press one can detect apprehension that eventually the Viet Nam crisis may lead to a U.S. Soviet conflict.

In addition there are indications that the situation threatens to interfere with Moscow's domestic planning and even to provoke new political troubles.

Since early this year, when the escalation process in Viet Nam gathered momentum, Soviet-U.S. relations have noticeably cooled. Now, through the agency of the Harriman visit, at least high-level contact has been reestablished.

At the same time there has been a sudden upsurge in propaganda from Hanoi, repeatedly restating Communist terms for easing the South Viet Nam peril.

Could Be Preparation

This restatement could be preparation for bargaining, particularly if Nkrumah's visit should materialize.

The Southeast Asian situation has provided a handle for influential Soviet military elements to push demands for a larger share of the Soviet budget, notably in manpower and conventional forces.

This could complicate matters for the collective leadership of Kosygin and party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev. Like Nikita Khrushchev before them, they have been trying to devote more Soviet wealth to the internal economy.

Recent Soviet military comment has been significant. Much of it disagrees with the idea that Soviet defenses can rely on nuclear missile strength. The military press frequently, if obliquely, denies that the nuclear age has lessened the importance of sheer manpower. Some comment complains that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has more military manpower now than the U.S.S.R. and its European allies combined.

Such pressure has been felt at the top.

The Soviet regime has been smarting from Chinese jibes that if turns its back on fellow Communists in difficulty. It feels an uncomfortable heat from Communist opinion elsewhere, and probably feels that if things continue the way they are going in Viet Nam, it will be obliged to become more deeply involved, whatever the global consequences. The leadership seems to be worried that the United States will fail to understand this.

Soldier Escapes Viet Cong; Mother's Prayer Answered

El Paso, Tex. (AP)—A mother's prayers have been answered with word that her only son, a career soldier who volunteered for a second tour of duty in Viet Nam, has become the only American captive to escape alive from the Viet Cong.

"Thank my good God," said Mrs. Mary Elorreaga, 47, after official word of her son's safe return to American hands was released. "My prayers have been answered."

Sgt. 1.C. Isaac Camacho, 28, of El Paso reached American lines in Viet Nam Tuesday, the only one of 14 Americans held by the Viet Cong to escape, a military spokesman in Saigon said.

Camacho, who entered the Army three days after graduation from high school here, was one of the first Americans nabbed in the guerrilla war, his mother said. He was captured when several hundred Viet Cong overran a camp 25 miles northwest of Saigon Nov. 24, 1963, four months after he was wounded in action.

"He is my only boy, my only son," Mrs. Elorreaga said. "I've always been so proud of him. I am the happiest mother in the world.

"I had not a word, no letters from my boy. And I have spent many lonely nights in that chair" she said pointing to a high-backed chair in the living room. "I prayed day and night for 20 long months."

Harriman Mission To Avert Russian Clash Over Issues

Moscow (AP)—W. Averell Harriman's mission to Moscow is to avert misunderstandings between the United States and the Soviet Union on issues—particularly Viet Nam—which might accidentally lead to nuclear confrontation, informed sources suggested Friday.

Harriman, a U.S. ambassador at large, told newsmen the two great powers have a responsibility to the world to make their positions clear to each other.

He explained U.S. positions to Premier Alexei N. Kosygin Thursday in the Kremlin and heard Kosygin outline Soviet attitudes. Harriman said later he had gained "some significant information" which he cabled to President Johnson.

Informants said Friday the three-hour meeting had not been long enough to cover all the subjects adequately and Harriman is tentatively slated to meet Kosygin again next week.

Harriman told newsmen Friday that he thought he would leave Moscow before the end of next week. But the veteran American diplomat, who said on arrival Monday that he was on vacation and might travel outside Moscow, added that he now has so much to do in Moscow that he cannot leave the Soviet capital.

There have been suggestions that Harriman's visit might involve trying to get Viet Nam peace talks moving. But Harriman told newsmen this is "a subject not between us and the Soviets but between North Viet Nam and South Viet Nam." He restated the American position of supporting a settlement between Saigon and Hanoi that satisfied the Saigon government.

Harriman said in an interview in Red Square Friday that the Soviet Union and the United States "always ought to be ready to negotiate and ready to try to settle our differences.

"We must be careful to make our positions clear—that they understand ours and we understand theirs."

Soviet leaders, including Kosygin, "have no desire to become involved in nuclear war," Harriman said. "It's too dangerous not to make every effort to reach understandings and settle issues one by one that come between us.

"As nuclear powers, we owe it not only to ourselves but also to the whole world."

An appointment was arranged for Harriman to meet Saturday with the Soviet minister of agriculture, Vladimir V. Matskevich, who helped him see farming areas on a 1959 visit.

CABINET SWORN IN DURING GREEK CRISIS

Athens, Greece (AP) — King Constantine swore in a new government Friday night in an attempt to dispel Greece's worst crisis since the Communist civil war days of 1947-1949.

Political tension gripped Athens and much of the rest of this volatile member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization as the 25-year-old monarch's new premier, George Athanasiadis Novas, hastily put together a cabinet of 15 members.

Seven of these were holdovers from the government of George Papandreou, 77, whom the king fired 24 hours previously in a clash of wills.

The announcement of the new government came suddenly amid reports that the new premier was having difficulty getting members of his—and Papandreou's—Center Union Party to accept portfolios.

Athanasiadis Novas, 72, was sworn in Thursday as premier after Papandreou broadcast a resignation statement. The new premier, who had been president of parliament, quickly joined battle with Papandreou for the loyalty of the Center Union Party, threatened with a split which conceivably could force new elections.

The fact that seven members of the former Papandreou government joined the new premier's cabinet indicated, however, wide defection from the ranks of Papandreou's followers.

Attempting to thwart formation of a new government, Papandreou had said he would regard any persons joining the new cabinet as a traitor to the party. He had been appealing for public demonstrations against the new premier.

Athanasiadis Novas quickly banned demonstrations. The interior ministry ordered police to crack down on disturbances. There were demonstrations for Papandreou Thursday night but no major outbursts were reported Friday in Athens.

Youth, Elderly Man Lose Lives

Plattsmouth Driver, 18, Hospitalized

Two more Nebraskans lost their lives in separate highway accidents in the state.

Linn Weber, 19, of Plattsmouth.

S. L. Meyers, 92, of Hendley.

The Plattsmouth youth was killed early Friday in a one-car accident on a Cass County road three miles east and one mile south of Murray.

Authorities said young Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Weber, was a passenger in a car driven by Merle Renner, 18, of Plattsmouth, who was hospitalized in Nebraska City.

Two other Plattsmouth youths were released after treatment for minor injuries.

The Cass County sheriff's office said the car went through a T road intersection and rammed a high bank. Weber died en route to a hospital.

The elderly Hendley man was killed Thursday when his car collided with another four miles west of Beaver City in southwestern Nebraska.

The state Safety Patrol said the driver of the other car, Gerald Niemkark, 25, of Dodge City, Kan., was taken to a Norton, Kan., hospital where he was reported in good condition.

'Mad Doctor' Suspect Will Take Tests

Omaha (UPI)—A suspect, believed to be the "mad doctor," will be given a psychiatric examination as a possible sexual psychopath at the request of deputy County Attorney James Murphy.

The man, Albert Sylvester Haynik, 48, of Omaha, was arrested in connection with a sex-complaint investigation of a phony "doctor" who conducted interviews and physical examinations of young women applying for non-existent jobs as medical receptionists or secretaries.

Usually during the "interviews" the man tried to become intimate with the women.

Haynik gave a false name when arrested but fingerprints proved he was an ex-convict with five aliases and a three-page police record dating back to 1934. The record consists of arrests for larceny, burglary, auto theft and felonious assault. Haynik said he was released from prison on the assault conviction June 23.

Workers in a downtown medical building had been alerted about the "doctor" since the man usually arranged to meet his applicants in hospitals, clinics or medical buildings.

Employes notified police Thursday when they noticed a man approach a younger girl in the building and the two had left together.

Police found the suspect having coffee with the girl, a young bride of about a week, who said the man had called her and asked if she was seeking a job.

Full steam ahead for the State 4-H Camp—this is the program recommended by Orr, Governor Morrison, and Antes, left to right.

Governor Spearheads 4-H Camp Fund Drive

By GLENN KREUSCHER
Farm Editor

Governor Frank Morrison called for action Friday from all Nebraskans to take an active part with nickels, dimes and dollars to support a rebuilding at the State 4-H Camp at Halsey.

Governor Morrison designated July 31 as the day for young and old to participate in what he termed "one of the most important items of business we have for Nebraska" by sending their contributions for the State 4-H Camp to their county extension agents.

"It is important that we rebuild the State 4-H Camp that was damaged by the May 5 forest fire as soon as possible," said the governor as he took a personal hand in spearheading the fund drive for the 3,500 4-H clubs in the state.

$50,000 Goal

Much of the fund drive campaign is and will be done by the boys and girls but they need help badly to push a $50,000 fund drive over the top, according to Wes Antes, state 4-H leader.

Money raising schemes to rebuild facilities at Halsey have ranged from a Kearney State College fraternity pulling a 1900 vintage fire engine down the highway to a sidewalk bazaar in Geneva, and a musk thistle eradication project in Thayer County.

More than 10,000 youth from all 93 counties have used the facility since it was dedicated in 1963. The camp has been available to youth and adult groups for all types of camping, training conferences and meetings.

Antes and John Orr, assistant state 4-H leader, emphasized that dollars can restore the many benefits already realized and add to the use of one of the most popular and worthwhile projects for Nebraska youth in the state.

"Nebraska youth should not have to suffer from the disaster of the forest fire when the State 4-H Camp has lived up to its expectations in providing recreation, social activity, nature studies, craft, competitive sports, and training in citizenship, leadership and experience in group living," say the friends of 4-H.

Governor Morrison emphasized that this is a job that dollars can do and it can be a project for everyone in the state.

Women's Job Corps Center Tour Planned

Omaha (UPI) — Newsmen will have an opportunity to tour the Women's Job Corps center Tuesday.

An open house for reporters will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Regis Hotel.

Reporters will be permitted to talk to enrollees, attend classes and visit with resident advisers. They will also be invited to eat lunch in the center where some enrollees are learning to prepare and serve food.

Thirty-three more girls arrived Tuesday, bringing to 103 the total at the center.

Legion Aims, Performance Given Praise

Omaha (AP) — The annual Nebraska convention of the American Legion, got under way Friday with an address by Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb.

About 2,000 Legion and auxiliary members are expected to attend the sessions running through Sunday. A highlight will be a seven-section parade Saturday morning.

Sen. Curtis praised the aims and performance of the American Legion and said "the legislative program of the Legion is not built around self, but it is for others."

Curtis declared: "your interests have been directed toward him who has borne the battle, his widow and children.

"You have been a bulwark of strength for those causes which mean the perpetuation of the blessings of this land of freedom.'"

Nebraska Should Seek 'Corporate Intelligentsia,' Tieman Emphasizes

Nebraska News

Omaha (AP) —Wausa banker N. T. Tieman told a group of Omaha business and professional men that Nebraska should bend every effort to attract "the corporate intelligentsia."

These, he said, are the people who put a premium on imagination, education, adaptability and quality.

Tieman, who has been mentioned as a possible Republican candidate for governor, said the state needs to create an image of solid educational excellence at every level.

He added that industry is attracted to states where the higher educational system is one of excellence and that this is a challenge Nebraska must meet.

Tieman said the building of such excellence should be led by the University of Nebraska and that in the College of Medicine in Omaha, the university has the beginning of a great medical center.

Another need, he said, is the development of trained technicians at vocational trade schools.

Wheat Harvest Activity Moves From Southwest

The State Department of Labor reported Friday that the harvest of winter wheat has been completed in the McCook and Paxton-Wallace-Sutherland areas.

The department said harvesting is continuing in the Ogallala, Grant and Sidney areas, all reporting surplus machines, and in the Alliance area, where crop estimates are being revised downward due to severe rust infestation.

Memorial Campaign Launched

. . . For Churchill

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Clearwater—A hay country community of under 500 is the starting place.

The goal is a quarter of a million dollars.

That's the drive that got started here Friday night to promote a memorial to Winston Churchill and a state program to promote international understanding.

A troupe of singers, dancers and other performers put on the premiere of the International Review to kick off a three week tour of the state that will begin Saturday morning.

The volunteer performers will have major engagements in 18 Nebraska communities and will also make brief stops in over 100 others along the way.

Included in the troupe are the Ymedaca Singers from Assumption Academy in Norfolk; Dean Kaul, a professional folk singer from Lincoln; former Miss Nebraska, Mary Lee Jepsen with a baton act; and TV personality Joe Martin of Omaha.

Also touring and presenting comments on the unique Churchill program will be Harold Pawsey of Salford, England.

The young accountant has made a return to Clearwater after being the program's first exchangee two years ago. He came here as a stand-in for Winston Churchill after Clearwater became the first community to grant the British statesman citizenship.

The program is being coordinated by Bruce Dickinson of Plainview, who perpetuated the exchange with a goodwill visit to England last year, and Dick Svoboda of Norfolk, a June graduate of Hamilton College in Clinton, N.Y.

"This whole concept is so idealistic," said Svoboda, "it was established in May, and it is amazing that it has come this far."

The $250,000 that the group hopes can be raised will inaugurate a continuing foreign exchange program and also build a memorial to Winston Churchill south of Clearwater to be used for a study for those interested in the ideals of freedom and international relations.

Charges Filed In Tot's Death

Omaha (AP) — Elmer R. McGraw, 24, who said he came to Omaha about a month ago from Pierre, S.D., was charged with manslaughter Friday in connection with the death of a 2-year-old boy.

Deputy County Attorney Frank Pane said Brian Duane King, two-year-old son of Mrs. Geraldine King, was dead on arrival at a local hospital July 8.

Pane said McGraw, who had been living with Mrs. King, told authorities he had given the boy a bath July 7. He was quoted as saying the tot slipped and fell down the stairs after getting out of the tub.

Memorial Campaign Launched

. . . For Churchill

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Clearwater—A hay country community of under 500 is the starting place.

The goal is a quarter of a million dollars.

That's the drive that got started here Friday night to promote a memorial to Winston Churchill and a state program to promote international understanding.

A troupe of singers, dancers and other performers put on the premiere of the International Review to kick off a three week tour of the state that will begin Saturday morning.

The volunteer performers will have major engagements in 18 Nebraska communities and will also make brief stops in over 100 others along the way.

Included in the troupe are the Ymedaca Singers from Assumption Academy in Norfolk; Dean Kaul, a professional folk singer from Lincoln; former Miss Nebraska, Mary Lee Jepsen with a baton act; and TV personality Joe Martin of Omaha.

Also touring and presenting comments on the unique Churchill program will be Harold Pawsey of Salford, England.

The young accountant has made a return to Clearwater after being the program's first exchangee two years ago. He came here as a stand-in for Winston Churchill after Clearwater became the first community to grant the British statesman citizenship.

The program is being coordinated by Bruce Dickinson of Plainview, who perpetuated the exchange with a goodwill visit to England last year, and Dick Svoboda of Norfolk, a June graduate of Hamilton College in Clinton, N.Y.

"This whole concept is so idealistic," said Svoboda, "it was established in May, and it is amazing that it has come this far."

The $250,000 that the group hopes can be raised will inaugurate a continuing foreign exchange program and also build a memorial to Winston Churchill south of Clearwater to be used for a study for those interested in the ideals of freedom and international relations.

Charges Filed In Tot's Death

Omaha (AP) — Elmer R. McGraw, 24, who said he came to Omaha about a month ago from Pierre, S.D., was charged with manslaughter Friday in connection with the death of a 2-year-old boy.

Deputy County Attorney Frank Pane said Brian Duane King, two-year-old son of Mrs. Geraldine King, was dead on arrival at a local hospital July 8.

Pane said McGraw, who had been living with Mrs. King, told authorities he had given the boy a bath July 7. He was quoted as saying the tot slipped and fell down the stairs after getting out of the tub.

Millions For The Asking

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Many will roundly condemn passage of the administration housing bill that is now on its way to a Senate-House conference and then on the President for his certain signature. The measure has a total of 10 titles or sections, each with a number of provisions of their own. In all, there are dozens of things for which federal funds become available under the bill.

"New Towns" Must Wait

The only thing considered and eliminated is the provision having to do with loans and mortgage insurance for the acquisition of land on the fringes of metropolitan areas. This so-called "new town" provision did not make it in the Senate version and will not make it in conference. But the bill still provides $7.5 billion to be scattered about the nation over the next four years in the form of loans, grants and insurance. Thus, the merits of the proposal are now somewhat irrelevant. The important thing now is that the measure has passed. From there, the question is what Nebraska and Lincoln want to do with it.

Generally speaking, the bill is aimed at assistance on the local rather than state level. The much discussed rent subsidy provisions are currently meaningless for Lincoln because they go only to families in one of several kinds of public housing programs.

Possibly, the small integrated housing program operated in Lincoln under Modern Community Developers could utilize the rent subsidy provisions of the bill. The organization at least might investigate the possibility. Otherwise, the subsidy is aimed at families living or wanting to live in public housing developments, of which Lincoln has none.

Lincoln's city government should want to investigate provisions of the bill which furnish grants up to $1,000 to low income home owners for home improvements. If the bill can be used aside from any other public housing or urban renewal projects, which appears to be the case, it could be a valuable tool in the establishment of an effective minimum standards housing ordinance. It could help in this regard by raising much existing sub-standard housing to an adequate level and, thus, reducing the impact of an effective minimum standards bill. Further, the city might want to investigate, or encourage others to do so, the possibility of a non-profit, low rent housing development such as has long been discussed in Lincoln. Such a project as that might be more feasible under the new housing bill than has been the case in the past and it would definitely be eligible for use of the rental subsidy program.

Under Title VI of the bill, there are three sub-titles that could be important to Lincoln. They are basic public works such as water and sewer systems, neighborhood centers for recreation, crafts, etc, and advance acquisition of land for public purposes. Under Title VIII are two sub-titles. They are open-space land acquisition grants which Lincoln has used but which are being expanded and grants for urban beautification and improvements.

The bill will provide federal assistance for a variety of measures. For instance, it will provide grants for park improvements, including routine improvements such as better lighting, water and sanitary facilities, walks, landscaping, shelters, etc. This, along with other federal funds available for other park developments, could be a terrific boon to Lincoln.

Then, four other specific areas are cited as eligible for federal grants. One is for improvement of malls, squares, waterfront areas and other public areas. We have no waterfronts that would qualify, probably, but we have thought a long time of a mall or public square development.

From Streets To The Arts

Next comes street improvements, including lighting, benches, tree planting and decorative use of pavement or other outdoor flooring. Again, Lincoln's downtown comes to mind. Next are "activities on behalf of the arts, such as construction of facilities for outdoor exhibits." Lincoln has also thought from time to time of a municipal art center for theatrical productions, exhibits, etc. And finally, grants for the development of pedestrian malls in streets closed to traffic. That is exactly what Lincoln has long contemplated.

Many other local developments would be permitted with the local group making the decisions and supplying 60 percent of the costs. Lincoln should let no grass grow under its feet in gaining a thorough knowledge of the new housing bill and the possibilities it offers. It is a matter deserving full time attention of appropriate city officials.

Eyesores To Remain

With accompanying lame comment, the Legislature turned down a proposal by Lincoln's Sen. Fern Hubbard Orme to eliminate the unsightly junk yards and dumps along the highways of Nebraska. As a substitute, it was proposed that the matter be subjected to an interim legislative study. That is, a small group of senators would examine the matter during the next two years and make recommendations to the 1967 session of the Legislature.

There is some difficulty in finding much basis for such a study. The issue is not one that lends itself to great complexity. Either you have these unsightly places along the highways or you do not and the only possible control lies in the hand of the state.

Senator Orme's proposal would not have eliminated the yards and dumps but would have required their enclosure with a fence to hide them from public view. It was noted by one senator that such fencing would be prohibitive where the yards or dumps were in rural areas not adjacent to highways. This could well be true but the answer is not to kill the bill but to amend it.

It would be sufficient if the control were exercised only on the Interstate and on the state's regular highway system. Even if it were made to apply only to the Interstate and other federal highways it would be a substantial improvement.

Going down to defeat as it did with a 24 to 8 negative vote, the measure would seem to have little chance of future favorable action in this session. This is unfortunate as it is difficult to understand why a few people should be permitted to offend the senses of so many.

The Stirring Words

The other day Virginia Gildersleeve died at the age of 87. The fact did not get heavy national news coverage, for while she may have been greatly revered by all who knew her there were many, many Americans who had never heard her name.

Virginia Gildersleeve was the retired dean of Barnard College, Columbia University. She was with that college for 50 years and her teaching put a lasting imprint on her students. She was a wise and idealistic woman.

Because she worked anonymously on one great piece of writing her public was large, but it did not know the author.

She sat at the beginning of the United Nations and set the pattern and wrote most of the words of the lifting preamble to the Constitution of the United Nations.

The very fact that the U.N. started out and continues to be a democracy of nations and is the place where the smallest nations can be heard equally with the great ones is in itself a triumph for our way of life. Her preamble is a masterful statement of modern times. She wrote:

"We the people of the United Nations determined—

"To save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and

"To reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small."

This was a brief statement but it packed in all that the human heart aspires. It is why we have the United Nations and it is a pure statement of its purpose, though not always fulfilled by the member nations. But human beings are full of faults. They find it hard to live up to their best intentions. But the expression of intention is essential and for that the name of Gildersleeve should be carved bigger than it is.

Editorial Of The Day

A New Wildlife Policy

From The New York Times

Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall has followed the advice of his Advisory Committee on Wildlife Management by giving the Division of Predator and Rodent Control a new name. It is now the Division of Wildlife Services. But the new name will not make it smell sweeter unless there is also a marked change from the old policy of "control for control's sake," which the committee denounced.

The widespread distribution of poison baits and other lethal devices by a small army of "Government trappers" has not only destroyed coyotes, foxes and bobcats in places where these animals damaged no livestock, but has also killed mountain lions, condors and other rare species needing protection, not persecution.

There are signs that Mr. Udall and the new administrators of the Fish and Wildlife Service are intent on instituting a policy that emphasizes conservation and provides control only where, and to the extent, actually needed. They selected a respected biologist and ecologist to head the renamed division. A timely order signed last month by Dr. Stanley A. Cain, the Assistant Secretary for Fish, Wildlife and Parks, halted a prairie dog poisoning program in South Dakota that threatened the survival of this almost extinct and interesting rodent.

Secretary Udall and his wildlife administrators need public support to undertake such reforms. They face opposition from some Western members of Congress who still cling to the unscientific, frontier-day point of view that all predators, birds or mammals, are evil "varmints" deserving only of extermination. These Congressmen can be expected to continue pressing for predator control appropriations the Department of the Interior doesn't want and to keep insisting that the department hire trappers and poisoners that it doesn't need.

Today It's About Bundy And Baptism

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, curious as to whether his daughter Luci had violated any church procedure by being baptized a Catholic after having been baptized an Episcopalian, consulted his new press secretary, Bill Moyers, a one-time clergyman.

The verdict came back that baptism is up to the individual.

Then Moyers recalled this story of the Baptist preacher in South Carolina who was calling the roll of his congregation as to whether they had been washed of their sins.

"Have you been washed of your sins, brothers?" he asked the congregation.

"Tell me where and when," he asked each member.

"At the Methodist church in Dry Creek, S.C.," was one reply.

"How were you washed? Were you sprinkled?"

"Yes."

"You weren't baptized," reproved the parson. "You were dry cleaned!"

Hope for the negotiation of a Vietnamese peace after the monsoon season was expressed to the House Foreign Affairs committee recently by Secretary of State for far eastern affairs. Bundy, brother of White House adviser McGeorge Bundy, is one of those who recommended that the President launch the now unproductive policy of bombing North Viet Nam.

Testifying behind closed doors, Bundy told congressmen he is confident the United States can hold off Viet Cong attacks during the monsoon season, which ends in late October. The United States is in excellent shape to continue "successful defensive" maneuvers until then, Bundy said.

The possibility of peaceful negotiations should be much brighter "After we have won this decisive victory," Bundy said.

He hinted that full strength of American forces in Viet Nam is, or soon would be, around 100,000 ground troops plus air force units.

"Many of us are worried that the conflict over there is being dangerously escalated," said Rep. Donald M. Fraser, D-Minn. "How can you expect to negotiate with these people after we have hit them over the head with a club?"

"Actually, what we are doing is preventing an escalation by the Viet Cong," replied Bundy. "Our position will improve as long as we can discourage such escalation."

He added that President Johnson is doing everything possible to seek and secure peace, "even though some of you may not agree with his methods."

Caracas Is An Exploding City

CARACAS, Venezuela — This is a fantastic city for which the visitor is wholly unprepared. The freeways with their constant rush of traffic are like Los Angeles, the soaring white skyscrapers that seem to spring out of the ground overnight give a feeling, against a backdrop of cloud-wrapped mountains, of San Francisco.

Yet it is a Latin city with the heedless, pushing force that defies all the rules. Above all, Caracas is a boom town with no sign of slackening in the furious pace that has seen a growth from 300,000 of 15 years ago to 1,500,000 today. So careless are the statistical measurements and so rapid the growth that the total today may be closer to 2,000,000.

With it have come all the ills of galloping urbanism, a plague that whether it be in Tokyo or New York or Rome spreads beyond the seeming power of society to abate. It is accentuated here in a capital that not many decades ago was hardly more than a frontier town for the cattle and mining interests out of the colonial past that dominated the country.

In the very shadow of luxury apartment houses are the ranchos—the shacks—of the squatters who pour in from the countryside to take over any area not fenced in. They live for the most part without electricity, running water or any kind of sanitation. The municipality makes an effort to improve their quarters, but with an estimated 400,000 persons existing in ranchos and the number increasing every day it is like sweeping up the sea with a broom.

What is more, Venezuela's birth rate, as the visitor is told with a mixture of national pride and dismay, is one of the highest in the world. The net increase each year is put at something over 3.5 percent but it is believed to be more nearly four percent. The small American technical assistance program, about $1,500,000 annually, includes proffered help on population control.

Not even a start at a program has been made, however, and here again urbanism run riot has played havoc with settled ways. Up to half of the births each year are illegitimate and the rate of induced abortions is believed to be phenomenally high. In the countryside a form of common-law marriage serves to hold families together. In the cities this has broken down and the family pattern is threatened by concubinage, wholesale prostitution and other even more squalid practices.

Foreign capital has done exceedingly well in Venezuela and so has the government which can finance a broad social program, thanks to the great sea of oil that underlies large areas of the country. A half-billion dollars in repatriated profits goes to the United States each year. Of this total nearly half goes to Standard Oil of New Jersey, which makes its Creole subsidiary—for both distribution and exploitation of petroleum—Standard's most profitable single operation.

ON TARGET

By DON WALTON

And to the 1965 Legislature's growing list of spectaculars solid tentative approval of a bill to sell Nebraska's school lands.

Walton

That action followed by a day the decision to appropriate $600,000 in tax funds to centennial year.

And the day before that, senators voted to established at least one, perhaps two, new state-financed and state-operated vocational technical schools during the 1965-67 biennium.

Everyone talks about the fact that the Legislature is still in session, here in the middle of July. No wonder. The 1965 Unicameral, while admittedly wasting time now and then, is doing more than its predecessors ever dreamed of doing.

Not only has it rewritten Nebraska's basic tax structure and moved to the verge of reorganizing the state's public power agencies.

The list of major legislation which it has approved is enormous, everything from the $194 million budget for education, welfare and institutions and the $68.5 million capital construction program to a bill quietly increasing payments for workmen's compensation.

It has reapportioned itself once, and appears intent on doing it again in response to federal court orders.

What we are trying to say is that it should be no surprise to find the Legislature still in session — for it is busy completing the unfinished business of the past.

In doing so much, the 1965 session may — how's this for a naive suggestion — reduce the length of future sessions by clearing away many of the public issues which have been unattended for so many years.

Nebraskans need only be concerned about the length of this year's session if it were dragging on without accomplishment. But that ain't the case.

Perhaps we should not say it, but one of the encouraging features of the 1965 Unicameral is its independence from pressure — including newspaper pressure.

The state's largest daily has taken two terrific beatings on issues to which it applied its considerable influence, the state income tax and earmarking of revenue from the cigarette tax.

Neither Lincoln daily has come close to controlling events either.

And that, we submit, is healthy. Lawmakers take the views of others into account but, on the whole, they have reached an independent judgment based on the facts as they see them.

Same for the public pressure expressed by mail, telephone and personal message. The income tax issue is No. 1 on the list of legislative action in spite of and in the face of pressure.

Of course, examples can be found where senators have yielded here and there. But, on the whole, this is an independent Legislature.

We do not suggest that it is perfect.

But, compared to past Nebraska Legislatures, it's a dilly.

How To Win

Lincoln, Neb.

What kind of a war are we fighting in Viet Nam? It is a propaganda war by destroying the belief of a people in the governing power. Destroying communications and supply lines. And, at the same time, attempting to establish belief in the guerilla and his purpose.

It is an economic war by buying time, through harassment in order to build up materials and to stabilize conditions to carry out the purpose for which the guerrilla activity was organized.

It is a political war in that its strength and its success depend upon the cooperation of the civilian population of a country so stricken.

Cutting the guerrilla supplies will slow but not stop his efforts. Retaliation measures against a people have generally proven to be ineffective. What then is effective? There are two measure which can be taken.

The first of these is a mopping up operation. This means a series of connected pincers movements covering every conceivable area where the guerillas may have arms, men and materials. This method is costly, in manpower as well as time and money.

The second method is the establishment of trust and belief of a people in the governing bodies—authority—together with communication. This requires the development of local leaders in communities throughout Viet Nam. These leaders comprising a "congress" to act for their people.

In order to gain these objectives takes time. In order to secure this time, we must use the same measures as the gueriila. At the same time, defending as best we can.

It appears that we of the United States through our governmental policies are doing exactly this, as far as we cango. For those who suggest withdrawal, this is exactly what the Viet Cong desire. Then they will obtain the necessary time to build up the military machine, and, off to the conquest.

I suggest that the opponents of this action of ours in this country should study our revolution, our Civil War, and the results of appeasement to Germany in regards to the second World War. To these and to the logic displayed by the Chinese government, we must look for our course of action. To these, it would appear, our administration has looked.

Labor Front Farce

Tekamah, Neb.

Nebraska's position on the so called "right to work" law is exactly what could be expected in a state where the majority of the legislators and the people think just about the way the "fat cat money grabbers" would have us think. It must be with much satisfaction that they find they can still manipulate their puppet strings on this state and continue to remove 20 per cent of the state's potential labor income.

While this is not as sad a situation as is our totally unorganized and disorganized agriculture, it must still amount to a considerable sum of money. Our large corporation owned, controlled and advertising dominated newspaper has done its job well. It is a prime example of the freedom of the press usurpring also the freedom to propagandize, confuse and mold men's minds to serve quite well their own greedy interests.

A true masterpiece of corporate propaganda is contained in the statement by Louis E. Harris representing the Associated Industries of Nebraska. He stated that the repeal of the state right to work law would force working persons to pay tribute to a union official in order to obtain a job.

I am wondering just how much "tribute" is being paid by the various members of his group in order that Mr. Harris might lobby for them. Isn't it just possible that both the Associated Industries of Nebraska and the State Chamber of Commerce are really more concerned about those extra dollars that they would have to pay in wages than they are about any "tribute" the laboring man would pay?

I believe it is safe to say that most labor union members have the intelligence to know that their union dues is not tribute to some union official, but rather, money used to support an organized group of people in an organized group effort to demand rather than beg from ployers a fair and just return for their time and effort.

It is this kind of narrow mindedness which insures this state's continued economic stalemate and its constant out-migration of the younger generation.

Why The Silence?

Lincoln, Neb.

We have seen lots of pictures about Nazi atrocities. The TRAIN film here shows it again when innocent hostages in France are shot to death.

It is more than 20 years since the Nazi regime died.

I wonder why there is silence about the communist atrocities still existing? Millions of people perished in camps of Siberia or in mass graves here and there.

That is, a small group of senators would examine the matter during the next two years and make recommendations to the 1967 session of the Legislature.

There is some difficulty in finding much basis for such a study. The issue is not one that lends itself to great complexity. Either you have these unsightly places along the highways or you do not and the only possible control lies in the hand of the state.

Senator Orme's proposal would not have eliminated the yards and dumps but would have required their enclosure with a fence to hide them from public view. It was noted by one senator that such fencing would be prohibitive where the yards or dumps were in rural areas not adjacent to highways. This could well be true but the answer is not to kill the bill but to amend it.

It would be sufficient if the control were exercised only on the Interstate and on the state's regular highway system. Even if it were made to apply only to the Interstate and other federal highways it would be a substantial improvement.

Going down to defeat as it did with a 24 to 8 negative vote, the measure would seem to have little chance of future favorable action in this session. This is unfortunate as it is difficult to understand why a few people should be permitted to offend the senses of so many.

The Stirring Words

The other day Virginia Gildersleeve died at the age of 87. The fact did not get heavy national news coverage, for while she may have been greatly revered by all who knew her there were many, many Americans who had never heard her name.

Virginia Gildersleeve was the retired dean of Barnard College, Columbia University. She was with that college for 50 years and her teaching put a lasting imprint on her students. She was a wise and idealistic woman.

Because she worked anonymously on one great piece of writing her public was large, but it did not know the author.

She sat at the beginning of the United Nations and set the pattern and wrote most of the words of the lifting preamble to the Constitution of the United Nations.

The very fact that the U.N. started out and continues to be a democracy of nations and is the place where the smallest nations can be heard equally with the great ones is in itself a triumph for our way of life. Her preamble is a masterful statement of modern times. She wrote:

"We the people of the United Nations determined—

"To save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and

"To reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small."

This was a brief statement but it packed in all that the human heart aspires. It is why we have the United Nations and it is a pure statement of its purpose, though not always fulfilled by the member nations. But human beings are full of faults. They find it hard to live up to their best intentions. But the expression of intention is essential and for that the name of Gildersleeve should be carved bigger than it is.

A New Wildlife Policy

From The New York Times

Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall has followed the advice of his Advisory Committee on Wildlife Management by giving the Division of Predator and Rodent Control a new name. It is now the Division of Wildlife Services. But the new name will not make it smell sweeter unless there is also a marked change from the old policy of "control for control's sake," which the committee denounced.

The widespread distribution of poison baits and other lethal devices by a small army of "Government trappers" has not only destroyed coyotes, foxes and bobcats in places where these animals damaged no livestock, but has also killed mountain lions, condors and other rare species needing protection, not persecution.

There are signs that Mr. Udall and the new administrators of the Fish and Wildlife Service are intent on instituting a policy that emphasizes conservation and provides control only where, and to the extent, actually needed. They selected a respected biologist and ecologist to head the renamed division. A timely order signed last month by Dr. Stanley A. Cain, the Assistant Secretary for Fish, Wildlife and Parks, halted a prairie dog poisoning program in South Dakota that threatened the survival of this almost extinct and interesting rodent.

Secretary Udall and his wildlife administrators need public support to undertake such reforms. They face opposition from some Western members of Congress who still cling to the unscientific, frontier-day point of view that all predators, birds or mammals, are evil "varmints" deserving only of extermination. These Congressmen can be expected to continue pressing for predator control appropriations the Department of the Interior doesn't want and to keep insisting that the department hire trappers and poisoners that it doesn't need.

Today It's About Bundy And Baptism

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, curious as to whether his daughter Luci had violated any church procedure by being baptized a Catholic after having been baptized an Episcopalian, consulted his new press secretary, Bill Moyers, a one-time clergyman.

The verdict came back that baptism is up to the individual.

Then Moyers recalled this story of the Baptist preacher in South Carolina who was calling the roll of his congregation as to whether they had been washed of their sins.

"Have you been washed of your sins, brothers?" he asked the congregation.

"Tell me where and when," he asked each member.

"At the Methodist church in Dry Creek, S.C.," was one reply.

"How were you washed? Were you sprinkled?"

"Yes."

"You weren't baptized," reproved the parson. "You were dry cleaned!"

Hope for the negotiation of a Vietnamese peace after the monsoon season was expressed to the House Foreign Affairs committee recently by Secretary of State for far eastern affairs. Bundy, brother of White House adviser McGeorge Bundy, is one of those who recommended that the President launch the now unproductive policy of bombing North Viet Nam.

Testifying behind closed doors, Bundy told congressmen he is confident the United States can hold off Viet Cong attacks during the monsoon season, which ends in late October. The United States is in excellent shape to continue "successful defensive" maneuvers until then, Bundy said.

The possibility of peaceful negotiations should be much brighter "After we have won this decisive victory," Bundy said.

He hinted that full strength of American forces in Viet Nam is, or soon would be, around 100,000 ground troops plus air force units.

"Many of us are worried that the conflict over there is being dangerously escalated," said Rep. Donald M. Fraser, D-Minn. "How can you expect to negotiate with these people after we have hit them over the head with a club?"

"Actually, what we are doing is preventing an escalation by the Viet Cong," replied Bundy. "Our position will improve as long as we can discourage such escalation."

He added that President Johnson is doing everything possible to seek and secure peace, "even though some of you may not agree with his methods."

Caracas Is An Exploding City

CARACAS, Venezuela — This is a fantastic city for which the visitor is wholly unprepared. The freeways with their constant rush of traffic are like Los Angeles, the soaring white skyscrapers that seem to spring out of the ground overnight give a feeling, against a backdrop of cloud-wrapped mountains, of San Francisco.

Yet it is a Latin city with the heedless, pushing force that defies all the rules. Above all, Caracas is a boom town with no sign of slackening in the furious pace that has seen a growth from 300,000 of 15 years ago to 1,500,000 today. So careless are the statistical measurements and so rapid the growth that the total today may be closer to 2,000,000.

With it have come all the ills of galloping urbanism, a plague that whether it be in Tokyo or New York or Rome spreads beyond the seeming power of society to abate. It is accentuated here in a capital that not many decades ago was hardly more than a frontier town for the cattle and mining interests out of the colonial past that dominated the country.

In the very shadow of luxury apartment houses are the ranchos—the shacks—of the squatters who pour in from the countryside to take over any area not fenced in. They live for the most part without electricity, running water or any kind of sanitation. The municipality makes an effort to improve their quarters, but with an estimated 400,000 persons existing in ranchos and the number increasing every day it is like sweeping up the sea with a broom.

What is more, Venezuela's birth rate, as the visitor is told with a mixture of national pride and dismay, is one of the highest in the world. The net increase each year is put at something over 3.5 percent but it is believed to be more nearly four percent. The small American technical assistance program, about $1,500,000 annually, includes proffered help on population control.

Not even a start at a program has been made, however, and here again urbanism run riot has played havoc with settled ways. Up to half of the births each year are illegitimate and the rate of induced abortions is believed to be phenomenally high. In the countryside a form of common-law marriage serves to hold families together. In the cities this has broken down and the family pattern is threatened by concubinage, wholesale prostitution and other even more squalid practices.

Foreign capital has done exceedingly well in Venezuela and so has the government which can finance a broad social program, thanks to the great sea of oil that underlies large areas of the country. A half-billion dollars in repatriated profits goes to the United States each year. Of this total nearly half goes to Standard Oil of New Jersey, which makes its Creole subsidiary—for both distribution and exploitation of petroleum—Standard's most profitable single operation.

ON TARGET

By DON WALTON

And to the 1965 Legislature's growing list of spectaculars solid tentative approval of a bill to sell Nebraska's school lands.

Walton

That action followed by a day the decision to appropriate $600,000 in tax funds to centennial year.

And the day before that, senators voted to established at least one, perhaps two, new state-financed and state-operated vocational technical schools during the 1965-67 biennium.

Everyone talks about the fact that the Legislature is still in session, here in the middle of July. No wonder. The 1965 Unicameral, while admittedly wasting time now and then, is doing more than its predecessors ever dreamed of doing.

Not only has it rewritten Nebraska's basic tax structure and moved to the verge of reorganizing the state's public power agencies.

The list of major legislation which it has approved is enormous, everything from the $194 million budget for education, welfare and institutions and the $68.5 million capital construction program to a bill quietly increasing payments for workmen's compensation.

It has reapportioned itself once, and appears intent on doing it again in response to federal court orders.

What we are trying to say is that it should be no surprise to find the Legislature still in session — for it is busy completing the unfinished business of the past.

In doing so much, the 1965 session may — how's this for a naive suggestion — reduce the length of future sessions by clearing away many of the public issues which have been unattended for so many years.

Nebraskans need only be concerned about the length of this year's session if it were dragging on without accomplishment. But that ain't the case.

Perhaps we should not say it, but one of the encouraging features of the 1965 Unicameral is its independence from pressure — including newspaper pressure.

The state's largest daily has taken two terrific beatings on issues to which it applied its considerable influence, the state income tax and earmarking of revenue from the cigarette tax.

Neither Lincoln daily has come close to controlling events either.

And that, we submit, is healthy. Lawmakers take the views of others into account but, on the whole, they have reached an independent judgment based on the facts as they see them.

Same for the public pressure expressed by mail, telephone and personal message. The income tax issue is No. 1 on the list of legislative action in spite of and in the face of pressure.

Of course, examples can be found where senators have yielded here and there. But, on the whole, this is an independent Legislature.

We do not suggest that it is perfect.

But, compared to past Nebraska Legislatures, it's a dilly.

—Warned Terry Carpenter to Omaha senators during debate this week on a bill which would have controlled Omaha annexation: "Somewhere along the line, you're going to have to be for something."

—Was George Syas looking into the future or just guilty of a slip of the tongue when he referred on the floor of the Legislature to "Senator Morrison?"

—One lady who voiced strong opposition to Ross Rasmussen's LB301, creating educational service units, offered him the solution to the problem of educating retarded children. Make their parents move to Omaha or Lincoln where such special education is now provided. That's what she said.

—Val Peterson is back in Denmark for the first time since he left the U.S. ambassadorial position in Copenhagen. He will begin to give serious consideration to a possible 1966 gubernatorial bid upon his return.

—When the Unicameral convenes on Monday, it will establish a new calendar record for length of session. The new legislative-day record will be established a week from Monday.

—Efforts to reach final agreement on future retail operations of the proposed new Nebraska electric grid system will be undertaken on the floor of the Legislature come Monday.

—Best argument for a state constitutional convention: 11 proposed amendments have been approved for inclusion on the 1966 general election ballot. More to come.

How To Win

Lincoln, Neb.

What kind of a war are we fighting in Viet Nam? It is a propaganda war by destroying the belief of a people in the governing power. Destroying communications and supply lines. And, at the same time, attempting to establish belief in the guerilla and his purpose.

It is an economic war by buying time, through harassment in order to build up materials and to stabilize conditions to carry out the purpose for which the guerrilla activity was organized.

It is a political war in that its strength and its success depend upon the cooperation of the civilian population of a country so stricken.

Cutting the guerrilla supplies will slow but not stop his efforts. Retaliation measures against a people have generally proven to be ineffective. What then is effective? There are two measure which can be taken.

The first of these is a mopping up operation. This means a series of connected pincers movements covering every conceivable area where the guerillas may have arms, men and materials. This method is costly, in manpower as well as time and money.

The second method is the establishment of trust and belief of a people in the governing bodies—authority—together with communication. This requires the development of local leaders in communities throughout Viet Nam. These leaders comprising a "congress" to act for their people.

In order to gain these objectives takes time. In order to secure this time, we must use the same measures as the guerilla. At the same time, defending as best we can.

It appears that we of the United States through our governmental policies are doing exactly this, as far as we cango. For those who suggest withdrawal, this is exactly what the Viet Cong desire. Then they will obtain the necessary time to build up the military machine, and, off to the conquest.

I suggest that the opponents of this action of ours in this country should study our revolution, our Civil War, and the results of appeasement to Germany in regards to the second World War. To these and to the logic displayed by the Chinese government, we must look for our course of action. To these, it would appear, our administration has looked.

Labor Front Farce

Tekamah, Neb.

Nebraska's position on the so called "right to work" law is exactly what could be expected in a state where the majority of the legislators and the people think just about the way the "fat cat money grabbers" would have us think. It must be with much satisfaction that they find they can still manipulate their puppet strings on this state and continue to remove 20 per cent of the state's potential labor income.

While this is not as sad a situation as is our totally unorganized and disorganized agriculture, it must still amount to a considerable sum of money. Our large corporation owned, controlled and advertising dominated newspaper has done its job well. It is a prime example of the freedom of the press usurpring also the freedom to propagandize, confuse and mold men's minds to serve quite well their own greedy interests.

A true masterpiece of corporate propaganda is contained in the statement by Louis E. Harris representing the Associated Industries of Nebraska. He stated that the repeal of the state right to work law would force working persons to pay tribute to a union official in order to obtain a job.

I am wondering just how much "tribute" is being paid by the various members of his group in order that Mr. Harris might lobby for them. Isn't it just possible that both the Associated Industries of Nebraska and the State Chamber of Commerce are really more concerned about those extra dollars that they would have to pay in wages than they are about any "tribute" the laboring man would pay?

I believe it is safe to say that most labor union members have the intelligence to know that their union dues is not tribute to some union official, but rather, money used to support an organized group of people in an organized group effort to demand rather than beg from ployers a fair and just return for their time and effort.

It is this kind of narrow mindedness which insures this state's continued economic stalemate and its constant out-migration of the younger generation.

Why The Silence?

Lincoln, Neb.

We have seen lots of pictures about Nazi atrocities. The TRAIN film here shows it again when innocent hostages in France are shot to death.

It is more than 20 years since the Nazi regime died.

I wonder why there is silence about the communist atrocities still existing? Millions of people perished in camps of Siberia or in mass graves here and there.

Ask the few happiest who fled the Red Paradise.

OFF THE RECORD By Ed. Reed

"Judging by the way my luck with secretaries has been running, it's just a temporary job."

Supreme Court Disbars Omaha Lawyer Nielsen

The State Supreme Court Friday found Omaha attorney Walter A. Nielsen guilty of unprofessional conduct and adjudged he should be disbarred.

He had been charged in a State Bar Association complaint with representing his wife as attorney in a divorce action against himself.

He was also charged with withholding child support checks which were to have gone to a client, Betty Ivey.

Nielsen had contended that Betty Ivey had consented to his signing the checks. He maintained also that he was entitled to represent his wife in other matters and thought he could do so in the divorce case also.

'Ethics Violated'

A referee which considered the disciplinary complaint against Nielsen concluded that several of the canons of professional ethics for lawyers had been violated, and the Supreme Court concurred.

In serving as attorney for his wife in the divorce case, Nielsen was involved in a conflict of interest, the court held.

"Under all of the circumstances herein detailed we feel that the respondent (Nielsen) in his conduct has utterly failed in his appreciation of the duties and responsibilities which an attorney should exercise to his client, his profession and to the courts," the supreme court said.

"The judgment is that the respondent be disbarred."

In other rulings Friday the court:

Refused to reverse the Douglas County District Court conviction under which Dale LeRoy Konvalin was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment for armed robbery and 7 years for assault with intent to commit rape.

"We find no error in the record that requires this court to interfere with the verdict," said the high court. Additionally, the sentences were within the scope of penalties provided by statute, the court said.

Konvalin, 41, had previously been sentenced for four different felonies and "appears to be a confirmed criminal," the high court said.

He was charged with accosting Kenneth Malskeit and Lorraine Orr as they sat in Malskeit's parked car in the 600 block on 38th St. in Omaha Feb. 14, 1964. At gunpoint, Malskeit was directed to drive to a lonely area where money was taken from the two persons, and Malskeit was locked in the trunk of the car. The rape attempt followed.

Konvalin was arrested later and was identified by the complaining witnesses as the gunman who had robbed them.

Returned to Hall County for retrial a suit for damages resulting from a two-car collision on U.S. Highway 30 west of Wood River Jan. 5, 1963.

Cornell S. Sober had sued Jacques S. Smith for damages to Sober's car incurred when the Sober auto collided with one driven by Carl Anderson.

Sober contended he slammed into Anderson's car while attempting to avoid hitting a storm window sash which had fallen from the Smith car, and that Smith was guilty of failing to use proper care. A Hall County District Court jury awarded Sober $1,303.50 for damages to his car.

However, the Supreme Court reversed the verdict and returned the case for retrial on grounds the jury had been improperly instructed, because the jury was not told that a question of contributory negligence by Smith was involved.

Reversed a York County District Court ruling upholding the transfer of the property of the Gerald Hinze family from school District 34 to the York school district.

The high court said the freeholders' petition was in error because the facilities of the York district are not closer to the Hinze property than are the facilities of District 34, as required for a valid transfer.

Reversed the ruling of the State Railway Commission revoking the certificate of convenience and necessity of the Red H. Hart Construction Co. on the grounds the commission cannot revoke license if dormancy of a company is not willfull.

Affirmed the judgment of the lower court jury which found that Roland Reynolds was entitled to the possession of two trucks mortgaged by Reynolds to the White Motor Co.

Bill Cutting Rental Rate On School Lands Passes Its First Floor Test

A bill cutting the rental rate on state school lands from 6% to 4% of appraised value each year was approved 31-6 in its first round floor test in the state Legislature Friday.

Omaha Sen. Sam Klaver's motion, made late Thursday, to kill LB316, was rejected 5-34 Friday, and the advancement from general file followed.

LB316 was introduced by Sen. Elvin Adamson of Valentine, Ramey Whitney of Choppell and George Fleming of Sidney.

The bill's backers maintained that the board of educational lands and funds, in order to get school land rented, is forced to reduce the appraised value to something less than actual value.

As amended, LB316 requires that school land be reappraised before the reduction from 6 to 4% takes effect.

Klaver contended LB316 is out of time in view of pending legislation to sell the state school lands within the next 12 years. He proposed holding up the bill until the final fate of the school land sale bill, which was given 31-11 first round approval this week.

Also approved on general file was an amended LB229 designed to increase the retirement benefits for teachers who retired before Jan. 1, 1955, the date when Social Security for teachers took effect, and who have not since qualified for Social Security benefits.

Sen. John Knight of Lincoln, who led the fight for the amended bill, said it would affect about 400 teachers and school employes age 75 and up by increasing their retirement benefits from $48 to $72 per month. The total cost was estimated at $115,200 per year at the outset, but Knight said deaths in the group will reduce the figure as time goes on.

The motion to advance LB229 carried 30-4.

In original form, LB229 would have increased retirement benefits for all teachers.

LIFE BEGINS AT FORTY:

France Needs Elders To Bolster Employment

By ROBERT PETERSON

Elders in France who want to continue working can generally do so. France's prosperous economy needs every able person it can get and, with virtually no unemployment, there's a job for every healthy elder who wants to work.

I've just gleaned the foregoing from an article on aging in the monthly economic report France Actuelle.

The report states that 12% of the population of France is now past 65 years of age, as compared with about 10% in the U.S.

Most of these elders are covered by the French social-security system which pays a modest pension and also provides payments toward medical, dental, and hospital bills and pays 80% of the cost of prescribed drugs.

Instead of retiring workers at age 65, many large French enterprises invite older workers to transfer to what is humorously known as "The Senate" — a work area providing less-demanding duties at lower pay.

Older employes at the Citroen and Renault plants, for instance, are invited to become "Senators" and receive half their former pay by performing tasks such as custodial chores, sorting mail, assisting with maintenance, and washing and repairing vehicles.

"Of course," writes an official, "it is sometimes difficult to persuade an elderly accountant to wash cars, but this is a matter for diplomatic persuasion."

The report states that many elderly folks in France become huissiers— a sort of combination floor-receptionist and messenger in the offices of big companies. Others carry out opinion polls, participate in market surveys, make deliveries, or become watchmen or guides.

Others serve as gardeners, sell subway tickets, or take on temporary postal jobs during peak seasons. Others work as librarians, hospital attendants, governesses and baby-sitters.

The French Government has apparently taken a keen interest in utilizing the nation's elders — not only to enlist their skills but to give more meaning to their lives. A report is quoted which states, "The non-use of manpower resources results in losses in national productivity and neglect of social resources never to be regained.

"Economic growth demands the dynamic unfolding of the total human potential whose fullest employment is essential. It is economically impossible to have an improving standard of living if increasing numbers of older persons are rejected or forced prematurely to withdraw from the productive section of society.

"If the capacity to produce, to consume, and to share taxation is curtailed among the older segment of of the population, the burden to be borne by the younger element is proportionately increased.

"But aside from the economic aspects, it is important for the physical and mental health of elders that they be kept active. The more something is used, be it a muscle or the brain, the longer it stays in good shape."

Perhaps we in the U.S. can benefit from French economic views on the values of utilizing senior skills. While much progress is being made, we still have a long ways to go in providing sufficient job opportunities for healthy elders who want to work.

Meet Star Carrier Mark Gronau

During November, 1964, 12 year old Mark Gronau was successful in starting a Lincoln Star Route in Battle Creek, Nebraska. By delivering free samples, he gave folks in Battle Creek a chance to look over his paper and sample his top-notch delivery service before subscribing to the paper.

Mark

Mark really enjoys his morning Star route and he has found that regular, early morning delivery service and regular calls on prospective customers has made his small business grow. The regular profit from his deliveries comes in handy too.

Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Gronau are very pleased with his progress and recommend newspaper routes for youngsters in Mark's age group.

Basketball and football are Mark's favorite sports and he enjoys fishing and swimming. Mark and his parents live in town but they have a farm nearby and Mark spends some of his spare time working on the farm during summer vacation.

Any young man interested in carrying a Star route should write to the State Carrier Department of the Lincoln Star in Lincoln, Nebraska 68501.

Supreme Court Disbars Omaha Lawyer Nielsen

The State Supreme Court Friday found Omaha attorney Walter A. Nielsen guilty of unprofessional conduct and adjudged he should be disbarred.

He had been charged in a State Bar Association complaint with representing his wife as attorney in a divorce action against himself.

He was also charged with withholding child support checks which were to have gone to a client, Betty Ivey.

Nielsen had contended that Betty Ivey had consented to his signing the checks. He maintained also that he was entitled to represent his wife in other matters and thought he could do so in the divorce case also.

'Ethics Violated'

A referee which considered the disciplinary complaint against Nielsen concluded that several of the canons of professional ethics for lawyers had been violated, and the Supreme Court concurred.

In serving as attorney for his wife in the divorce case, Nielsen was involved in a conflict of interest, the court held.

"Under all of the circumstances herein detailed we feel that the respondent (Nielsen) in his conduct has utterly failed in his appreciation of the duties and responsibilities which an attorney should exercise to his client, his profession and to the courts," the supreme court said.

"The judgment is that the respondent be disbarred."

In other rulings Friday the court:

Refused to reverse the Douglas County District Court conviction under which Dale LeRoy Konvalin was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment for armed robbery and 7 years for assault with intent to commit rape.

"We find no error in the record that requires this court to interfere with the verdict," said the high court. Additionally, the sentences were within the scope of penalties provided by statute, the court said.

Konvalin, 41, had previously been sentenced for four different felonies and "appears to be a confirmed criminal," the high court said.

He was charged with accosting Kenneth Malskeit and Lorraine Orr as they sat in Malskeit's parked car in the 600 block on 38th St. in Omaha Feb. 14, 1964. At gunpoint, Malskeit was directed to drive to a lonely area where money was taken from the two persons, and Malskeit was locked in the trunk of the car. The rape attempt followed.

Konvalin was arrested later and was identified by the complaining witnesses as the gunman who had robbed them.

Returned to Hall County for retrial a suit for damages resulting from a two-car collision on U.S. Highway 30 west of Wood River Jan. 5, 1963.

Cornell S. Sober had sued Jacques S. Smith for damages to Sober's car incurred when the Sober auto collided with one driven by Carl Anderson.

Sober contended he slammed into Anderson's car while attempting to avoid hitting a storm window sash which had fallen from the Smith car, and that Smith was guilty of failing to use proper care. A Hall County District Court jury awarded Sober $1,303.50 for damages to his car.

However, the Supreme Court reversed the verdict and returned the case for retrial on grounds the jury had been improperly instructed, because the jury was not told that a question of contributory negligence by Smith was involved.

Reversed a York County District Court ruling upholding the transfer of the property of the Gerald Hinze family from school District 34 to the York school district.

The high court said the freeholders' petition was in error because the facilities of the York district are not closer to the Hinze property than are the faciiites of District 34, as required for a valid transfer.

Reversed the ruling of the State Railway Commission revoking the certificate of convenience and necessity of the Red H. Hart Construction Co. on the grounls the commission cannot revoke license if dormancy of a company is not willfull.

Affirmed the judgment of the lower court jury which found that Roland Reynolds was entitled to the possession of two trucks mortgaged by Reynolds to the White Motor Co.

Bill Cutting Rental Rate On School Lands Passes Its First Floor Test

A bill cutting the rental rate on state school lands from 6% to 4% of appraised value each year was approved 31-6 in its first round floor test in the state Legislature Friday.

Omaha Sen. Sam Klaver's motion, made late Thursday, to kill LB316, was rejected 5-34 Friday, and the advancement from general file followed.

LB316 was introduced by Sen. Elvin Adamson of Valentine, Ramey Whitney of Choppell and George Fleming of Sidney.

The bill's backers maintained that the board of educational lands and funds, in order to get school land rented, is forced to reduce the appraised value to something less than actual value.

As amended, LB316 requires that school land be reappraised before the reduction from 6 to 4% takes effect.

Klaver contended LB316 is out of time in view of pending legislation to sell the state school lands within the next 12 years. He proposed holding up the bill until the final fate of the school land sale bill, which was given 31-11 first round approval this week.

Also approved on general file was an amended LB229 designed to increase the retirement benefits for teachers who retired before Jan. 1, 1955, the date when Social Security for teachers took effect, and who have not since qualified for Social Security benefits.

Sen. John Knight of Lincoln, who led the fight for the amended bill, said it would affect about 400 teachers and school employes age 75 and up by increasing their retirement benefits from $48 to $72 per month. The total cost was estimated at $115,200 per year at the outset, but Knight said deaths in the group will reduce the figure as time goes on.

The motion to advance LB229 carried 30-4.

In original form, LB229 would have increased retirement benefits for all teachers.

LIFE BEGINS AT FORTY:

France Needs Elders To Bolster Employment

By ROBERT PETERSON

Elders in France who want to continue working can generally do so. France's prosperous economy needs every able person it can get and, with virtually no unemployment, there's a job for every healthy elder who wants to work.

I've just gleaned the foregoing from an article on aging in the monthly economic report France Actuelle.

The report states that 12% of the population of France is now past 65 years of age, as compared with about 10% in the U.S.

Most of these elders are covered by the French social security system which pays a modest pension and also provides payments toward medical, dental, and hospital bills and pays 80% of the cost of prescribed drugs.

Instead of retiring workers at age 65, many large French enterprises invite older workers to transfer to what is humorously known as "The Senate" — a work area providing less-demanding duties at lower pay.

Older employes at the Citroen and Renault plants, for instance, are invited to become "Senators" and receive half their former pay by performing tasks such as custodial chores, sorting mail, assisting with maintenance, and washing and repairing vehicles.

"Of course," writes an official, "it is sometimes difficult to persuade an elderly accountant to wash cars, but this is a matter for diplomatic persuasion."

The report states that many elderly folks in France become huissiers—a sort of combination floor-receptionist and messenger in the offices of big companies. Others carry out opinion polls, participate in market surveys, make deliveries, or become watchmen or guides.

Others serve as gardeners, sell subway tickets, or take on temporary postal jobs during peak seasons. Others work as librarians, hospital attendants, governesses and baby-sitters.

The French Government has apparently taken a keen interest in utilizing the nation's elders — not only to enlist their skills but to give more meaning to their lives. A report is quoted which states, "The non-use of manpower resources results in losses in national productivity and neglect of social resources never to be regained.

"Economic growth demands the dynamic unfolding of the total human potential whose fullest employment is essential. It is economically impossible to have an improving standard of living if increasing numbers of older persons are rejected or forced prematurely to withdraw from the productive section of society.

"If the capacity to produce, to consume, and to share taxation is curtailed among the older segment of of the population, the burden to be borne by the younger element is proportionately increased.

"But aside from the economic aspects, it is important for the physical and mental health of elders that they be kept active. The more something is used, be it a muscle or the brain, the longer it stays in good shape."

Perhaps we in the U.S. can benefit from French economic views on the values of utilizing senior skills. While much progress is being made, we still have a long ways to go in providing sufficient job opportunities for healthy elders who want to work.

Meet Star Carrier Mark Gronau

Mark

During November, 1964, 12 year old Mark Gronau was successful in starting a Lincoln Star Route in Battle Creek, Nebraska. By delivering free samples, he gave folks in Battle Creek a chance to look over his paper and sample his top-notch delivery service before subscribing to the paper.

Mark really enjoys his morning Star route and he has found that regular, early morning delivery service and regular calls on prospective customers has made his small business grow. The regular profit from his deliveries comes in handy too.

Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Gronau are very pleased with his progress and recommend newspaper routes for youngsters in Mark's age group.

Basketball and football are Mark's favorite sports and he enjoys fishing and swimming. Mark and his parents live in town but they have a farm nearby and Mark spends some of his spare time working on the farm during summer vacation.

Any young man interested in carrying a Star route should write to the State Carrier Department of the Lincoln Star in Lincoln, Nebraska 68501.

THOU SHALT NOT MAKE UNTO THEE ANY GRAVEN IMAGE

This is the law of morality. Nothing must take God's place. This is the law that makes men humble, acknowledging a greater force than their own will and power. Graven images were not meant only as idols of stone, or precious metal as in Moses' time — but personal power and prestige . . . the idolatry of modern times. "Thou Shalt Not Make Unto Thee Any Graven Image." This is the law by which men learn to replace selfishness with selflessness; greed with good; hate with love. This is the law that obeyed, brings peace . . . disobeyed, brings destruction . . . for there is but one God.

Beverly Bopp Is Hospitalized After Accident

Mrs. Beverly J. Bopp, 34, of 543 Skyway Drive, was being held for observation at Linholn General Hospital following a one-car accident Friday.

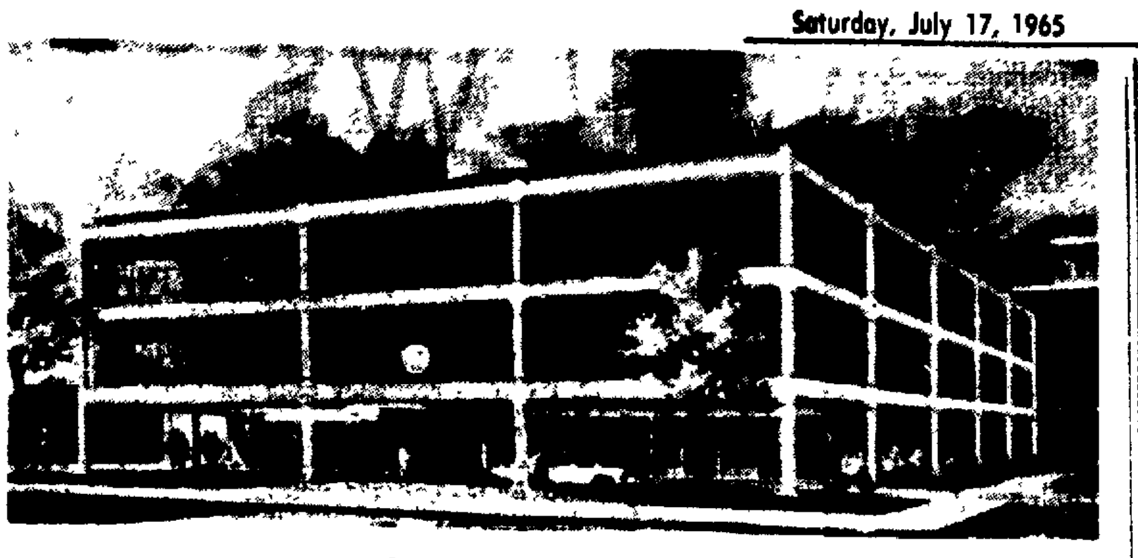
Mrs. Bopp, the wife of Walter D. Bopp, was driving east on D between 30th and 31st. She told Lincoln police her young son started to fall off the car seat beside her, and when she tried to catch him, the car went out of control and struck a power pole.

Her son was not listed as injured.

Sister Irmina Attends Institute

Pius X high school teacher Sister Mary Irmina Cambron, O.P., 5720 A, is now attending an eight week English Institute at the University of Kentucky.

Sister Irmina graduated from Boston College where she received her A.B. degree and from Catherine Spalding College, Louisville, Ky., where she received an M.A. degree.



Proposed Elks Lodge For 15th, P

Shown is the drawing of the proposed Elks Lodge building at 15th and P. as carried in the notice to the membership that a vote will be taken on the proposition August 4. The membership is asked to approve the building, at a cost not to exceed one and a half million dollars, and authority for the building corporation to borrow up to a million dollars.

Lincoln Youth Corps Discussed

Criteria for signing up Lincoln high school students for the city's Neighborhood Youth Corps were informally discussed Friday by two Lincoln public school officials and Roland L. Jensen, head of the state Technical Assistance Agency.

The two officials were Julius A. Humann, guidance director of the school system, and Vice Supt. Arzell Bell. The agency handles the Nebraska end of the Johnson administration's war on poverty.

Humann said that among the subjects discussed was the maximum income a student's family could have and still let the youth be eligible to enroll in the NYC.

A top income of between $3,000 and $4,000 for a family of four was mentioned, Humann said, who is directing the school system's NYC program.

He said that up to 44 students can enter the program this summer. The Neighborhood Youth Corpsmen will be allowed to work a maximum of 22 hours per week and be paid $1.25 per hour.

The corpsmen, mostly boys, will probably work on school lawn maintenance crews, Humann said. A few may work in printing shops, he added, and two or three may be employed in data processing.

Morris Sought Job In Oregon, Changed Mind

State Institutions Director George L. Morris confirmed Friday that he had at one time made application for the post of director of a newly created Oregon State Department of Corrections, but said he has withdrawn the application.

Morris, who receives $10,000 per year in his Nebraska post, said the Oregon position will pay $17,000 to $20,000, but he said salary had not been a factor in his consideration of a possible move.

He said the Oregon Board of Control in accepting applications for the position through this month.

Morris has headed the Nebraska Department of Institutions since it came into being in January of 1962 as successor to the old Board of Control. He supervises 13 institutions.

Proposed Elks Lodge For 15th, P

Shown is the drawing of the proposed Elks Lodge building at 15th and P, as carried in the notice to the membership that a vote will be taken on the proposition August 4. The membership is asked to approve the building, at a cost not to exceed one and a half million dollars, and authority for the building corporation to borrow up to a million dollars.

Lincoln Youth Corps Discussed

Criteria for signing up Lincoln high school students for the city's Neighborhood Youth Corps were informally discussed Friday by two Lincoln public school officials and Roland L. Jensen, head of the state Technical Assistance Agency.

The two officials were Julius A. Humann, guidance director of the school system, and Vice Supt. Arzell Bell. The agency handles the Nebraska end of the Johnson administration's war on poverty.

Humann said that among the subjects discussed was the maximum income a student's family could have and still let the youth be eligible to enroll in the NYC.

A top income of between $3,000 and $4,000 for a family of four was mentioned, Humann said, who is directing the school system's NYC program.

He said that up to 44 students can enter the program this summer. The Neighborhood Youth Corpsmen will be allowed to work a maximum of 22 hours per week and be paid $1.25 per hour.

The corpsmen, mostly boys, will probably work on school lawn maintenance crews, Humann said. A few may work in printing shops, he added, and two or three may be employed in data processing.

Beverly Bopp Is Hospitalized After Accident

Mrs. Beverly J. Bopp, 34, of 543 Skyway Drive, was being held for observation at Linholn General Hospital following a one-car accident Friday.

Mrs. Bopp, the wife of Walter D. Bopp, was driving east on D between 30th and 31st. She told Lincoln police her young son started to fall off the car seat beside her, and when she tried to catch him, the car went out of control and struck a power pole.

Her son was not listed as injured.

Sister Irmina Attends Institute

Pius X high school teacher Sister Mary Irmina Cambron, O.P., 5720 A, is now attending an eight week English Institute at the University of Kentucky.

Sister Irmina graduated from Boston College where she received her A.B. degree and from Catherine Spalding College, Louisville, Ky., where she received an M.A. degree.

Morris Sought Job In Oregon, Changed Mind

State Institutions Director George L. Morris confirmed Friday that he had at one time made application for the post of director of a newly created Oregon State Department of Corrections, but said he has withdrawn the application.

Morris, who receives $10,000 per year in his Nebraska post, said the Oregon position will pay $17,000 to $20,000, but he said salary had not been a factor in his consideration of a possible move.

He said the Oregon Board of Control in accepting applications for the position through this month.

Morris has headed the Nebraska Department of Institutions since it came into being in January of 1962 as successor to the old Board of Control. He supervises 13 institutions.

FORMER
coed is bride

The marriage of Miss Doris Pearce, daughter of Mrs. Harry Ross of Streator, Ill. and William Pearce of Jefferson, Ia., to Thomas E. Frolik, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Frolik of Lincoln, took place at the Immaculate Conception Church in Streator on Saturday morning, July 10. The 11:30 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Francis Cahill, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass, before a background of white carnations and white gladioli.

Miss Sharon Hoppe of Lincoln, as the maid of honor and only attendant, appeared in a gown of aqua-toned satin designed in the Empire mode. Her brief circular veil was held to the head with a small satin crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and white Marguerite daisies.

Gary Larsen of Lincoln served Mr. Frolik as best man, and seating the guests were John Aschinger and Richard Swanson.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white crepe and Chantilly lace. The Empire bodice of lace, designed with long sleeves and a bateau neckline, narrowed to a slender waist, and the floor-length skirt of crepe was given back interest with a Watteau train which extended into chapel length. Her tiered, shoulder-length veil was held in place with a pillbox hat of lace applique and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses, stephanotis and ivy strands.

Mr. Frolik and his bride will reside in Boston, Mass., where Mrs. Frolik will be a member of the Boston public schools faculty.

NEWS
of the suburban areas

There is a family custom, we hear tell, of giving one dollar for every year at birthday time. This gift brings increasing happiness with age, but also tied in the bow is a little more hesitancy each year in the divulgence of its amount.

This morning there is news of a first birthday party and also much news about families in Lincoln who are on the move.

HAPPY HOLLOW HEIGHTS

Wednesday, Julie Beth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Youngren, celebrated her first birthday with an afternoon party. Guests at the celebration were Jodi Fuerst, Jill Fuerst, Terri Steele, Cindy Jones, Christy Upton, and Cori Fuerst.

MEADOW LANE

A very surprised couple last Saturday evening were Capt. and Mrs. James A. Forgas who were honored at a canape party and dinner by Meadow Lane neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Jed MacDougall were host and hostess at their home for the affair which was a farewell courtesy for Capt. and Mrs. Forgas who, with their children, Gary, Karen, and Andrea, will leave Lincoln the last of the month after residing here since 1956.

Capt. Forgas, an aircraft commander with the 98th wing at the Lincoln Air Force gomery, Ala. Guests at the party were Mr. Base, will attend Air Command and Staff College, Maxwell Air Force Base, Montand Mrs. Francis Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gustafson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Shields, and Mr. and Mrs. James Rodzielski.

There seems to be more party news from the Meadow Lane area. Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Pazure entertained guests at a Welcome-to-Lincoln party for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Samsa. Mr. and Mrs. Samsa are now making their home in the Wedgewood area.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stephens are on the move. They recently have changed Lincoln addresses, from 1301 Carlos Dr. to 501 Northborough. During this change, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Heald moved from 501 Northborough to their new Lincoln home at 1720 No. 62nd St.

Thursday night, Mrs. Charles Wendelin gave a baby shower for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy Keeney of 2211 No. 61st St. The guest list included 25 of Mrs. Keeney's friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bishop have been having a family reunion. Mrs. Bishop's brothers, Paul Henderson of Eugene, Ore., and Ji Kenneth Henderson of Portland, Ore., are visiting with the Bishops. The family get-together was joined by Mrs. Bishop's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Croskary of Millard, who were in Lincoln the past week.

EASTBOROUGH

John Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neal, is taking a two-week vacation from the Lincolnland area. He is in Giltner visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Alma Kolar.

EASTRIDGE

Eastridge welcomes two new out-of-state residents to the area. Mr. and Mrs. Dan McDowell, formerly of Decatur, Ga., are now living at 5924 Meadowbrook. Other moving news includes Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Schmidt who have moved to 1211 Eastridge from Des Moines, Ia.

INDIAN VILLAGE

This morning we announce a new resident in the Indian Village area. Mr. and Mrs. Sylia Fen are making their new home at 1520 Dakota. The Fens are formerly of Portland, Ore.

IN town for a visit

Time was when we went 'over the river and through the woods' to arrive at Grandmother's house. But that was then. Now you go 'over the tree-tops and through the clouds'—At least that is the way two very young travelers did it yesterday. They flew from Denver to Lincoln.

Six year-old Miss Kathy Volz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Volz of Denver, and five year-old Amy Junge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Junge of Boulder, Colo., were greeted at the Air Port by their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Volz and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Junge.

Judging from the small Miss Junge's luggage she plans to do a little home work. She brought her sewing machine, as you can see in the picture.

ABBY
ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is that my husband will not let me visit my sister. She lives in Nevada. She was married once, had a child, and then had the marriage annulled. She married again, briefly, but it didn't work out, so she got a divorce. She is now living with a man who has a legal separation from his wife. He can't get a divorce because of religious reasons. He treats my sister very well and is a wonderful father to her son. She has many good qualities, we understand each other, and I love her. My husband doesn't even want me to talk to her on the phone. Abby, I'm her only sister and she has no one else to confide in. My husband is afraid she will be a bad influence on me. He is a very religious man and his word is law. What should I do?

ONLY SISTER

DEAR SISTER: A religious man should know something of forgiving seventy times seven. And if he chooses to ignore that, refer him to John (New Testament) which suggests that he who is without sin cast the first stone.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: My sister is a 28-year-old divorcee. She's very good-looking and a live wire. She has no children. She met a man in Florida last winter. He is 55 years old but doesn't look it. My sister has convinced him that life begins at 40. He wants to marry her, but here's the problem: This man wants my sister to keep a kosher kitchen. She's never done it before and hates to go to all that bother. Do you think she should keep kosher for this man?

BEA

DEAR BEA: Not unless the man is Jewish.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I was visiting with relatves living in a small town over Memorial Day. This town has three ministers and, instead of the three walking in the parade. one rode a bicycle. Now there is a time and place for everything. As far as I am concerned, that was the wrong place to be riding a bicycle. The members of his congregation were embarrassed, which I can easily understand. I think we should be reverent about things pertaining to our country and what the boys did for us. Ministers are always telling us what to do and not to do, while they themselves don't practice what they preach. What do you think?

SHOCKED

DEAR SHOCKED: And we should not be critical until we know all the facts. For all we know, the minister who rode the bicycle in the Memorial Parade might have been unable to walk because of an injury sustained in World War II.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: Anybody who says that women have equal rights in this country is just kidding himself.

If a man's trousers are too tight, he's just put on a little weight. (If a woman's skirt is too tight, she's trying to be sexy).

If a man stands on a corner, he's getting some fresh air. (If a woman stands on a corner, she's looking to be picked up.)

If a man has one drink too many, it just "slipped up" on him. (If a woman does, she's a lush.)

If a man has a night out with the boys, he's worked hard all day and needs to "relax." (If his wife has a night out with the girls, she's up to no good and ought to be home with her family.)

If a man cheats on his wife, his wife is probably a cold fish and he's only human. (If a woman cheats, she's a tramp.)

If a kid turns out good, he's a chip off the old block. (If he turns out bad, his mother did a rotten job raising him)

Right, Abby? It's a man's world.

FORMER coed is bride

The marriage of Miss Doris Pearce, daughter of Mrs. Harry Ross of Streator, Ill. and William Pearce of Jefferson, Ia., to Thomas E. Frolik, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Frolik of Lincoln, took place at the Immaculate Conception Church in Streator on Saturday morning, July 10. The 11:30 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Francis Cahill, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass, before a background of white carnations and white gladioli.

Miss Sharon Hoppe of Lincoln, as the maid of honor and only attendant, appeared in a gown of aqua-toned satin designed in the Empire mode. Her brief circular veil was held to the head with a small satin crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and white Marguerite daisies.

Gary Larsen of Lincoln served Mr. Frolik as best man, and seating the guests were John Aschinger and Richard Swanson.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white crepe and Chantilly lace. The Empire bodice of lace, designed with long sleeves and a bateau neckline, narrowed to a slender waist, and the floor-length skirt of crepe was given back interest with a Watteau train which extended into chapel length. Bride On Friday

At a candlelight service on Friday evening, July 16, the marriage of Miss Lorna A. Stahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Stahl, to Robert L. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larue Thompson of Sheridan, Ind., took place at Our Savior's Lutheran Church. The Rev. Robert G. Nelson solemnized the 7:30 o'clock service, and Miss Barbara Honnor played the wedding music.

Mrs. James Hayhurst, the matron of honor and only attendant, wore a long-skirted sheath frock of chiffon over taffeta in the frosted aqua shade.

Donald Goodnight of Kirkland, Ind., served as best man, and seating the guests were Calvin Miller and Jerry Kramer.

The bride appeared in a gown of pebble crepe and Alencon lace, designed in the Empire mode. The long-sleeved bodice of lace was designed with a bateau neckline, and the slender, sheath skirt of crepe featured a self-bowed Watteau drape at the back. A calot of lace held to the head her tiered veil, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Opening lead — king of clubs.

It is not uncommon for declarer to be struggling with a contract which has virtually no chance of success. This situation may occur as the result of overbidding, misbidding, or any of a dozen other good or bad reasons.

But whatever the cause, declarer has to do all he can to salvage such a situation. Sometimes what appears to be an absolutely impossible contract can be made by applying that extra amount of effort which so often marks the difference between success and failure.

Take this hand where South is playing an opitmistic four spade contract. Looking at only the North-South hands, it would seem that declarer must lose two club tricks, at least one spade, and at least one diamond.

This adds up to a minimum of four losers and makes the outcome seem hopeless. However, if South pays attention to his knitting, he makes the contract.

West cashes the king of clubs and plays another club to the ace. East returns a heart, which South wins with the ace.

Declarer realizes that he must lose at least one trump trick, regardless of how favorably the spades are divided, so he concentrates all his thoughts on avoiding the loss of a diamond.

Since he lacks the strength in diamonds to avoid a natural loser in that suit, he tries to organize his play so as to create a ruff-discard situation and perhaps thus escape a diamond loser.

In line with this, he finesss the queen of diamonds at trick four, plays a heart to the king, continues with a diamond to the ace, and follows this by ruffing the jack of hearts.

When he now plays the ace and another spade, West wins with the king but finds that he must return a heart or a club. Whichever return he chooses, South ruffs it in dummy as he discards the nine of diamonds from his hand.

Brides-Elect Honored

In prenuptial courtesy to Miss Helga Lutomski, whose marriage to Gordon McCamley will be solemnized on Aug. 29, Mrs. John Barzatt was hostess at a neighborhood party last Wednesday evening at her home. During the informal evening the honoree was presented with a kitchen shower.

Miss Lutomski will again be an honoree on Sunday, Aug. 1, when Mrs. Larry Mahagan entertains at her home.

And this morning Miss Lutomski makes announcement of her bridal attendants. For her maid of honor she has chosen Miss Carol Bucy of Denver, and the bridesmaids will be Mr. McCamley's sisters, the Misses Katherine and Margaret McCamley of Columbus.

Another August bride is Miss Patricia Jean McClarnon, whose marriage to Ronald Walker will take place on Saturday, Aug., and Miss McClarnon also is the incentive for prenuptial courtesies.

On Friday evening, July 30, Miss McClarnon will be complimented by Miss Sharon Von Busch who has invited guests for a miscellaneous shower. The group will include the bride-elect's associates at the Lincoln Telephone Co.

One of the recent parties for Miss McClarnon was the miscellaneous shower for which Miss Anita Walker and Miss Judy Reddish were hostesses at the home of Miss Walker.

Bride On Friday

At a candlelight service on Friday evening, July 16, the marriage of Miss Lorna A. Stahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Stahl, to Robert L. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larue Thompson of Sheridan, Ind., took place at Our Savior's Lutheran Church. The Rev. Robert G. Nelson solemnized the 7:30 o'clock service, and Miss Barbara Honnor played the wedding music.

Mrs. James Hayhurst, the matron of honor and only attendant, wore a long-skirted sheath frock of chiffon over taffeta in the frosted aqua shade.

Donald Goodnight of Kirkland, Ind., served as best man, and seating the guests were Calvin Miller and Jerry Kramer.

The bride appeared in a gown of pebble crepe and Alencon lace, designed in the Empire mode. The long-sleeved bodice of lace was designed with a bateau neckline, and the slender, sheath skirt of crepe featured a self-bowed Watteau drape at the back. A calot of lace held to the head her tiered veil, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Brides-Elect Honored

In prenuptial courtesy to Miss Helga Lutomski, whose marriage to Gordon McCamley will be solemnized on Aug. 29, Mrs. John Barzatt was hostess at a neighborhood party last Wednesday evening at her home. During the informal evening the honoree was presented with a kitchen shower.

Miss Lutomski will again be an honoree on Sunday, Aug. 1, when Mrs. Larry Mahagan entertains at her home.

And this morning Miss Lutomski makes announcement of her bridal attendants. For her maid of honor she has chosen Miss Carol Bucy of Denver, and the bridesmaids will be Mr. McCamley's sisters, the Misses Katherine and Margaret McCamley of Columbus.

Another August bride is Miss Patricia Jean McClarnon, whose marriage to Ronald Walker will take place on Saturday, Aug., and Miss McClarnon also is the incentive for prenuptial courtesies.

On Friday evening, July 30, Miss McClarnon will be complimented by Miss Sharon Von Busch who has invited guests for a miscellaneous shower. The group will include the bride-elect's associates at the Lincoln Telephone Co.

One of the recent parties for Miss McClarnon was the miscellaneous shower for which Miss Anita Walker and Miss Judy Reddish were hostesses at the home of Miss Walker.

Opening lead — king of clubs.

It is not uncommon for declarer to be struggling with a contract which has virtually no chance of success. This situation may occur as the result of overbidding, misbidding, or any of a dozen other good or bad reasons.

But whatever the cause, declarer has to do all he can to salvage such a situation. Sometimes what appears to be an absolutely impossible contract can be made by applying that extra amount of effort which so often marks the difference between success and failure.

Take this hand where South is playing an opitmistic four spade contract. Looking at only the North-South hands, it would seem that declarer must lose two club tricks, at least one spade, and at least one diamond.

This adds up to a minimum of four losers and makes the outcome seem hopeless. However, if South pays attention to his knitting, he makes the contract.

West cashes the king of clubs and plays another club to the ace. East returns a heart, which South wins with the ace.

Declarer realizes that he must lose at least one trump trick, regardless of how favorably the spades are divided, so he concentrates all his thoughts on avoiding the loss of a diamond.

Since he lacks the strength in diamonds to avoid a natural loser in that suit, he tries to organize his play so as to create a ruff-discard situation and perhaps thus escape a diamond loser.

In line with this, he finesss the queen of diamonds at trick four, plays a heart to the king, continues with a diamond to the ace, and follows this by ruffing the jack of hearts.

When he now plays the ace and another spade, West wins with the king but finds that he must return a heart or a club. Whichever return he chooses, South ruffs it in dummy as he discards the nine of diamonds from his hand.

Third Straight Crown For Mrs. Schwartzkopf

. . . IN LADIES' STATE GOLF TOURNEY

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

Dorothy Schwartzkopf retained her Nebraska State Ladies Golf Championship for the third straight year Friday with an 8 and 7 win over her 16-year-old daughter. Christie, in the 36-hole finals at the Hillcrest Country Club.

"I guess Christie probably felt, 'Well, poor old Mom doesn't have many years left, so I'll let her have this one,'" Dorothy joked as mother, daughter and husband-father Sam walked toward the clubhouse after the match.

"I don't feel too badly," Christie offered. "How about that twin eagle? I couldn't even win a hole with an eagle." She was referring to the 10th hole of the afternoon round where both Christie and Dorothy eagled the par-5, 374-yard hole.

Both reached the green with their second shots and sank the putts.

Christie ran into putting troubles during the morning round, missing several four-footers while falling five holes behind as they made the turn on the first 18.

The young golfer, who moved up to the Ladies division after winning the junior crown last year at the Omaha Firld Club, fell seven holes behind before winning a hole.

She won the 131-yard, par-3 12th with a par, but fell 7-down again with a bogey-5 on the 335-yard 13th.

Christie won the 16th and 18th with pars as they stopped for lunch before continuing the 36-hole match.

Dorothy had shot rounds of 40-40, only four over par during the morning while Christie had 46-41 to be 11 over par.

When the afternoon round opened, Dorothy played like she wanted to get out of the hot sun, winning the first three holes with a par and two birdies.

She gained a birdie-4 at the 406-yard second when her seven-foot putt stopped at the edge of the cup, rested there for several seconds, then dropped in.

Her three-foot birdie putt on the par-4 third hole came after Christie had missed a birdie putt from seven feet.

But after going 8-down at this point, Christie rallied to win the fifth and seventh holes before losing the ninth.

When both halved the 10th hole of the afternoon round with the eagle-3s, Christie was faced with the problem of not being able to lose another hole.

She hit her tee shot into the left rough and was hampered on her next swing by a tree, which helped her to a bogey-6 while Dorothy was parring the hole to win the championship.

Dorothy first won a state title in 1959 but didn't win again until 1963. Friday's victory made her only the second golfer to win three straight.

Mrs. Russell Mann won four straight from 1950-53.

With the exception of a string of holes early in the morning round, Christie played well enough to win.

"She lost it on Nos. 3 through 11 in the morning," caddie Dick Dosek pointed out. "She was even at the end of two and after the 11th, she was only 1-down for the next 18."

Christie lost seven of the nine holes from No. 3 through No. 11, halving the other two.

"Mrs. Schwartzkopf didn't let up on her a bit either," her caddie, Marc Gorges, noted. "She played her best all the way."

"I told Christie not to expect any help from her mother," Dosek added. "I knew Mrs. Schwartzkopf would be trying her best."

Dorothy's one-over-par 40 on the first nine holes bears this out.

"Except for her putting, she was hitting the ball as good as I've ever seen her," Gorges said. "But her putting was bad. In 81 holes up until today in competition, she hadn't three-putted any greens, but she had three three-putt greens on the first nine today."

Friday's round ended Christie's competitive golf activity for the season. She will miss the Lincoln City Tournament to represent Nebraska in Girls Nation at Washington, D.C., in August.

Later in August, she will attend a national leadership conference in Denver.

Mrs. Al Berger of Omaha Country Club won the championship consolation flight with a 2-up victory over Joyce Pocras of Hillcrest.

Waters Wins Junior Title

Kathy Waters of the Omaha Country Club won the junior division of the Nebraska State Ladies Golf Tournament Friday with a 7 and 5 decision over Evelyn Heineman of Wahoo at Hillcrest.

Kathy thus takes over the title vacated by Lincoln's Christie Schwartzkopf, last year's winner who moved up to gain runner-up honors in the regular division this year.

Linda Haller of McCook won championship consolation honors, defeating Mary Edstrom of Wahoo, 7 and 6.

Friday Another Erratic Day In Lincoln Racing

. . . FIVE LONGSHOTS WIN

By BARRY BURKHART
Star Sports Writer

Friday was another erratic day at the Nebraska State Fairgrounds track as five of the eight winning horses were categorized as longshots.

The largest single payoff was in the third race where Pro-Claim came from back in the pack to put on a strong drive in the stretch and nip Welch's Pal by a nose in a photo finish.

The latter had a fairly good lead going into the stretch but faded at the wire. My Trouble, a 50-1 shot, was the show horse, one-length back.

Pro-Claim paid $39.80, $18.20 and $8.80; Welch's Pal returned $8.80 and $6.40; My Trouble paid $17.80 to show.

The seventh race, the featured KFOR Radio Purse, produced a fine field of horses which gave the fans a thrilling finish.

Say-Peanuts, at 6-1 odds, slipped through to the rail in the final turn, ran well in the stretch and beat Myrtle Red by one-length.

Myrtle Red had led the entire race but could not match the winner's pace in the stretch. She did, however, finish an easy 1¾ lengths ahead of Shepards Dream, the show horse.

The winner returned $14.60, $7.40 and $4.60; Myrtle Red paid $10.00 and $5.80; Shepards Dream paid $5.80.

Lady Unique (No. 4) and Bobbie M. (No. 7) combined wins in the first and second races respectively to pay a daily double of $78.80.

Bobbie M. had little trouble in her race, winning by two-lengths, but Lady Unique had to hold off a fast closing Make Whoopee in the stretch to post her ½-length victory.

Jockey Fred Acridge won his first race on a recognized track by piloting Happy Hiker to victory in the fifth. Acridge pushed Happy Hiker to the lead in the first turn and held his margin to the wire.

Track attendance and mutuel handle were up again over last year's totals for the same date. Mutuel handle was $186,060, up $37 728. Attendance was up 658 at 4,153.

PRISCILLA'S ON A SPREE

Saturday is always a big day at the Fairgrounds. Just having more people there livens up everything that much more.

I always feel the hustle and bustle of the crowd makes racing more enjoyable. Although it does help if your horses hustle too.

Priscilla

My hustlers for Saturday will be Darla in the sixth race and The Rage in the seventh hace, $2 to win each.

(Friday Aunt Priscilla lost $2 on Pipetongs in the sixth and got back $14.60 on Say-Peanuts in the seventh raising her spree fund to $97.40. She started with $92.)

Star Selections

1st—Starla, Good Bull, My Hoby.

Granted Divorce

London (AP) — John Edrich, star of the English national cricket team, was granted a divorce from his American tennis-playing wife Pat Stewart of Indianapolis, Friday on charges of adultery.

Shrine Profiles

Grant's Bill Daiss adds speed to the South Shrine Bowl team.

A two-time winner of the state Class C 100-yard dash title, Bill had a :09.7 mark to his credit as a senior.

Daiss

The Grant speedster earned 11 letters in football, basketball and track in high school.

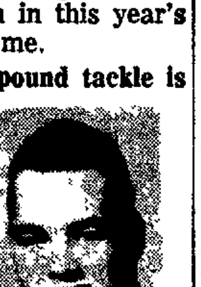
Bill was president of the FFA and his 4-H club and is spending the summer working in a grain elevator. He is planning a career in agricultural economics.

The 5-11, 180-pound athlete will wear No. 10 for the South all-stars in the Aug. 21 game.

BRUCE FISCHER

Bruce Fischer is one of three linemen representing Omaha Benson in this year's Shrine Bowl game.

The 6-0, 198-pound tackle is following in the footsteps of his brother Bob, as a Shrine Bowler. Bob played in the 1963 game.



Fischer

Bruce lettered in swimming in addition to football at Benson.

His favorite high school subject was English literature.

The Benson athlete is contemplating a career as a physical therapist or in the field of physical education.

He'll wear No. 65 for the North team.

—IN MAJOR LEAGUES—

Reds Retain First; Twins Lose Ground

The Cincinnati Reds clung to first place in the National League Friday night by making it two straight over Philadelphia 5-1, but the first place Minnesota Twins lost ground in the American League by losing to Kansas City 10-2.

Sammy Ellis pitched a five-hitter for the Reds, losing his shutout when Johnny Callison homered for the Phils in the ninth.

Kansas City piled up a 7-0 lead in its rout of the Twins behind Diego Segui's pitching.

The Los Angeles Dodgers kept on Cincinnati's heels by blanking the Chicago Cubs 3-0 behind Sandy Koufax's four-hitter. It was Sandy's 16th victory against three defeats.

San Francisco edged Houston 2-1, Dick Schofield's seventh inning single driving in the winning run.

Cleveland climbed within four games of Minnesota by defeating Boston 4-3 on Larry Brown's 10th inning homer. The Chicago White Sox also went overtime to beat the Los Angeles Angels 4-3 in 11 innings. Floyd Robinson tripled home the winning run.

Hector Lopez drove in three runs, pacing the New York Yankees to a 9-5 victory over Washington. St. Louis exploded for six runs in the sixth inning to beat the New York Mets 8-5 and Milwaukee overwhelmed Pittsburgh 12-2.

Baltimore edged Detroit 2-1 in 11 innings. Brooks Robinson doubled in the 11th and came around with the winning tally on two wild pitches by Larry Sherry. The game started nearly two hours late because of rain.

Baltimore Colts Sign Fullback Jerry Hill

Baltimore (AP) — The Baltimore Colts announced Friday the signing of Jerry Hill, who finished last season as the starting fullback after earlier sharing the duties with rookie Tony Lorick.

Hill ran the ball 88 times, averaging 4.4 yards per carry, and caught 36 passes for 417 yards and one touchdown.

Three Students Into Semifinals

. . . OF TRANS-MISSISSIPPI

Kansas City (AP) — Youth took over the Trans-Mississippi Amateur Golf Tournament Friday for the semifinal round.

Three collegians and a 24-year-old Kansas City insurance man survived the quarter-finals at the Kansas City Country Club course.

Paired off for one of the 36-hole semifinal matches Saturday will be Jim Colbert, Kansas City, and George Boutell, 20-year-old Arizona State player from Phoenix, Ariz.

Matched in the other will be Jim Weichers, 20-year-old Santa Clara college student from Menlo Park, Calif., and Jim Hardy, Hutchinson, Kan., 22-year-old Oklahoma State University student.

Hardy sank a 25-foot putt on the 19th hole to win over Joe Porter III Phoenix, Ariz. Friday.

Weichers, 1965 runner-up in the NCAA and winner of the National Junior tournament in 1962, defeated Dick Norville, 37-year-old player from Oklahoma City, 3 and 2.

Colbert had little trouble defeating Dennis Elkins, Albuquerque, N.M., 4 and 3, while Boutell downed Bob Dickson, Muskogee, Okla., 2 and 1.

Of the four winners, only Weichers managed to stay at or under par for the round.

Devlin Retains Canada Open Golfing Lead

Toronto (AP)—Bruce Devlin of Australia, weakening in the third round of the Canadian Open Golf Championship, shot a one-over-par 71 Friday for a 205 total that was good enough to keep him in the lead in the $100,000 tournament by two strokes.

An eager quartet was crowding him with 207. It was made up of Arnold Palmer, Gene Littler of Las Vegas, Jack Nicklaus, the Masters champion, and Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn.

Palmer made the strongest comeback of those now challenging the Australian, who plays out of Hilton Head Island, S.C.

Palmer, trailing Devlin by five strokes starting the field round, banged out a 68, his best round of the tournament.

Littler, starting at 138, shot a 69.

Nicklaus, only one stroke behind Devlin at the halfway mark, had trouble down the back nine, taking a two-over-par 37, to finish with 72, still two over.

Rudolph, who started four strokes away from Devlin, matched Littler's 69.

Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La., and Randy Glover of Florence, S.C., were alone at 208. Hebert shot a three-under-par 67 and Glover 69.

Gary Player, the South African winner of the U.S. Open, turned in a three-under-par 67—his best round of the tournament—for a score of 209.

Player said the neck pain that hit him in the British Open struck him again but added it hasn't affected his playing.

Big Mac Fishers' Hot Spot

Anglers at Lake McConaughy are hauling in white bass until their arms are tired and taking some big trout to boot, the Game Commission reports. The famed reservoir heads the list of this week's hot spots.

Johnson Reservoir, another top producer near Lexington, reports walleye and white bass biting. Mike Dubas of Columbus landed an 11-pound, 4-ounce, walleye there this week, a prized creelful in any book.

A seasonal decline in fishing pressure and catches, however, can be noted in some waters about the state.

A capsule report by area:

SAND HILLS

Niobrara River—catfish being caught on minnows. Merritt Reservoir—trout still active. Hefelt Lake—bullheads biting. Pine Creek—trout hitting.

NORTHEAST

Elkhorn River (Madison County)—catfish going for chicken entrails, chicken liver, frogs, and minnows, set lines better than poles. Lake North—carp on doughballs and corn; catfish on minnows and prepared bait. Loup Canal and Platte River—catfish being taken on set lines with minnows and crawdads for bait. Missouri River (Ponca area)—catfish on minnows. DeSoto Bend—1 to 5-pound catfish being taken.

SOUTHWEST

Johnson Reservoir—some white bass and walleye biting. Republican River (Orleans area)—catfishing hot. Red Willow Reservoir—catfish eager for baits of boiled minnows or sand loads, few bluegill, bass, and walleye. Medicine Creek—few walleye and catfish prowling. Swanson and Enders Reservoirs—few white bass, walleye, and catfish being taken at inlet. Lake Maloney—croppie and drum at inlet going for minnows; some walleye being caught by trollers. Lake McConaughy—white bass biting good at Lemoyne, Otter Creek, and Lakeview areas, also from the dam area at night; walleye fishing good for trollers using night crawlers, trout fishing still good using flatfish.

PANHANDLE

Smith Lake—bluegill, perch, and bass going for lures and artificial bait. Lake Minatare—trollers taking a few walleye with minnows and worms; perch fishing slow but those hitting are usually nice one-pounders. Stock Ponds north of Chadron and Crawford—bass being taken on surface plugs. Trout Streams—Niobrara River and Big and Little Bordeaux creeks best.

SOUTHEAST

Nemaha River—catfish being caught on liver and chicken entrails. Burchard Lake—crappie and bullheads active, occasional largemouth bass taking artificial lures. Blue River—catfish hitting in early morning or late evening. Wagon Train Lake—bullheads available. [illegible]—catfish being taken on chicken entrails and blood bait; carp chicken on corn, and drum on worms.

Trotter Earns Much

The trotting mare Proximity was bought for $500 after her 3-year-old career and went on to win $252,390.

Third Straight Crown For Mrs. Schwartzkopf

. . . IN LADIES' STATE GOLF TOURNEY

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

Dorothy Schwartzkopf retained her Nebraska State Ladies Golf Championship for the third straight year Friday with an 8 and 7 win over her 16-year-old daughter, Christie, in the 36-hole finals at the Hillcrest Country Club.

"I guess Christie probably felt, 'Well, poor old Mom doesn't have many years left, so I'll let her have this one," Dorothy joked as mother, daughter and husband-father Sam walked toward the clubhouse after the match.

"I don't feel too badly," Christie offered. "How about that twin eagle? I couldn't even win a hole with an eagle." She was referring to the 10th hole of the afternoon round where both Christie and Dorothy eagled the par-5, 374-yard hole.

Both reached the green with their second shots and sank the putts.

Christie ran into putting troubles during the morning round, missing several four-footers while falling five holes behind as they made the turn on the first 18.

The young golfer, who moved up to the Ladies division after winning the junior crown last year at the Omaha Firld Club, fell seven holes behind before winning a hole.

She won the 131-yard, par-3 12th with a par, but fell 7-down again with a bogey-5 on the 335-yard 13th.

Christie won the 16th and 18th with pars as they stopped for lunch before continuing the 36-hole match.

Dorothy had shot rounds of 40-40, only four over par during the morning while Christie had 46-41 to be 11 over par.

When the afternoon round opened, Dorothy played like she wanted to get out of the hot sun, winning the first three holes with a par and two birdies.

She gained a birdie-4 at the 406-yard second when her seven-foot putt stopped at the edge of the cup, rested there for several seconds, then dropped in.

Her three-foot birdie putt on the par-4 third hole came after Christie had missed a birdie putt from seven feet.

But after going 8-down at this point, Christie rallied to win the fifth and seventh holes before losing the ninth.

When both halved the 10th hole of the afternoon round with the eagle-3s, Christie was faced with the problem of not being able to lose another hole.

She hit her tee shot into the left rough and was hampered on her next swing by a tree, which helped her to a bogey-6 while Dorothy was parring the hole to win the championship.

Dorothy first won a state title in 1959 but didn't win again until 1963. Friday's victory made her only the second golfer to win three straight.

Mrs. Russell Mann won four straight from 1950-53.

With the exception of a string of holes early in the morning round, Christie played well enough to win.

"She lost it on Nos. 3 through 11 in the morning," caddie Dick Dosek pointed out. "She was even at the end of two and after the 11th, she was only 1-down for the next 18."

Christie lost seven of the nine holes from No. 3 through No. 11, halving the other two.

"Mrs. Schwartzkopf didn't let up on her a bit either," her caddie, Marc Gorges, noted. "She played her best all the way."

"I told Christie not to expect any help from her mother," Dosek added. "I knew Mrs. Schwartzkopf would be trying her best."

Dorothy's one-over-par 40 on the first nine holes bears this out.

"Except for her putting, she was hitting the ball as good as I've ever seen her," Gorges said. "But her putting was bad. In 81 holes up until today in competition, she hadn't three-putted any greens, but she had three three-putt greens on the first nine today."

Friday's round ended Christie's competitive golf activity for the season. She will miss the Lincoln City Tournament to represent Nebraska in Girls Nation at Washington, D.C., in August.

Later in August, she will attend a national leadership conference in Denver.

Mrs. Al Berger of Omaha Country Club won the championship consolation flight with a 2-up victory over Joyce Pocras of Hillcrest.

Friday Another Erratic Day In Lincoln Racing

. . . FIVE LONGSHOTS WIN

By BARRY BURKHART
Star Sports Writer

Friday was another erratic day at the Nebraska State Fairgrounds track as five of the eight winning horses were categorized as longshots.

The largest single payoff was in the third race where Pro-Claim came from back in the pack to put on a strong drive in the stretch and nip Welch's Pal by a nose in a photo finish.

The latter had a fairly good lead going into the stretch but faded at the wire. My Trouble, a 50-1 shot, was the show horse, one-length back.

Pro-Claim paid $39.80, $18.20 and $8.80; Welch's Pal returned $8.80 and $6.40; My Trouble paid $17.80 to show.

The seventh race, the featured KFOR Radio Purse, produced a fine field of horses which gave the fans a thrilling finish.

Say-Peanuts, at 6-1 odds, slipped through to the rail in the final turn, ran well in the stretch and beat Myrtle Red by one-length.

Myrtle Red had led the entire race but could not match the winner's pace in the stretch. She did, however, finish an easy 1¾ lengths ahead of Shepards Dream, the show horse.

The winner returned $14.60, $7.40 and $4.60; Myrtle Red paid $10.00 and $5.80; Shepards Dream paid $5.80.

Lady Unique (No. 4) and Bobbie M. (No. 7) combined wins in the first and second races respectively to pay a daily double of $78.80.

Bobbie M. had little trouble in her race, winning by two-lengths, but Lady Unique had to hold off a fast closing Make Whoopee in the stretch to post her ½-length victory.

Jockey Fred Acridge won his first race on a recognized track by piloting Happy Hiker to victory in the fifth. Acridge pushed Happy Hiker to the lead in the first turn and held his margin to the wire.

Track attendance and mutuel handle were up again over last year's totals for the same date. Mutuel handle was $186,060, up $37 728. Attendance was up 658 at 4,153.

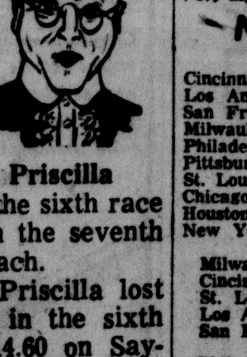
PRISCILLA'S ON A SPREE

Saturday is always a big day at the Fairgrounds. Just having more people there livens up everything that much more.

I always feel the hustle and bustle of the crowd makes racing more enjoyable. Although it does help if your horses hustle too.



Priscilla

My hustlers for Saturday will be Darla in the sixth race and The Rage in the seventh hace, $2 to win each.

(Friday Aunt Priscilla lost $2 on Pipetongs in the sixth and got back $14.60 on Say-Peanuts in the seventh raising her spree fund to $97.40. She started with $92.)

Star Selections

1st—Staria, Good Bull, My Hoby.

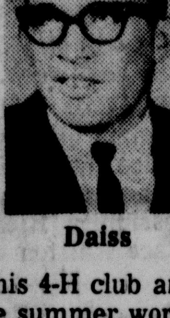
3rd—Little Gap, Ala Connie, Irish Dec.
4th—Buzz Palmer, Ooch By Gosh.
5th—Prince Kem, Didupet, Astaconda, Spy's Dream.
6th—Darla, Roman Palm, Foxie Foyle.
7th—The Rage, Talking Boy, Aquanotte.
8th—Herm's Boy, Lead and Leave, Grace Good.
9th—SPARTAN CODE, Comedian, Pierce entry.

Shrine Profiles

Grant's Bill Daiss adds speed to the South Shrine Bowl team.

A two-time winner of the state Class C 100-yard dash title, Bill had a :09.7 mark to his credit as a senior.



Daiss

The Grant speedster earned 11 letters in football, basketball and track in high school.

Bill was president of the FFA and his 4-H club and is spending the summer working in a grain elevator. He is planning a career in agricultural economics.

The 5-11, 180-pound athlete will wear No. 10 for the South all-stars in the Aug. 21 game.

BRUCE FISCHER

Bruce Fischer is one of three linemen representing Omaha Benson in this year's Shrine Bowl game.

The 6-0, 198-pound tackle is following in the footsteps of his brother Bob, as a Shrine Bowler. Bob played in the 1963 game.

Fischer

Bruce lettered in swimming in addition to football at Benson.

His favorite high school subject was English literature.

The Benson athlete is contemplating a career as a physical therapist or in the field of physical education.

He'll wear No. 65 for the North team.

Waters Wins Junior Title

Kathy Waters of the Omaha Country Club won the junior division of the Nebraska State Ladies Golf Tournament Friday with a 7 and 5 decision over Evelyn Heineman of Wahoo at Hillcrest.

Kathy thus takes over the title vacated by Lincoln's Christie Schwartzkopf, last year's winner who moved up to gain runner-up honors in the regular division this year.

Linda Haller of McCook won championship consolation honors, defeating Mary Edstrom of Wahoo, 7 and 6.

Reds Retain First; Twins Lose Ground

The Cincinnati Reds clung to first place in the National League Friday night by making it two straight over Philadelphia 5-1, but the first place Minnesota Twins lost ground in the American League by losing to Kansas City 10-2.

Sammy Ellis pitched a five-hitter for the Reds, losing his shutout when Johnny Callison homered for the Phils in the ninth.

Kansas City piled up a 7-0 lead in its rout of the Twins behind Diego Segui's pitching.

The Los Angeles Dodgers kept on Cincinnati's heels by blanking the Chicago Cubs 3-0 behind Sandy Koufax's four-hitter. It was Sandy's 16th victory against three defeats.

San Francisco edged Houston 2-1, Dick Schofield's seventh inning single driving in the winning run.

Cleveland climbed within four games of Minnesota by defeating Boston 4-3 on Larry Brown's 10th inning homer. The Chicago White Sox also went overtime to beat the Los Angeles Angels 4-3 in 11 innings. Floyd Robinson tripled home the winning run.

Hector Lopez drove in three runs, pacing the New York Yankees to a 9-5 victory over Washington. St. Louis exploded for six runs in the sixth inning to beat the New York Mets 8-5 and Milwaukee overwhelmed Pittsburgh 12-2.

Baltimore edged Detroit 2-1 in 11 innings. Brooks Robinson doubled in the 11th and came around with the winning tally on two wild pitches by Larry Sherry. The game started nearly two hours late because of rain.

Baltimore Colts Sign Fullback Jerry Hill

Baltimore (AP) — The Baltimore Colts announced Friday the signing of Jerry Hill, who finished last season as the starting fullback after earlier sharing the duties with rookie Tony Lorick.

Hill ran the ball 88 times, averaging 4.4 yards per carry, and caught 36 passes for 417 yards and one touchdown.

Three Students Into Semifinals

. . . OF TRANS-MISSISSIPPI

Kansas City (AP) — Youth took over the Trans-Mississippi Amateur Golf Tournament Friday for the semifinal round.

Three collegians and a 24-year-old Kansas City insurance man survived the quarter-finals at the Kansas City Country Club course.

Paired off for one of the 36-hole semifinal matches Saturday will be Jim Colbert, Kansas City, and George Boutell, 20-year-old Arizona State player from Phoenix, Ariz.

Matched in the other will be Jim Weichers, 20-year-old Santa Clara college student from Menlo Park, Calif., and Jim Hardy, Hutchinson, Kan., 22-year-old Oklahoma State University student.

Hardy sank a 25-foot putt on the 19th hole to win over Joe Porter III Phoenix, Ariz. Friday.

Weichers, 1965 runner-up in the NCAA and winner of the National Junior tournament in 1962, defeated Dick Norville, 37-year-old player from Oklahoma City, 3 and 2.

Colbert had little trouble defeating Dennis Elkins, Albuquerque, N.M., 4 and 3, while Boutell downed Bob Dickson, Muskogee, Okla., 2 and 1.

Of the four winners, only Weichers managed to stay at or under par for the round.

Devlin Retains Canada Open Golfing Lead

Toronto (AP)—Bruce Devlin of Australia, weakening in the third round of the Canadian Open Golf Championship, shot a one-over-par 71 Friday for a 205 total that was good enough to keep him in the lead in the $100,000 tournament by two strokes.

An eager quartet was crowding him with 207. It was made up of Arnold Palmer, Gene Littler of Las Vegas, Jack Nicklaus, the Masters champion, and Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn.

Palmer made the strongest comeback of those now challenging the Australian, who plays out of Hilton Head Island, S.C.

Palmer, trailing Devlin by five strokes starting the field round, banged out a 68, his best round of the tournament.

Littler, starting at 138, shot a 69.

Nicklaus, only one stroke behind Devlin at the halfway mark, had trouble down the back nine, taking a two-over-par 37, to finish with 72, still two over.

Rudolph, who started four strokes away from Devlin, matched Littler's 69.

Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La., and Randy Glover of Florence, S.C., were alone at 208. Hebert shot a three-under-par 67 and Glover 69.

Gary Player, the South African winner of the U.S. Open, turned in a three-under-par 67—his best round of the tournament—for a score of 209.

Player said the neck pain that hit him in the British Open struck him again but added it hasn't affected his playing.

Big Mac Fishers' Hot Spot

Anglers at Lake McConaughy are hauling in white bass until their arms are tired and taking some big trout to boot, the Game Commission reports. The famed reservoir heads the list of this week's hot spots.

Johnson Reservoir, another top producer near Lexington, reports walleye and white bass biting. Mike Dubas of Columbus landed an 11-pound, 4-ounce, walleye there this week, a prized creelful in any book.

A seasonal decline in fishing pressure and catches, however, can be noted in some waters about the state.

A capsule report by area:

SAND HILLS

Niobrara River—catfish being caught on minnows Merritt Reservoir—trout still active. Hofelt Lake—bullheads biting. Loup River—catfish going for minnows. Pine Creek—trout hitting.

NORTHEAST

Elkhorn River (Madison County)—catfish going for chicken entrails, chicken liver, frogs, and minnows; set lines better than poles. Lake North—carp on doughballs and corn; catfish on minnows and prepared bait. Loup Canal and Platte River—catfish being taken on set lines with minnows and crawdads for bait. Missouri River (Ponca area)—catfish on minnows. DeSoto Bend—1 to 5-pound catfish being taken on minnows.

SOUTHWEST

Johnson Reservoir—some white bass and walleye biting. Republican River (Orleans area)—catfishing hot. Red Willow Reservoir—catfish eager for baits of boiled minnows or sand toads; few bluegill, bass, and walleye. Medicine Creek—few walleye and catfish prowling. Swanson and Enders Reservoirs—few white bass, walleye, and catfish biting. Sutherland Reservoir—catfish being taken at inlet. Lake Maloney—croppie and drum at inlet going for minnows; some walleye being caught by trollers. Lake McConaughy—white bass fishing good at Lemoyne, Otter Creek, and Lakeview areas, also from the dam area at night; walleye fishing good for trollers using night crawlers; trout fishing still good using flatfish.

PANHANDLE

Smith Lake—bluegill, perch, and bass going for lures and artificial bait Lake Minatare—trollers taking a few walleye with minnows and worms; perch fishing slow but those hitting are usually nice one-pounders. Stock Ponds (north of Chadron and Crawford)—bass being taken on surface plugs. Trout Streams—Niobrara River and Big and Little Bordeaux creeks best.

SOUTHEAST

Nemaha River—catfish being caught on liver and chicken entrails. Burchard Lake—crappie and bullheads active; occasional largemouth bass taking artificial surface lures in early morning or late evening. Wagon Train Lake—bullheads available. Blue River—catfish being taken on chicken entrails and blood bait; carp going for corn, and drum for worms.

Brown Trial Turns From Sex To $$$

Cleveland (AP) — Testimony in the trial of Cleveland Browns fullback Jim Brown turned from sex to money Friday as court adjourned for the weekend.

Brenda Ayres, the 18-year-old girl who has accused Brown of assault and battery, spent most of her third day on the witness stand saying, "No" to questions by Norman S. Minor, Brown's attorney.

Minor's questions were directed toward an alleged telephone conversation June 21 between Miss Ayres and Paula White, her 16-year-old girl friend who introduced her to the 29-year-old All-Pro fullback.

Minor asked:

Q. Did you tell Paula that, "Mother told me it would be necessary for me to tell some lies. That if they let Jim Brown do all the talking, he would clear himself, and I would look bad, and we wouldn't have a chance in a civil suit to get the money."

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you say to her "Paula, you help me, and you'll get something out of it."

A. Mr. Minor, I did not talk to Paula on that day so I couldn't have said those things.

Minor finished his cross examination in late afternoon. Asst. Police Prosecutor Albert Corsi siad the girl may be called again Monday for re-direct examination. After that Corsi said, he probably will call the girl's mother, Mrs. Barbara Ayres.

Miss Ayres had previously denied she said that Brown would give $1,000 to have her leave him alone. Friday she said Brown gave her $60 to visit a sick uncle in Dayton, Ohio, but testified it was "a gift."

Brown, married and father of three children, reportedly makes $50,000 as a player and has added income from endorsements. He also is employed off season in the public relations department of a soft drink company.

During her three-day intensive cross examination, Miss Ayres has testified that Brown threatened her if she didn't accompany him to an East Side motel room the night of June 19.

In the room, the slender, 108-pound teen-ager said Brown slapped her on the face, hip and stomach and forced her to commit an unnatural sex act. She said he twice forced her to have sexual relations with him.

She said she had been intimate with Brown on various occasions since she was introduced to him May 12.

Gerry's Edge Columbus, 3-2

Columbus—Cornhusker Legion Legaue leading Lincoln Gerry's nipped Columbus here Friday night, 3-2, as Mike Delaney provided two key hits and Jan Hansen pitched 8 2-3 innings of fine baseball.

Delaney's singles in the fifth and seventh each drove in Gerry's runs and proved the winning margin.

In the fifth, Jack Gausha singled, stole second and then scored as Bauer reached base on an error. Delaney then drove in Bauer for the second run of that inning.

In the seventh, Galusha again singled and again stole second and then rode home on Delaney's single, which boosted Gerry's into a 3-to-0 lead.

Columbus came back to score two in the eighth and threatened in the ninth before Mike Bouman came in to quell the rally.

Gerry's is now 10-4 in the league and 11-8 overall. Columbus is 8-9 in the league.

College All-Stars Begin Practices

Chicago (AP) — The College All-Stars opened three weeks of practice Friday for their Aug. 6 meeting with the Cleveland Browns in Soldier Field.

The All-Stars devoted the morning session to picture taking ceremonies but got down to the real work in the afternoon.

Coach Otto Graham and his staff pressed the squad on the theme of avoiding errors as they introduced the collegians to the system to be used against the Browns.

Don Knauss Named Benson High Coach

Omaha (AP) — Donald E. Knauss, 31, coach at Gering high school for the past 10 years has been named to succeed Edward (Scotty) Orcutt as Benson High School basketball coach, Associated Superintendent of Schools Owen Knutzen said Friday.

Knauss was hired by the Omaha system last spring but was not given an assignment immediately. Orcutt, a 23-year employe of the school system and basketball coach since the 1946-1947 season will continue as varsity baseball coach, Dr. Knutzen said.

Unit Rejects Reciprocal Agreement

The Nebraska Game Commission Friday rejected a reciprocal agreement for Missouri River fishing suggested by the Missouri Conservation Commission and proposed an alternative.

The Missouri proposal held that commercial and sports fishing licenses of both states would be recognized on any part of the river as it flows between the two states, but the individual fisherman would have to abide by the rules and regulations of the state in which he was fishing.

"It would place an undue hardship on fishermen and law enforcement officers," said Willard Barbee, assistant Game Commission director. "The fisherman or officer would have to decide where that imaginary line separating the two states is located."

The commission by a 5-0 vote authorized Barbee to propose an agreement patterned after the Nebraska-Iowa reciprocal agreement.

It provides that anglers, regardless of which state they are fishing in, must abide by the rules and regulations of the state in which he is licensed.

Glenn Foster, chief of the Nebraska Fisheries Division, meanwhile reported that a Missouri River reciprocal fishing agreement with South Dakota is in the works.

Foster said he talked with South Dakota game officials recently at a meeting at Gavins Point and a reciprocal agreement similar to the Nebraska-Iowa agreement was discussed. "They seemed receptive," Foster said.

Several years ago, Nebraska and South Dakota officials clashed in a controversy over fishing rights in the tail waters of the Gavins Point Dam.

State's Golfers Must Register By 6 P.M. Today

Golfers interested in playing in the Nebraska State Amateur Men's Golf Tournament next week at the Lincoln Country Club must have their entries in by 6 p.m. today.

Lincoln golfers will shoot 18 holes of qualifying Monday with out-state golfers shooting their qualifying rounds Tuesday. The top 75 from the two days of qualifying will begin tourney play Wednesday.

The golfers will be divided into four flights after Thursday's round for the finals Friday. The leading 24 and ties will play 36 holes in the championship flight while other flights will play 18 holes Friday.

Omaha Mustang Coaches Meet With Pro Clubs

Omaha (UPI) — Quarterback Mike Dugan and advisory coaches Don Leahy and Al Caniglia of the Omaha Mustangs spent Friday with the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football League at their Liberty, Mo., camp.

Coach Bernie Berigan met with Minnesota Viking coaches a week ago.

The 89 Mustang hopefuls are slated to report for physical exams at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Commenting on the huddles with the AFL and NFL coaches, Mustang General Manager Robert Adwers said, "We can't have any tie-ups with those teams, but I'm sure we'll get some help from them."

The Mustangs will open their season in the Professional Football League of America on Aug. 21 at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The home opener will be with Lincoln Aug. 28.

Davis Cup Squad Has 6 Members

Chicago (AP) — A six-man United States Davis Cup squad, headed by nationally top-ranked Dennis Ralston, was named Friday for the American Zone finals to be played in Dallas, Tex., July 31-Aug. 2.

The U.S. squad, designated by non-playing Cup Capt. George MacCall of Los Angeles at the current National Clay Courts Tournament, will meet the winner of the Mexico-New Zealand zone showdown starting Saturday in Mexico City.

MacCall named Ralston and Arthur Ashe' Jr., Richmond, Va., to play No. 1 and 2 singles respectively at Dallas. Presumably, they will face Mexico's Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox, favored to pace their country to victory over New Zealand.

Hamilton Richardson, veteran from Dallas, and Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., were picked to round out the likely playing quartet; and Clark Graebner of Evanston and Frank Froehling of Miami, Fla., were named alternates.

MacCall's selections* ignored the hottest player on the American tennis scene, 18-year-old Cliff Richey of Dallas, who had been tabbed a potential No. 2 singles cupper behind Ralston.

MacCall had a squabble with the Richey family during the clay courts meet this week over the role Cliff's father, George Richey—Dallas tennis pro — should play in his son's preparation for Cup play.

It turned out to be a standoff, with MacCall deciding to pass over Cliff as his likely No. 2 singles Cup choice and Cliff saying he would not play for MacCall without close guidance by his father.

MacCall said he will announce the four men who actually will play at Dallas sometime next week.

MacCall said that at the moment his Cup doubles team choice included Ralston and Richardson, but there was a possibility Riessen could replace Ralston on the tandem.

Busch—'Stadium Will Be Ready'

St. Louis (AP)—August A. Busch Jr., president of the St. Louis Cardinals, said St. Louis' new stadium would be finished in time for the 1966 major league baseball All-Star game.

"The ten-week delay in delivery of steel components has been reduced to five weeks," Busch said. "This means that we cannot open the 1966 season in the new stadium, but we will be able to play the All-Star game."

Next year's All-Star game is scheduled for July 12.

Gerry's Midgets Edge Hallam, 2-1

Gerry's Midgets eked out a 2-to-1 win over the Hallam Midgets at Sherman Field Friday night.

Bob Bailey went the route and struck out six for the winners. Kent Tyrrell led Gerry's hitters with two hits in three trips.

Offutt Shooter Wins .410 Title

Lt. Col. Tom Leigh of Offutt Air Force Base won the .410-gauge championship in the Nebraska Skeet Shooting Championships Friday at the Lincoln Gun Club.

He fired a 94 of a possible 100 for the title, edging out Col. Elkins Reed, also of Offutt, who had 93 of 100.

The championships will continue today and Sunday at the Gun Club grounds at 4855 No. 48th.

Other winners in the .410 event:

Class AA—Larry Hyle, Omaha; Class A—Dr. Van Cleave, North Platte; Class C—Marvin Pape, Lincoln; Out-of-state — Dr. Bradford, Leawood, Kan.

Tourists Equal Profit

Mexico City, Mexico (AP)—Mexico's net income from tourists this year is expected to total $747 million, the president of the National Tourism Council said. Most of the tourists come from the United States, followed by Canada and Central and South America.

Brown Trial Turns From Sex To $$$

Cleveland (AP) — Testimony in the trial of Cleveland Browns fullback Jim Brown turned from sex to money Friday as court adjourned for the weekend.

Brenda Ayres, the 18-year-old girl who has accused Brown of assault and battery, spent most of her third day on the witness stand saying, "No" to questions by Norman S. Minor, Brown's attorney.

Minor's questions were directed toward an alleged telephone conversation June 21 between Miss Ayres and Paula White, her 16-year-old girl friend who introduced her to the 29-year-old All-Pro fullback.

Minor asked:

Q. Did you tell Paula that, "Mother told me it would be necessary for me to tell some lies. That if they let Jim Brown do all the talking, he would clear himself, and I would look bad, and we wouldn't have a chance in a civil suit to get the money."

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you say to her "Paula, you help me, and you'll get something out of it."

A. Mr. Minor, I did not talk to Paula on that day so I couldn't have said those things.

Minor finished his cross examination in late afternoon. Asst. Police Prosecutor Albert Corsi siad the girl may be called again Monday for re-direct examination. After that Corsi said, he probably will call the girl's mother, Mrs. Barbara Ayres.

Miss Ayres had previously denied she said that Brown would give $1,000 to have her leave him alone. Friday she said Brown gave her $60 to visit a sick uncle in Dayton, Ohio, but testified it was "a gift."

Brown, married and father of three children, reportedly makes $50,000 as a player and has added income from endorsements. He also is employed off season in the public relations department of a soft drink company.

During her three-day intensive cross examination, Miss Ayres has testified that Brown threatened her if she didn't accompany him to an East Side motel room the night of June 19.

In the room, the slender, 108-pound teen-ager said Brown slapped her on the face, hip and stomach and forced her to commit an unnatural sex act. She said he twice forced her to have sexual relations with him.

She said she had been intimate with Brown on various occasions since she was introduced to him May 12.

Gerry's Edge Columbus, 3-2

Columbus—Cornhusker Legion Legaue leading Lincoln Gerry's nipped Columbus here Friday night, 3-2, as Mike Delaney provided two key hits and Jan Hansen pitched 8 2-3 innings of fine baseball.

Delaney's singles in the fifth and seventh each drove in Gerry's runs and proved the winning margin.

In the fifth, Jack Gausha singled, stole second and then scored as Bauer reached base on an error. Delaney then drove in Bauer for the second run of that inning.

In the seventh, Galusha again singled and again stole second and then rode home on Delaney's single, which boosted Gerry's into a 3-to-0 lead.

Columbus came back to score two in the eighth and threatened in the ninth before Mike Bouman came in to quell the rally.

Gerry's is now 10-4 in the league and 11-8 overall. Columbus is 8-9 in the league.

College All-Stars Begin Practices

Chicago (AP) — The College All-Stars opened three weeks of practice Friday for their Aug. 6 meeting with the Cleveland Browns in Soldier Field.

The All-Stars devoted the morning session to picture taking ceremonies but got down to the real work in the afternoon.

Coach Otto Graham and his staff pressed the squad on the theme of avoiding errors as they introduced the collegians to the system to be used against the Browns.

Don Knauss Named Benson High Coach

Omaha (AP) — Donald E. Knauss, 31, coach at Gering high school for the past 10 years has been named to succeed Edward (Scotty) Orcutt as Benson High School basketball coach, Associated Superintendent of Schools Owen Knutzen said Friday.

Knauss was hired by the Omaha system last spring but was not given an assignment immediately. Orcutt, a 23-year employe of the school system and basketball coach since the 1946-1947 season will continue as varsity baseball coach, Dr. Knutzen said.

Unit Rejects Reciprocal Agreement

The Nebraska Game Commission Friday rejected a reciprocal agreement for Missouri River fishing suggested by the Missouri Conservation Commission and proposed an alternative.

The Missouri proposal held that commercial and sports fishing licenses of both states would be recognized on any part of the river as it flows between the two states, but the individual fisherman would have to abide by the rules and regulations of the state in which he was fishing.

"It would place an undue hardship on fishermen and law enforcement officers," said Willard Barbee, assistant Game Commission director. "The fisherman or officer would have to decide where that imaginary line separating the two states is located."

The commission by a 5-0 vote authorized Barbee to propose an agreement patterned after the Nebraska-Iowa reciprocal agreement.

It provides that anglers, regardless of which state they are fishing in, must abide by the rules and regulations of the state in which he is licensed.

Glenn Foster, chief of the Nebraska Fisheries Division, meanwhile reported that a Missouri River reciprocal fishing agreement with South Dakota is in the works.

Foster said he talked with South Dakota game officials recently at a meeting at Gavins Point and a reciprocal agreement similar to the Nebraska-Iowa agreement was discussed. "They seemed receptive," Foster said.

Several years ago, Nebraska and South Dakota officials clashed in a controversy over fishing rights in the tail waters of the Gavins Point Dam.

State's Golfers Must Register By 6 P.M. Today

Golfers interested in playing in the Nebraska State Amateur Men's Golf Tournament next week at the Lincoln Country Club must have their entries in by 6 p.m. today.

Lincoln golfers will shoot 18 holes of qualifying Monday with out-state golfers shooting their qualifying rounds Tuesday. The top 75 from the two days of qualifying will begin tourney play Wednesday.

The golfers will be divided into four flights after Thursday's round for the finals Friday. The leading 24 and ties will play 36 holes in the championship flight while other flights will play 18 holes Friday.

Omaha Mustang Coaches Meet With Pro Clubs

Omaha (UPI) — Quarterback Mike Dugan and advisory coaches Don Leahy and Al Caniglia of the Omaha Mustangs spent Friday with the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football League at their Liberty, Mo., camp.

Coach Bernie Berigan met with Minnesota Viking coaches a week ago.

The 89 Mustang hopefuls are slated to report for physical exams at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Commenting on the huddles with the AFL and NFL coaches, Mustang General Manager Robert Adwers said, "We can't have any tie-ups with those teams, but I'm sure we'll get some help from them."

The Mustangs will open their season in the Professional Football League of America on Aug. 21 at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The home opener will be with Lincoln Aug. 28.

Golf Clinic Set At Holmes Park

Holmes Park will hold a golf clinic for boys and girls 17 and under starting Monday at 1:30 p.m.

Lessons will be conducted three times a week for two weeks. Five lessons and one tournament are included.

A $3 fee will be charged, but all equipment will be furnished. All interested are requested by Holmes pro John Young to meet at Holmes Park at 1:30 Monday afternoon.

Walter Hagen Reported Fair

New York (AP)—Walter Hagen, the famed professional golfer of the Golden Twenties, was reported in fair condition Friday at St. Vincent's Hospital. A hospital spokesman gave the report.

Hagen, 72, has been ill for some time. He underwent a tracheotomy Thursday.

His list of titles includes two United States Open championships and four British Opens.

Monday Heads Sporting News All-Americans

St. Louis, Mo. (AP)—Four players from Arizona were selected for the Sporting News' 1965 Collegiate All-America Baseball Team announced Friday.

The team is chosen by a vote of 108 major league scouts.

Outfielder Rick Monday of Arizona State was named the baseball newspaper's Collegiate Player of the Year. Monday has signed a contract for a reported $104,000 with the Kansas City Athletics.

Other selections were: second baseman Luis Lagunas and third baseman Sal Bando, both of Arizona State; shortstop Eddie Leion of Arizona University; first baseman Arnie Shonko and pitcher Steve Arlin, both of Ohio State; pitcher Ken Holtzman of Illinois; catcher John Olerud of Washington State; and outfielders Billy Wolff of Cincinnati University and Jim Dix of St. Louis University.

Davis Cup Squad Has 6 Members

Chicago (AP) — A six-man United States Davis Cup squad, headed by nationally top-ranked Dennis Ralston, was named Friday for the American Zone finals to be played in Dallas, Tex., July 31-Aug. 2.

The U.S. squad, designated by non-playing Cup Capt. George MacCall of Los Angeles at the current National Clay Courts Tournament, will meet the winner of the Mexico-New Zealand zone showdown starting Saturday in Mexico City.

MacCall named Ralston and Arthur Ashe' Jr., Richmond, Va., to play No. 1 and 2 singles respectively at Dallas. Presumably, they will face Mexico's Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox, favored to pace their country to victory over New Zealand.

Hamilton Richardson, veteran from Dallas, and Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., were picked to round out the likely playing quartet; and Clark Graebner of Evanston and Frank Froehling of Miami, Fla., were named alternates.

MacCall's selections ignored the hottest player on the American tennis scene, 18-year-old Cliff Richey of Dallas, who had been tabbed a potential No. 2 singles cupper behind Ralston.

MacCall had a squabble with the Richey family during the clay courts meet this week over the role Cliff's father, George Richey—Dallas tennis pro — should play in his son's preparation for Cup play.

It turned out to be a standoff, with MacCall deciding to pass over Cliff as his likely No. 2 singles Cup choice and Cliff saying he would not play for MacCall without close guidance by his father.

MacCall said he will announce the four men who actually will play at Dallas sometime next week.

MacCall said that at the moment his Cup doubles team choice included Ralston and Richardson, but there was a possibility Riessen could replace Ralston on the tandem.

Busch—'Stadium Will Be Ready'

St. Louis (AP)—August A. Busch Jr., president of the St. Louis Cardinals, said St. Louis' new stadium would be finished in time for the 1966 major league baseball All-Star game.

"The ten-week delay in delivery of steel components has been reduced to five weeks," Busch said. "This means that we cannot open the 1966 season in the new stadium, but we will be able to play the All-Star game."

Next year's All-Star game is scheduled for July 12.

Gerry's Midgets Edge Hallam, 2-1

Gerry's Midgets eked out a 2-to-1 win over the Hallam Midgets at Sherman Field Friday night.

Offutt Shooter Wins .410 Title

Lt. Col. Tom Leigh of Offutt Air Force Base won the .410-gauge championship in the Nebraska Skeet Shooting Championships Friday at the Lincoln Gun Club.

He fired a 94 of a possible 100 for the title, edging out Col. Elkins Reed, also of Offutt, who had 93 of 100.

The championships will continue today and Sunday at the Gun Club grounds at 4855 No. 48th.

Other winners in the .410 event:

Class AA—Larry Hyle, Omaha; Class A—Dr. Van Cleave, North Platte; Class C—Marvin Pape, Lincoln; Out-of-state — Dr. Bradford, Leawood, Kan.

Tourists Equal Profit

Mexico City, Mexico (AP)—Mexico's net income from tourists this year is expected to total $747 million, the president of the National Tourism Council said. Most of the tourists come from the United States, followed by Canada and Central and South America.

No Action Results From School District Debate

Two similar but somewhat divergent proposals—one originating at Hastings and the other at Beatrice—for permitting school districts in larger cities to bring in outside pupils and territory were debated on the legislative floor Friday, but no conclusive decisions resulted.

One of the measures, LB688, sponsored by Sens. Fred Carstens of Beatrice and Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, would permit a merging of two or more Class 1 (rural grade school) or Class 2 (small high school districts with an existing Class 3 (larger high school) district into a new Class 3 district.

The other, LB452, sponsored by Sen. Richard Marvel of Hastings, would permit the joining of a class 3 district with outside districts in a federation to achieve somewhat the same ends.

Carstens said he regards the fact that a district can withdraw from the federation under LB452, whereas this would not be possible under LB452, as a principal difference between the measures.

Tortured Life

Both bills have lived a tortured life. Both died in the Education Committee only to be revived on the floor.

A motion by Sen. Arnold Ruhnke of Plymouth to kill the Carstens bill fell short, 19-20. But Carstens' motion to advance the bill from general file also fell short, 14-15, and the measure remained on general file.

The Marvel bill was laid over until Monday at the interim work on amendments.

In the case of both bills, sponsors indicated they seek methods of peacefully solving the problems which develop when a larger high school grows to capacity and is unable to take in non-residents. The case of Grand Island, where the city district now finds itself surrounded by a Class VI district operating its own high school, was cited.

Sen. Ruhnke, in resisting LB688, cited an attorney general's opinion raising some constitutional questions and expressed doubt that the amended version of the bill erases the constitutional questions.

Ruhnke also maintained the bill gives special privileges to existing Class 3 districts, and obtained approval of an amendment which he said would give the same privileges to Class 1 or Class 2 districts.

"In any school district fight," said Ruhnke, "if you can't win under the rules you have, to go to the Legislature and try to get new rules that give you an advantage." That, he indicated, is what Beatrice school interests have done.

Sen. Marvel, in explanation of his federation plan, said it permits the outside districts to control their own grade school systems while joining with the Class 3 district for high school purposes to the advantage of all.

Property, Equipment Of Sioux Army Depot Will Be Used To Offset Shutdown's Impact

Gov. Frank Morrison responded to a legislative directive Friday by reporting to the Unicameral on results of a check with Defense Department officials on the status of property and equipment at the Sioux Army Depot at Sidney, which is being deactivated.

The governor reported contents of a telegram received from Donald Bradford, director of the Office of Economic Adjustment in the Department of Defense.

Bradford said, in effect, that first priority on the property equipment will be given to uses designed to help the community of Sidney counteract the economic impact of the installation's shutdown.

"The equipment will be used to support Sidney's recovery plans to the extent feasible" Bradford wired.

"If the state decides to operate a vocational school at the Sioux Army Depot and if the depot is transferred to the state, the equipment would be transferred with the real property to the state for this purpose.

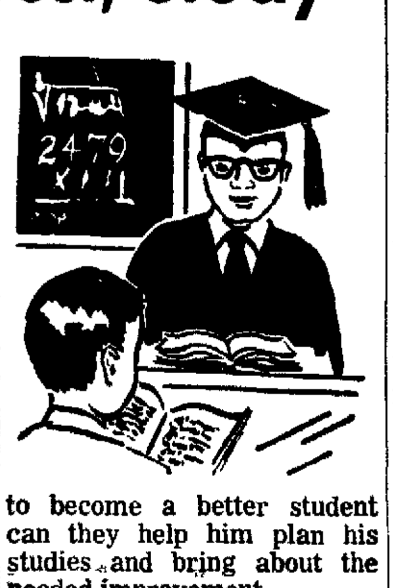
"If the state and Sidney were to decide neither has an interest in using the equipment to relieve the economic impact upon Sidney, it would be redistributed within the Department of Defense to meet legitimate updating needs which fall short of being buy needs. Some portion of the equipment would then become available for general donation to meet educational and health needs."

By telephone, Bradford advised that the same principles apply to disposal of equipment at the Hastings Naval Ammunition Depot and the Lincoln Air Force Base, Morrison said.

NASON ON EDUCATION:

College Prep Courses Follow Interest, Study

By LESLIE J. NASON



Dear Dr. Nason:

My 15-year-old son is a high school sophomore with grades hovering in the 70's. According to the counselor, he has a high I.Q. I have been advised by the high school that his schedule next year is made up of typing, math, business law, etc. It does not include a language or chemistry. I realize he is not meeting college requirements.

I would appreciate it if you would offer me suggestions as to what course of action I should follow to get my son to be studious.

Mrs. G.R.A., Philadelphia, Pa.

Answer:

High school counselors are not unreasonable when they require that your son show enough interest and perseverance to make grades higher than 70's before they will let him undertake college preparatory courses. Actually, he may not know how to study effectively.

Have your son take the initiative and request help from the counselors. If, in discussing the matter with them, your son sees that with new study procedures he can accomplish at a higher level, he may be willing to give it a try. Only if he shows desire to become a better student can they help him plan his studies and bring about the needed improvement.

Dear Dr. Nason:

I would appreciate information on courses in mathematics for an adult. I would like to get a degree in psychology, but must have knowledge of algebra and geometry as a prerequisite.

Are there any summer courses or comprehensive basic courses available?

M. B., Scarsdale, N.Y.

Answer:

Thousands of courses of every description are offered by adults. Many are available during the summer. Make your inquiry directly to the office of your local Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Dr. Nason:

I have been a housewife-mother for the past nine years and am now faced with the problem of finding a place for myself in the world. With a limited background of formal education (high school, commercial diploma), and eight years of secretarial work, I am no longer interested in resuming this sort of work and am eager for a more fulfilling career.

Can you advise me of some of the training programs being offered to women with backgrounds similar to my own? How can I seek further information?

S.H.F., North Babylon, N.Y.

Start at your nearest State Employment office. Ask for an aptitude test and for information regarding the available programs. Also inquire at your local Board of Education and nearby colleges. Get a clear picture of complete programs and your chance of success in each, then decide.

Senators Change Motor Vehicles Taxation Method

A bill changing the method of taxing motor vehicles held by dealers for resale was passed on final reading in the State Legislature Friday.

Heretofore, such vehicles have had to be taxed at their retail value whereas stocks of merchandise held by other merchants are valued at wholesale for tax purposes.

LB654, introduced by Sen. Kenneth L. Bowen of Red Cloud and approved 41-0, permits self assessment by motor vehicle dealers on the basis of cost prices on the vehicles.

A constitutional amendment approved by Nebraska voters last year permits motor vehicles in the hands of dealers to be taxed differently than other motor vehicles.

Also passed Friday:

LB352 —Requiring permits for towing on the interstate highway except for emergency towing of disabled vehicles to nearest interchange. (Craft) (40-0).

Legislature Pays Tribute To Adlai

The Nebraska Legislature took time out from its lawmaking duties Friday to pay tribute to the memory of United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, the two-time Democratic candidate for president.

Participating were Lt. Gov. Philip C. Sorensen and the Rev. Charles Stephen Jr., minister of the Lincoln Unitarian Church.

The ambassador was eulogized as a man of honesty, humility and devotion to duty, who elevated "the theater of politics."

Board Urged Not To Cut Nance Appraisal

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Sherman County Assessor Janice Robertson urged the State Board of Equalization in hearings Friday not to cut the Nance County appraisal

"I don't thing Nance County should be cut," she testified. "That county has been riding the gravy train."

Nance County, the first county to complete a mandatory reappraisal, shows a real property valuation increase of 59%.

Mrs. Robertson noted Sherman County reappraised in 1959 and put the "100% reappraised valuations" on the books.

'More Productive'

"Nance County is more productive than Sherman, but more taxes for several years," she said. "We feel we're assessed at actual value and we're proud of our county."

Sixteen counties testified in the second-day of hearings, bringing the number so far to 32. All 93 are scheduled to appear.

After the session, Gov. Frank Morrison commented, "There is an assessment variation between the counties and our problem is to assess that degree."

Reserved Comment

However, the governor reserved comment on what the board might do to achieve state-wide equalization until after the hearings are completed.

Tax Commissioner George Dworak said this year's hearings so far "indicate a greater feeling across the state for the need to equalize."

"There's greater pressure for equalization," he said, agreeing the Nance County reappraisal has focused even more state-wide attention to the problem.

Dworak said the hearing record along with supporting data is in better shape this year to aid the board in the equalization process.

County officials continued Friday to testify that sales prices of farm and ranch land were "inflated" in relation to market value.

'General Trend'

All generally agreed that larger operating units were paying above market to pick up smaller units and that this was the "general trend" in their areas.

Several counties showed concern over what action the board might take in relation to the Nance County reappraisal.

"I don't feel that board would be doing its job by cutting Nance County," said Blaine County Attorney Joe Divis, "but I think the board should give a moratorium until other counties complete their reappraisals."

A Loup County official urged more consideration be given to "land use and productivity" in determination of assessed valuations.

"No one can begin farm or ranching at today's land prices and make out, but the large operators, who acquired cheap land in the past, can pay inflated prices for small units and balance out the operational costs," he said.

Wryly Suggested

As Gov. Morrison continued to probe how the board might equalize, a Garfield official wryly suggested:

"You might value land like a claiming race. Let the landowner put a value on his property with the provision that any one could claim it at that price."

Friday's testimony completed hearings on the western and panhandle counties. The board moves Monday to counties from central and eastern Nebraska.

Counties heard Friday included Cherry, Keya Paha, Boyd, Rock, Holt, Grant, Hooker, Thomas, Blaine, Loup, Garfield, Wheeler, Arthur, McPherson, Logan and Sherman.

Unicam May Restore Patrol, Aeronautics Cuts

Efforts were being launched in the Legislature Friday to restore budget cuts directed at the State Safety Patrol and the Department of Aeronautics.

Motions to reconsider the Legislature's previous action in slicing budget recommendations for both agencies will probably be placed before the lawmakers next week.

Senators reduced Budget Committee recommendations for the Patrol by $248,060, thus denying it 15 of the 30 additional troopers which the committee had suggested be added during the 1965-67 biennium.

Vote on the motion was a close 24-21.

Gov. Frank Morrison has urged that the Unicameral reconsider its action, and a move to restore the money developed in the wake of the governor's statement.

The Legislature dropped the Department of Aeronautics budget by $139,000, a general fund appropriation proposed by the Budget Committee for state aid to municipal airports.

Municipal airport improvements are undertaken on a formula of 50% federal assistance, 25% local and 25% state, lawmakers have been informed.

Thus, senators have been told, the effect of the reduction could be to deny airports about $560,000 in funds during the biennium, including about $280,000 in federal assistance.

The cut was accepted on a 30-7 vote earlier this week, but debate on the amendment did not produce any information on the effect which the reduction would have on matching funds.

At least 23 senators have airports in their districts which could be affected by the cut.

The budget bill, LB922, has cleared general file and is scheduled to show up next on select file.

2 Campgrounds Near Fremont To Be Closed

The two campgrounds on the east part of the Fremont state recreation area will be closed as of Monday for an indeterminate period, the Game Commission reported Friday.

The grounds will be closed pending completion of the access road improvement project.

Persons desiring to camp at the Fremont area may continue to use the west area along U.S. 30, the commission said.

A temporary road will be opened to the beach area to continue public use of that facility, but a similar service to the campgrounds will not be possible, the announcement said.

Queen Accepts Chile's Invitation

London (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II has accepted an invitation to visit Chile at a future date yet to be specified, Chilean Foreign Minister Gabriel Valdes announced Friday night.

The invitation was extended by President Eduardo Frei, while in Britain on a four-day state visit.

Game Unit May Buy 400-Acre Trout Farm

The State Game Commission is thinking about purchasing a 400-acre trout farm developed by erstwhile Valentine banker Richard Davenport now serving a prison term for embezzlement.

The commission Friday authorized its director, Mel Steen, to negotiate with the State Banking Department, which has claimed ownership of most of Davenport's possessions, including the trout farm.

However, Steen alerted the commission that there is disagreement over legal ownership of the trout farm and the disagreement would have to be settled before the commission could purchase the development.

$100,000 To $150,000

Steen said the Banking Department would probably sell the farm to the commission for from $100,000 to $150,000, with the money then being used to pay off depositors of the Valentine State Bank, which Davenport headed as president.

Steen said the trout farm is an excellent development — "better than anything we've got"—and has a good location, about four miles northeast of Valentine.

Steen said the Banking Department believes Davenport spent nearly $240,000 developing the trout farm.

Other Action

In other action, the comms-ision set a five-month squirrel season running from Sept. 1 to Jan 31. Last year's season lasted eight months, starting Aug. 1.

The commission also:

—Authorized purchase of 40 acres of land to expand the Scouts Rest Ranch complex at North Platte. The commission will pay the city of North Platte $27,250 for hte plot —Accepted 160 acres of marsh land in Brown County as a gift from the American Game Associatoin. The site will be developed for waterfowl hunting.

—Discussed possible locaitons for a District 3 office at Norfolk, but reached no final decision.

—Promoted Fred Nelson, associate editor of "Outdoor Nebraskaland," to the post of managing editor of the magazine, the commission's office publication.

Pledge To Tunisia

Bonn, Germany (AP) — West Germany has promised Tunisia loans, credits and other aid totalling $23.3 million, the foreign ministry reported. Part of the aid will help finance sending of the German equivalent of Peace Corps workers to the Middle Eastern republic.

UNICAM ACTION CRITICIZED

. . . By State Aeronautics Commission

The State Aeronautics Commission Friday spoke out against recent legislative action on the agency's budget, and itself took action against the Omaha Municipal Airport.

The commission criticized the Legislature for its preliminary decision to strike a $139,000 appropriation in general fund money for the 1965-67 biennium to the program of state aid to municipal airports.

It also decided to hold up allocations, both federal and state, to the Omaha airport.

State Aeronautics Director James Sandstedt said a $351,000 project is involved, including $87,750 in state funds and $175,500 in federal funds.

The director said the money is held up until "they solve their sanitary land fill problem."

He said complaints have been received from pilots that a land fill area near the end of the runway is a safety hazard.

Pilots fear some debris from the land fill area might be sucked up into a jet plane's engine, causing an accident, Sandstedt said.

Regarding the cut in the department's budget for aid to municipal airports, Sandstedt said he was sure some senator would ask for reinstatement of the $139,000 in general fund money in LB922, the budget bill.

Aeronautics Department records indicated that if the cut is allowed to stand, the department will have about $110,000 in state aid money in fiscal 1967 to meet $609,780 in municipal airport request for state aid.

If the $139,000 is returned to the budget, the department will be able to meet the approximately $257,000 in requests for state aid for fiscal 1966 and have another $250,000 available for fiscal 1967.

If the budget cut remains in effect, $70,000 in state aid allocated for the present fiscal year (1966) will have to be postponed until the next fiscal year, the department said.

The airports asked $13,905 in additional funds for fiscal 1966. Total requests, including several from airports which were not represented Friday, are more than $609,000 for fiscal 1967

Sandstedt said decisions would be delayed until final action is taken on the budget bill.

Requests of the airport representatives who appeared Friday:

—An additional $69,925 for fiscal 1967 for improvements at the Lincoln airport.

—$87,750 for fiscal 1967 for improvements at the Omaha airport.

—$13,405 for 1966 for Norfolk airport.

—$25,100 for 1967 at Fairbury airport.

—$10,334 in 1966 and $41,799 in 1967 for improvements at the North Platte airport.

—$85,435 for 1967 for administration building and other improvements at Millard airport.

—$1,500 in fiscal 1966 and $9,000 in 1967 for Gordon.

—$22,700 in new state money for 1967 for runway extension at Chadron.

In addition, 1967 requests on file include

—$26,300 for runway extension at Columbus

—Additional $38,375 at Sidney for runway extension.

—$167,075 for improvements at Hastings

Board Urged Not To Cut Nance Appraisal

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Sherman County Assessor Janice Robertson urged the State Board of Equalization in hearings Friday not to cut the Nance County appraisal.

"I don't thing Nance County should be cut," she testified. "That county has been riding the gravy train."

Nance County, the first county to complete a mandatory reappraisal, shows a real property valuation increase of 59%.

Mrs. Robertson noted Sherman County reappraised in 1959 and put the "100% reappraised valuations" on the books.

'More Productive'

"Nance County is more productive than Sherman, but more taxes for several years," she said. "We feel we're assessed at actual value and we're proud of our county."

Sixteen counties testified in the second-day of hearings, bringing the number so far to 32. All 93 are scheduled to appear.

After the session, Gov. Frank Morrison commented, "There is an assessment variation between the counties and our problem is to assess that degree."

Reserved Comment

However, the governor reserved comment on what the board might do to achieve state-wide equalization until after the hearings are completed.

Tax Commissioner George Dworak said this year's hearings so far "indicate a greater feeling across the state for the need to equalize."

"There's greater pressure for equalization," he said, agreeing the Nance County reappraisal has focused even more state-wide attention to the problem.

Dworak said the hearing record along with supporting data is in better shape this year to aid the board in the equalization process.

County officials continued Friday to testify that sales prices of farm and ranch land were "inflated" in relation to market value.

'General Trend'

All generally agreed that larger operating units were paying above market to pick up smaller units and that this was the "general trend" in their areas.

Several counties showed concern over what action the board might take in relation to the Nance County reappraisal.

"I don't feel that board would be doing its job by cutting Nance County," said Blaine County Attorney Joe Divis, "but I think the board should give a moratorium until other counties complete their reappraisals."

A Loup County official urged more consideration be given to "land use and productivity" in determination of assessed valuations.

"No one can begin farm or ranching at today's land prices and make out, but the large operators, who acquired cheap land in the past, can pay inflated prices for small units and balance out the operational costs," he said.

Wryly Suggested

As Gov. Morrison continued to probe how the board might equalize, a Garfield official wryly suggested:

"You might value land like a claiming race. Let the landowner put a value on his property with the provision that any one could claim it at that price."

Friday's testimony completed hearings on the western and panhandle counties. The board moves Monday to counties from central and eastern Nebraska.

Counties heard Friday included Cherry, Keya Paha, Boyd, Rock, Holt, Grant, Hooker, Thomas, Blaine, Loup, Garfield, Wheeler, Arthur, McPherson, Logan and Sherman.

Unicam May Restore Patrol, Aeronautics Cuts

Efforts were being launched in the Legislature Friday to restore budget cuts directed at the State Safety Patrol and the Department of Aeronautics.

Motions to reconsider the Legislature's previous action in slicing budget recommendations for both agencies will probably be placed before the lawmakers next week.

Senators reduced Budget Committee recommendations for the Patrol by $248,060, thus denying it 15 of the 30 additional troopers which the committee had suggested be added during the 1965-67 biennium.

Vote on the motion was a close 24-21.

Gov. Frank Morrison has urged that the Unicameral reconsider its action, and a move to restore the money developed in the wake of the governor's statement.

The Legislature dropped the Department of Aeronautics budget by $139,000, a general fund appropriation proposed by the Budget Committee for state aid to municipal airports.

Municipal airport improvements are undertaken on a formula of 50% federal assistance, 25% local and 25% state, lawmakers have been informed.

Thus, senators have been told, the effect of the reduction could be to deny airports about $560,000 in funds during the biennium, including about $280,000 in federal assistance.

The cut was accepted on a 30-7 vote earlier this week, but debate on the amendment did not produce any information on the effect which the reduction would have on matching funds.

At least 23 senators have airports in their districts which could be affected by the cut.

The budget bill, LB922, has cleared general file and is scheduled to show up next on select file.

2 Campgrounds Near Fremont To Be Closed

The two campgrounds on the east part of the Fremont state recreation area will be closed as of Monday for an indeterminate period, the Game Commission reported Friday.

The grounds will be closed pending completion of the access road improvement project.

Persons desiring to camp at the Fremont area may continue to use the west area along U.S. 30, the commission said.

A temporary road will be opened to the beach area to continue public use of that facility, but a similar service to the campgrounds will not be possible, the announcement said.

Steen said the Banking Department would probably sell the farm to the commission for from $100,000 to $150,000, with the money then being used to pay off depositors of the Valentine State Bank, which Davenport headed as president.

Steen said the trout farm is an excellent development—"better than anything we've got"—and has a good location, about four miles northeast of Valentine.

UNICAM ACTION CRITICIZED

. . . By State Aeronautics Commission

The State Aeronautics Commission Friday spoke out against recent legislative action on the agency's budget, and itself took action against the Omaha Municipal Airport.

The commission criticized the Legislature for its preliminary decision to strike a $139,000 appropriation in general fund money for the 1965-67 biennium to the program of state aid to municipal airports.

It also decided to hold up allocations, both federal and state, to the Omaha airport.

State Aeronautics Director James Sandstedt said a $351,000 project is involved, including $87,750 in state funds and $175,500 in federal funds.

The director said the money is held up until "they solve their sanitary land fill problem."

He said complaints have been received from pilots that a land fill area near the end of the runway is a safety hazard.

Pilots fear some debris from the land fill area might be sucked up into a jet plane's engine, causing an accident, Sandstedt said.

Regarding the cut in the department's budget for aid to municipal airports, Sandstedt said he was sure some senator would ask for reinstatement of the $139,000 in general fund money in LB922, the budget bill.

Aeronautics Department records indicated that if the cut is allowed to stand, the department will have about $110,000 in state aid money in fiscal 1967 to meet $609,780 in municipal airport request for state aid.

If the $139,000 is returned to the budget, the department will be able to meet the approximately $257,000 in requests for state aid for fiscal 1966 and have another $250,000 available for fiscal 1967.

If the budget cut remains in effect, $70,000 in state aid allocated for the present fiscal year (1966) will have to be postponed until the next fiscal year, the department said.

The airports asked $13,905 in additional funds for fiscal 1966. Total requests, including several from airports which were not represented Friday, are more than $609,000 for fiscal 1967.

Sandstedt said decisions would be delayed until final action is taken on the budget bill.

Requests of the airport representatives who appeared Friday:

—An additional $69,925 for fiscal 1967 for improvements at the Lincoln airport.

—$87,750 for fiscal 1967 for improvements at the Omaha airport.

—$13,405 for 1966 for Norfolk airport.

—$25,100 for 1967 at Fairbury airport.

—$10,334 in 1966 and $41,799 in 1967 for improvements at the North Platte airport.

—$85,435 for 1967 for administration building and other improvements at Millard airport.

—$1,500 in fiscal 1966 and $3,000 in 1967 for Gordon.

—$22,700 in new state money for 1967 for runway extension at Chadron.

In addition, 1967 requests on file include:

—$26,300 for runway extension at Columbus.

—Additional $38,375 at Sidney for runway extension.

Negro Segregationist, 66, Given Police Chief Post

Crawfordville, Ga. (AP)—A retired Negro sawmill worker who believes in segregation has been given the job of police chief in this small northeast Georgia town, a target of civil rights demonstrations.

"I didn't want it," the new chief, 66-year-old Jesse Meadows, a 200-pound six-footer, said Friday. Meadows said he had no formal education and once served time in prison on a liquor conviction.

The city, state and county got me into this and I'll have to do the best I can," Meadows said in a telephone interview shortly after arresting a Negro picket.

Chosen By Council

Sheriff M. B. Moore said earlier that Meadows was selected by the City Council and began his duties Thursday.

The sheriff was asked why a Negro was chosen as police chief.

"We didn't have one," the sheriff said.

The town has two police officers—Meadows on duty during the daytime and a white policeman at night. Technically Meadows is in charge of the white policeman.

'Just A Tool'

"Meadows is just a tool," said Richard Copeland, 21-year-old civil rights worker from San Diego, Calif. "He is more antagonistic toward us than some of the white persons here."

Copeland is one of six out-of-town white persons working with Negroes in voter registration and a boycott of white stores. He said that two white men threatened him and a companion, Howard Price of Brockton, Mass., on the street.

Asked about the charges that he was intimidating the civil rights workers, Meadows replied: "I'm not working against them. But they block the street so the white folks can't get through. We've had no trouble."

Meadows said he arrested a Negro youth, Frank Bates, who was leading a small group of Negro pickets.

"I told him to let the pickets go up to the corner and he turned around in the middle of the street and started back," Meadows said. He said Bates would be charged with failing to obey an officer.

"I didn't want to be bothered up with this crowd," Meadows said.

Crawfordville, about 100 miles east of Atlanta, is the seat of Taliaferro County which has a population of 3,370, about equally divided between white and Negro residents. The town itself has a population of about 800 and consists of a dozen stores around an old red brick, three-story courthouse with its big clock tower.

It has become the only town in the South with a biracial population that has a Negro police chief.

Former GI Confesses To Killing

Amarillo, Tex. (AP)—Police said a former serviceman admitted Thursday night that he killed a sergeant whose body was found stuffed in a locker at Amarillo Air Force Base.

The decomposed body of Staff Sgt. Robert Roeske, 38, of Iowa Falls, Iowa, formerly of Lincoln, was discovered in his barracks July 6.

Detectives said Robert Earl Mcilwain, 20, Rockey Mount, N.C., signed a statement that he killed Roeske during a fight while they were drinking together the night of July 1. He was held without immediate charge.

Police arrested Mcilwain at the request of military investigators, who said several witnesses saw him visiting at the base. An air base spokesman said Mcilwain received a bad conduct discharge June 18.

Officers said the prisoner related these details:

He knocked Roeske down "for calling me a fool" and the sergeant cut an eye against a table as he fell. After knocking Roeske down a second time, Mcilwain smothered him with a pillow and strangled him with a necktie.

Mcilwain hid the body in a wall locker, used whisky to wash blood off the floor for lack of water, took $98 from Roeske's room and left.

Detectives said Mcilwain, who had complained he was penniless, drew attention to himself by purcashing chicken dinners for everybody at a small cafe and paying off an engagement ring given to his sweetheart.

Rural Roads' June Traffic Below 1964

The State Roads Department reported Friday that traffic on Nebraska's rural highways during June was down one per cent from the same month a year ago.

A normal seasonal increase of 18% in rural traffic volume from May to June was recorded, leaving the total volume in Nebraska for the first six months of this year at about the same as the total for the same period in 1964.

During June, the only heavy traffic increase from a year ago was registered on the Interstate Highway east of the Overton Junction, where a 25% jump was registered. Substantial declines were noted on U.S. Highway 30 west of Elm Creek, U.S. 34 at the Nebraska-Colorado line, and U.S. 6 at the Nebraska-Colorado line.

The department said more than 50.6 million gallons of motor fuel were taxed in Nebraska during April of this year, about the same amount taxed during April, 1964. However, the total of gallons taxed during the first four months of this year were up 4% from the amount of gallons taxed through April of last year.

Housewife Dies Of Exposure To Arizona Sun

Mrs. Cheryl A. Ebeling, 19, was found dead in mountain foothills 18 miles southeast of Chandler in central Arizona.

"There isn't one iota of doubt about the cause of death," a deputy county attorney said after the jury had agreed with a pathologist's finding.

With her husband, Richard, Mrs. Ebeling became stranded Wednesday when their car stalled. They started walking toward Chandler but became separated. The temperature reached 105.

Pope's Arraignment Slated For Friday, Attorney Says

Duane Earl Pope is scheduled to be arraigned in U.S. District Court here Friday on six federal indictments, one of his court-appointed attorneys announced Friday.

Wallace Rudolph, a University of Nebraska law professor, said Pope would be arraigned before Federal District Judge Robert Van Pelt at 9 a.m.

Pope is charged with killing three employes of the Farmers State Bank at Big Springs June 4. He is also accused of wounding a fourth bank employe and making off with more than $1,500 in bank funds.

Rudolph said he received notification of the arraignment date from U.S. Atty. Duane L. Nelson Friday morning. Rudolph said he and U.S. District Atty. Theodore Richling of Omaha agreed earlier on July 23.

Rudolph would not say what plea would be entered on behalf of the 22-year-old Pope, of Roxbury, Kan.

"I think it would be best if you just wait and see," he commented. Rudolph added that he would again visit Pope at the State Penitentiary early next week.

Pope's other attorney, appointed by Van Pelt June 25, is Robert B. Crosby, former governor of Nebraska.

The young Kansan's arraignment was first set for July 8, then was continued by mutual agreement of Richling and Pope's counsel.

Federal Group Is Finding Ways To Aid Northeast

Washington (AP) — A federal group began an emergency search Friday for ways to help the drought-stricken Northeast. The gravity of its task was quickly underscored by a report calling the drought the worst ever to parch the population-loaded area.

Meeting at the call of President Johnson, the federal Water Resources Council began an emergency session under White House instructions to submit recommendations by Tuesday for possible federal action.

The Weather Bureau called the drought "the worst ever recorded in the northeast."

Just before convening a closed meeting of the Cabinet-level council, Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall told newsmen he is confident the group will produce "significant recommendations" before the deadline.

Deadline Set On Overdue Taxpayers

Washington (UPI)—The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is telling taxpayers caught in last year's under-withholding bind to pay up by Sept. 1, it was learned.

This means that the "sympathetic consideration" promised taxpayers whose payroll withholding in 1964 failed to cover their tax liability will be expiring just four and one-half months after the April 15 tax deadline.

The decision to break off the special consideration was reached June 18, an IRS spokesman told UPI. He said he did not know why this had not been publicly announced.

After Sept. 1, the IRS will start applying what a spokesman called the agency's "normal rule" that anyone wishing more time to pay must submit a complete financial statement showing why he needs more time. Such a statement must include information on the taxpayers' earnings, expenses, number of dependents, bank account, and ability to get a loan.

Taxpayers who fail to pay by Sept. 1, and who cannot persuade the IRS to grant them a further extension, will be billed for what they owe, the spokesman said.

Further refusal to pay would lead to the usual "enforced collection" procedures, including, as a last resort liens against property, bank accounts, or paychecks, he said.

In April, IRS Commissioner Sheldon S. Cohen waived the "normal rule" for taxpayers who, through no fault of their own, were victims of underwithholding last year.

Some underwithheld taxpayers chose to take advantage of the "sympathetic consideration" because the interest they would pay the government on late installments ran less than what most banks would charge on personal loans to pay the tax in full.

Utah Governor Now Nebraska Navy Admiral

Salt Lake City (UPI)—Utah Gov. Calvin L. Rampton became an honorary admiral in the "Nebraska dry land Navy" Friday.

A scroll was presented to the governor in his office by Marion F. Sefrna, executive secretary of the Nebraska Centennial Commission for Thayer County.

Nebraska marks its centennial in 1967. Sefrna is in Utah to extend a welcome to all beehive staters to attend the centennial.

Thayer County will serve as "host county" for Utah residents planning to attend, Sefrna said. Each county in Nebraska has been assigned a state.

N.Y. Dem Chief To Step Down

New York (AP)—William H. McKeon announced he is stepping down as New York's Democratic state chairman for "personal reasons."

Mayor John J. Burns of Binghamton is reported to be a leading candidate for the $30,000-a-year post.

McKeon told newsmen prior to a scheduled news conference that "I have decided to submit my resignation as state chairman at a meeting of the state committee which is being called for Tuesday, July 27."

McKeon, 43, has been opposed by Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City.

75 Percent Interest

New Delhi (AP) — A government survey in Mysore state showed some moneylenders charge 75% interest on short-term loans to poverty-stricken farmers.

Hatten Jury Will Report Back Monday

. . . Defense Rests

Nebraska City (AP)—The defense rested its case Friday afternoon in the Charles Hatten first degree murder trial and jurors were sent home with instructions to report back at 9 a.m. Monday.

District Judge Victor Schmidt and the jury heard the last defense witnesses after the state had finished its presentation at mid-morning Friday.

Arguments and instructions will be heard before the jury begins deliberations.

Hatten, a brush salesman from Auburn, and Capt. Vernon W. Byler of the state Safety Patrol were on the stand Friday.

Byler, the patrol's criminal investigation chief, said a firearms test showed two bullets found in a pillow and bed clothing at the home of the victim, Mrs. William Snyder of near Talmage, had been fired from Hatten's gun.

Mrs. Snyder was wounded at her farm home last March 27. She died two days later in an Omaha hospital.

The prosecution charged Hatten shot the woman after forcing her to sign a $200 check which he cashed later in Nebraska City.

Previous Visits

Hatten told the jury about two previous visits as a brush salesman to Mrs. Snyder's home.

On the day of the shooting, he said, "something flew by my head" as Mrs. Snyder sat on a bed and he turned around and fired the gun. He said he did not know how many times he pulled the trigger.

Hatten said he knew later the flying object was a pillow thrown by Mrs. Snyder.

Dubinsky Bros. Buys Theaters In Iowa Towns

Des Moines, Iowa (AP)—Dubinsky Brothers Theaters of Lincoln, Neb., has acquired theaters in Des Moines, Cedar Rapids and Marshalltown, it was disclosed Friday.

The theaters are the RKO Orpheum, one of three remaining downtown movie houses in Des Moines; the RKO Orpheum in Marshalltown and the Iowa in Cedar Rapids.

Irwin Dubinsky, president of Dubinsky Theaters, said the company will assume active management of the houses in Des Moines and Marshalltown within 10 days. He said management of the Iowa Theater in Cedar Rapids will be assumed after Dec. 1.

No Money Details

Financial details of the transactions were not disclosed.

He said the three theaters will continue to operate as first-run movie houses, but an RKO policy of playing double features will be dropped.

The Des Moines and Marshalltown Theaters probably will be renamed, and the RKO definitely will be dropped, Dubinsky said.

Negro Segregationist, 66, Given Police Chief Post

Crawfordville, Ga. (AP)—A retired Negro sawmill worker who believes in segregation has been given the job of police chief in this small northeast Georgia town, a target of civil rights demonstrations.

"I didn't want it," the new chief, 66-year-old Jesse Meadows, a 200-pound six-footer, said Friday. Meadows said he had no formal education and once served time in prison on a liquor conviction.

"The city, state and county got me into this and I'll have to do the best I can," Meadows said in a telephone interview shortly after arresting a Negro picket.

Chosen By Council

Sheriff M. B. Moore said earlier that Meadows was selected by the City Council and began his duties Thursday.

The sheriff was asked why a Negro was chosen as police chief.

"We didn't have one," the sheriff said.

The town has two police officers—Meadows on duty during the daytime and a white policeman at night. Technically Meadows is in charge of the white policeman.

'Just A Tool'

"Meadows is just a tool," said Richard Copeland, 21-year-old civil rights worker from San Diego, Calif. "He is more antagonistic toward us than some of the white persons here."

Copeland is one of six out-of-town white persons working with Negroes in voter registration and a boycott of white stores. He said that two white men threatened him and a companion, Howard Price of Brockton, Mass., on the street.

Asked about the charges that he was intimidating the civil rights workers, Meadows replied: "I'm not working against them. But they block the street so the white folks can't get through. We've had no trouble."

Meadows said he arrested a Negro youth, Frank Bates, who was leading a small group of Negro pickets.

"I told him to let the pickets go up to the corner and he turned around in the middle of the street and started back," Meadows said. He said Bates would be charged with failing to obey an officer.

"I didn't want to be bothered up with this crowd," Meadows said.

Crawfordville, about 100 miles east of Atlanta, is the seat of Taliaferro County which has a population of 3,370, about equally divided between white and Negro residents. The town itself has a population of about 800 and consists of a dozen stores around an old red brick, three-story courthouse with its big clock tower.

It has become the only town in the South with a biracial population that has a Negro police chief.

Former GI Confesses To Killing

Amarillo, Tex. (AP)—Police said a former serviceman admitted Thursday night that he killed a sergeant whose body was found stuffed in a locker at Amarillo Air Force Base.

The decomposed body of Staff Sgt. Robert Roeske, 38, of Iowa Falls, Iowa, formerly of Lincoln, was discovered in his barracks July 6.

Detectives said Robert Earl Mcilwain, 20, Rockey Mount, N.C., signed a statement that he killed Roeske during a fight while they were drinking together the night of July 1. He was held without immediate charge.

Police arrested Mcilwain at the request of military investigators, who said several witnesses saw him visiting at the base. An air base spokesman said Mcilwain received a bad conduct discharge June 18.

Officers said the prisoner related these details:

He knocked Roeske down "for calling me a fool" and the sergeant cut an eye against a table as he fell. After knocking Roeske down a second time, Mcilwain smothered him with a pillow and strangled him with a necktie.

Mcilwain hid the body in a wall locker, used whisky to wash blood off the floor for lack of water, took $98 from Roeske's room and left.

Detectives said Mcilwain, who had complained he was penniless, drew attention to himself by purcashing chicken dinners for everybody at a small cafe and paying off an engagement ring given to his sweetheart.

Rural Roads' June Traffic Below 1964

The State Roads Department reported Friday that traffic on Nebraska's rural highways during June was down one per cent from the same month a year ago.

A normal seasonal increase of 18% in rural traffic volume from May to June was recorded, leaving the total volume in Nebraska for the first six months of this year at about the same as the total for the same period in 1964.

During June, the only heavy traffic increase from a year ago was registered on the Interstate Highway east of the Overton Junction, where a 25% jump was registered. Substantial declines were noted on U.S. Highway 30 west of Elm Creek, U.S. 34 at the Nebraska-Colorado line, and U.S. 6 at the Nebraska-Colorado line.

The department said more than 50.6 million gallons of motor fuel were taxed in Nebraska during April of this year, about the same amount taxed during April, 1964. However, the total of gallons taxed during the first four months of this year were up 4% from the amount of gallons taxed through April of last year.

Housewife Dies Of Exposure To Arizona Sun

Chandler, Ariz. (AP) — A young housewife died of dehydration because of a single day's exposure in the Arizona sun, a coroner's jury ruled.

Mrs. Cheryl A. Ebeling, 19, was found dead in mountain foothills 18 miles southeast of Chandler in central Arizona.

"There isn't one iota of doubt about the cause of death," a deputy county attorney said after the jury had agreed with a pathologist's finding.

With her husband, Richard, Mrs. Ebeling became stranded Wednesday when their car stalled. They started walking toward Chandler but became separated. The temperature reached 105.

The wind tipped his corn crib, but not farmer Alfred Rockman, who photographically shoulders the weight on his farm near Worthington, Minn. Not the gloomy type, Rockman said, "I was figuring on building a new one anyway."

Pope's Arraignment Slated For Friday, Attorney Says

Duane Earl Pope is scheduled to be arraigned in U.S. District Court here Friday on six federal indictments, one of his court-appointed attorneys announced Friday.

Wallace Rudolph, a University of Nebraska law professor, said Pope would be arraigned before Federal District Judge Robert Van Pelt at 9 a.m.

Pope is charged with killing three employes of the Farmers State Bank at Big Springs June 4. He is also accused of wounding a fourth bank employe and making off with more than $1,500 in bank funds.

Rudolph said he received notification of the arraignment date from U.S. Atty. Duane L. Nelson Friday morning. Rudolph said he and U.S. District Atty. Theodore Richling of Omaha agreed earlier on July 23.

Rudolph would not say what plea would be entered on behalf of the 22-year-old Pope, of Roxbury, Kan.

"I think it would be best if you just wait and see," he commented. Rudolph added that he would again visit Pope at the State Penitentiary early next week.

Pope's other attorney, appointed by Van Pelt June 25, is Robert B. Crosby, former governor of Nebraska.

The young Kansan's arraignment was first set for July 8, then was continued by mutual agreement of Richling and Pope's counsel.

Federal Group Is Finding Ways To Aid Northeast

Washington (AP) — A federal group began an emergency search Friday for ways to help the drought-stricken Northeast. The gravity of its task was quickly underscored by a report calling the drought the worst ever to parch the population-loaded area.

Meeting at the call of President Johnson, the federal Water Resources Council began an emergency session under White House instructions to submit recommendations by Tuesday for possible federal action.

The Weather Bureau called the drought "the worst ever recorded in the northeast."

Just before convening a closed meeting of the Cabinet-level council, Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall told newsmen he is confident the group will produce "significant recommendations" before the deadline.

Deadline Set On Overdue Taxpayers

Washington (UPI)—The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is telling taxpayers caught in last year's under-withholding bind to pay up by Sept. 1, it was learned.

This means that the "sympathetic consideration" promised taxpayers whose payroll withholding in 1964 failed to cover their tax liability will be expiring just four and one-half months after the April 15 tax deadline.

The decision to break off the special consideration was reached June 18, an IRS spokesman told UPI. He said he did not know why this had not been publicly announced.

After Sept. 1, the IRS will start applying what a spokesman called the agency's "normal rule" that anyone wishing more time to pay must submit a complete financial statement showing why he needs more time. Such a statement must include information on the taxpayers' earnings, expenses, number of dependents, bank account, and ability to get a loan.

Taxpayers who fail to pay by Sept. 1, and who cannot persuade the IRS to grant them a further extension, will be billed for what they owe, the spokesman said.

Further refusal to pay would lead to the usual "enforced collection" procedures, including, as a last resort liens against property, bank accounts, or paychecks, he said.

In April, IRS Commissioner Sheldon S. Cohen waived the "normal rule" for taxpayers who, through no fault of their own, were victims of underwithholding last year.

Some underwithheld taxpayers chose to take advantage of the "sympathetic consideration" because the interest they would pay the government on late installments ran less than what most banks would charge on personal loans to pay the tax in full.

Utah Governor Now Nebraska Navy Admiral

Salt Lake City (UPI)—Utah Gov. Calvin L. Rampton became an honorary admiral in the "Nebraska dry land Navy" Friday.

A scroll was presented to the governor in his office by Marion F. Sefrna, executive secretary of the Nebraska Centennial Commission for Thayer County.

Nebraska marks its centennial in 1967. Sefrna is in Utah to extend a welcome to all beehive staters to attend the centennial.

Thayer County will serve as "host county" for Utah residents planning to attend, Sefrna said. Each county in Nebraska has been assigned a state.

N.Y. Dem Chief To Step Down

New York (AP)—William H. McKeon announced he is stepping down as New York's Democratic state chairman for "personal reasons."

Mayor John J. Burns of Binghamton is reported to be a leading candidate for the $30,000-a-year post.

McKeon told newsmen prior to a scheduled news conference that "I have decided to submit my resignation as state chairman at a meeting of the state committee which is being called for Tuesday, July 27."

McKeon, 43, has been opposed by Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City.

75 Percent Interest

New Delhi (AP) — A government survey in Mysore state showed some moneylenders charge 75% interest on short-term loans to poverty-stricken farmers.

Market Trading Slacks

Usual preweekend caution was cited for the do-nothing session.

The firsthour was fairly lively with some good-size blocks trading hands. Although the price pattern was irregular all day, there was a slight dip in late morning, followed by a smallish recovery and, finally, by some additiona softness.

The Dow Jones industrial average took a trifling loss of .55 at 880.43.

Of 1,329 issues traded, 542 declined and 501 advanced. New highs and lows for the year were equal at 14 each.

The backdrop of business and economic news was better than the performance of the market. Personal income was reported to have risen to another record in June. President Johnson was reported to have committed himself to policies next year which would be aimed at prolonging the business boom. The parade of second-quarter earnings reports remained favorable.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks took a slight loss of .2 at 170.3 with industrials off .2, rails off .2 and utilities off .2.

Among the 15 most active stocks, 8 declined, 3 advanced and 4 were unchanged.

As the session began, the news was out that Pan American Sulphur had been given an offer for its assets by United Nuclear Corp. The sulphur stock had advanced a point in the previous session in heavy trading that made it that day's most-active stock. Friday it rose to most-active issue on 158,100 shares but closed unchanged at 17½.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were irregularly higher. Volume was 980,000 shares compared with 1.14 million Thursday.

Corporate bonds were irregularly lower in light trading. U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly higher.

Range Of Gains, Losses Is Broad

Chicago (AP) — Ranges of both gains and losses were broad in the grain futures market Friday as active liquidation and short covering kept most contracts on a fairly rapid move.

July soybeans, under stiffest pressure, lost almost 5 cents a bushel while July rye, the best gainer, added 3 cents. Wheat extended its gains into the third consecutive day with advances of about a cent at the extreme. Corn eased in spots and oats added small fractions.

Soybeans were 4¾ cents a bushel lower to ¾ higher at the close, July $2.83¼-83; new standard grade wheat ½-¾ higher, July $1.43¼-⅜; corn ¼ higher to ½ lower, July $1.29½-¾; oats unchanged to ½ higher, July 66⅜-½ cents; rye 1⅛-3 cents higher, July $1.14.

FRIDAY'S QUOTATIONS

Two Lincoln Marine Units To Depart

Major Donnald Holst, commanding officer of the 3rd Engineer Maintenance Squadron, U.S. Marine Corps Reserve of Lincoln, has announced that the first of two ansual training duty groups has completed preparation and will leave for two weeks training with the regular Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton, Calif., Sunday.

Annual training duty is intended to help maintain the Marine Corps Reserve in a state of readiness.

Most of the training will be conducted in the engineer maintenance field, consisting of equipment operation and maintenance, metal and machine shop work and field electronics.

The 55-man unit will attend through July 31, and a 49-man unit from August 1-14.

Sub Attempt Set

New Delhi, India (AP) — India will send a mission to Moscow next month to negotiate for four Russian submarines. India has no subs to match one neighboring Pakistan got from Britain.

Nebraska Youth Employment Total Increases

More Nebraska young people have been hired in the latest reporting week of the national Youth Opportunity Campaign, and even more young job-seekers visited the public employment service, the U.S. Labor Department reported.

Jobs for 461 young people were offered by 190 Nebraska employers, the weekly report showed, but 1,895 applicants turned up at offices of the Nebraska Division of Employment.

Since the campaign began for young people from 16 to 21 in late May, 3,581 youngsters have been employed. Nationally, with 75,530 new openings reported in the week, the total is nearing the 750,000 jobs hoped for by Vice President Humphrey, who heads the campaign.

Market Trading Slacks

New York (AP)—The stock market sank into the summer doldrums Friday and put on a mixed showing with trading slack.

Usual preweekend caution was cited for the do-nothing session.

The firsthour was fairly lively with some good-size blocks trading hands. Although the price pattern was irregular all day, there was a slight dip in late morning, followed by a smallish recovery and, finally, by some additiona softness.

The Dow Jones industrial average took a trifling loss of .55 at 880.43.

Of 1,329 issues traded, 542 declined and 501 advanced. New highs and lows for the year were equal at 14 each.

The backdrop of business and economic news was better than the performance of the market. Personal income was reported to have risen to another record in June. President Johnson was reported to have committed himself to policies next year which would be aimed at prolonging the business boom. The parade of second-quarter earnings reports remained favorable.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks took a slight loss of .2 at 170.3 with industrials off .2, rails off .2 and utilities off .2.

Among the 15 most active stocks, 8 declined, 3 advanced and 4 were unchanged.

As the session began, the news was out that Pan American Sulphur had been given an offer for its assets by United Nuclear Corp. The sulphur stock had advanced a point in the previous session in heavy trading that made it that day's most-active stock. Friday it rose to most-active issue on 158,100 shares but closed unchanged at 17½.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were irregularly higher. Volume was 980,000 shares compared with 1.14 million Thursday.

Corporate bonds were irregularly lower in light trading. U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly higher.

Barrows, Gilts Down

Omaha (AP)— Barrows and gilts ruled steady to 25c lower at Omaha Friday. Fed steers were a quarter higher, but heifers ranged steady.

There were not enough sheep to test the market.

Range Of Gains, Losses Is Broad

Chicago (AP) — Ranges of both gains and losses were broad in the grain futures market Friday as active liquidation and short covering kept most contracts on a fairly rapid move.

July soybeans, under stiffest pressure, lost almost 5 cents a bushel while July rye, the best gainer, added 3 cents. Wheat extended its gains into the third consecutive day with advances of about a cent at the extreme. Corn eased in spots and oats added small fractions.

Soybeans were 4¾ cents a bushel lower to ¾ higher at the close, July $2.83¼-83; new standard grade wheat ½-⅛ higher, July $1.43¼-⅜; corn ¼ higher to ½ lower, July $1.29½-¾; oats unchanged to ½ higher, July 66¾-½ cents; rye 1⅛-3 cents higher, July $1.14.

FRIDAY'S QUOTATIONS

Two Lincoln Marine Units To Depart

Major Donnald Holst, commanding officer of the 3rd Engineer Maintenance Squadron, U.S. Marine Corps Reserve of Lincoln, has announced that the first of two ansual training duty groups has completed preparation and will leave for two weeks training with the regular Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton, Calif., Sunday.

Annual training duty is intended to help maintain the Marine Corps Reserve in a state of readiness.

Most of the training will be conducted in the engineer maintenance field, consisting of equipment operation and maintenance, metal and machine shop work and field electronics.

The 55-man unit will attend through July 31, and a 49-man unit from August 1-14.

Sub Attempt Set

New Delhi, India (AP) — India will send a mission to Moscow next month to negotiate for four Russian submarines. India has no subs to match one neighboring Pakistan got from Britain.

Nebraska Youth Employment Total Increases

More Nebraska young people have been hired in the latest reporting week of the national Youth Opportunity Campaign, and even more young job-seekers visited the public employment service, the U.S. Labor Department reported.

Jobs for 461 young people were offered by 190 Nebraska employers, the weekly report showed, but 1,895 applicants turned up at offices of the Nebraska Division of Employment.

Since the campaign began for young people from 16 to 21 in late May, 3,581 youngsters have been employed. Nationally, with 75,530 new openings reported in the week, the total is nearing the 750,000 jobs hoped for by Vice President Humphrey, who heads the campaign.

Lincoln Marine Killed In Viet Nam

A Marine Lance Cpl. from Lincolnl Richard Lansing Zichek, 20, once scheduled to leave Viet Nam on June 7 of this year, was killed Thursday while on guard duty at the Da Nang air base in Viet Nam.

His relatives in Lincoln said his clothes had been shipped here, but then his leave was "frozen" and he remained in Viet Nam.

Cpl. Zichek was the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. George Wertz of 128 K, who had been his legal guardians since the death of his mother in 1957. Mrs. Wertz was his mother's sister. His father, Adolph, had died in 1954.

The Wertz family was notified Friday by local Marine Corps authorities and the family pastor, and later received a telegram from the commandant of the Marine Corps, Gen. Wallace M. Greene.

LHS Graduate

A 1962 graduate of Lincoln High School, Cpl. Zichek left for Marine training later that year, and went through basic training at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

He had been overseas about 13 months. His uncle said he had been stationed in the Pacific, touching various times at Hong Kong, Hawaii and Okinawa. His uncle said part of the time he had apparently traveled on an ammunition transport, and had been in Viet Nam once before, for about a month.

Cpl. Zichek planned to attend the University of Nebraska after his 1966 discharge.

"The Marine Corps was his life, and he wrote many times it was the only service to join," Mrs. Wertz said.

Shot By Sniper

Wertz said neither the local Marine authorities nor the telegram had many details regarding Cpl. Zichek's death, except that he had been shot through the chest while on guard duty, apparently by a sniper.

A World War II veteran himself, Wertz said, "Somebody has to be over there, and if it wasn't Rick who had died, it would have been some one else."

A military funeral is planned when the body, which is enroute, arrives, with burial planned for Lincoln.

Court Orders Payment

Munich, Germany (AP)—A civil court ordered Der Spiegel magazine to pay 25,000 marks ($6,250) damages to former Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss and to refrain from accusing him of corruption in office. Spiegel lawyers announced they would appeal.

Car, Cycle Collide Near Air Force Base

A car-motorcycle accident on Baker Ave. at Lincoln Air Force Base resulted in Horace T. Walker, 39, of 3359 Zeamer being held for observation at the LAFB Hospital.

Police said Walker, southbound on Baker Ave., collided with a northbound car driven by Victor L. Kestner, 22, of 106 A, Huskerville.

Kestner was making a left turn into a fire run at the time of the collision.

STEER'S HEAD STUCK FAST IN BIG KNOTHOLE

Spring Valley, Ill. (AP)—A steer had a tussle with an apple tree on the farm of Louis Budnick, and the apple tree won.

Budnick said the animal, an Aberdeen Angus about nine months old, worked his head into a large knothole in the trunk of the tree. But he could not withdraw it.

The farmer said he had no idea now long the steer stood patiently before he noticed its plight. He chopped the hole larger, and the steer trotted away.

Piece Presented

Tokyo (AP) — Communist China's boss Mao Tze-tung and President Liu Shao-chi conferred with Hoang Van Hoan, head of a North Vietnamese parliamentary delegation, in Peking, the New China News Agency reported. The broadcast said Hoang presented to Mao a piece of the wreckage of a U.S. F105D shot down over North Viet Nam April 4.

Ky Regime Boosts Idea Of U.S. Buildup

Saigon, Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military government gave a boost Friday to the idea of swelling U.S. ranks in the Vietnamese war. It asked Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara for a further rise in American force levels in Viet Nam.

A U.S. embassy spokesman, Barry Zorthian, told newsmen that if the Johnson administration agrees to the Vietnamese recommendations, "we would go about it quickly."

McNamara's latest fact-finding survey was denounced as "another act of sabotage against world peace" in a Viet Cong statement broadcast by Radio Hanoi. The statement declared the United States has suffered heavy failures in Viet Nam and is doomed to crushing defeat.

Sergeant Escapes

Among developments sharing attention with the McNamara mission:

—A military spokesman announced U.S. Army Sgt. Isaac Camacho, 28, of El Paso, Tex., captured by guerrillas who overran a camp 25 miles northwest of Saigon Nov. 24, 1963, has escaped to safety. He reappeared Tuesday, apparently in good condition. The spokesman said Camacho has now been removed from the country. He refused to say where. Details of the escape were withheld on the ground such information might harm other captives of the Viet Cong.

—U.S. Marines killed a Viet Cong sniper while clearing a village five miles south of Da Nang, the spokesman announced. No longer authorized to give specific losses of Americans or Vietnamese troops in any engagement, he said Marine casualties were light.

—Reported Viet Cong losses in an abortive ambush 15 miles suth of Da Nang Thursday were raised from 56 to 152. The spokesman said this figure was confirmed. A correspondent in Da Nang said it was known that one battalion—perhaps 300 men—had been knocked out as an effective fighting force.

—Radar sites at Cap Mui Ron and Ha Tinh, respectively 205 and 185 miles south of Hanoi, were among targets in continuing U.S. air strikes against North Viet Nam. Direct hits were reported at Ha Tinh. There was no assessment of the damage at Cap Mui Ron.

McNamara met for more than two hours with the generals running the Saigon regime shortly after he arrived from Washington for a fact-finding survey generally expected to lead to a decision to beef up the American forces substantially.

Sitting in with Ky, the air force commander who took over the premiership June 19, were Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and Defense Minister Nguyen Huu Co.

Assistant Defense Secretary Arthur Sylvester, who accompanied McNamara, said the Vietnamese presented their request in terms of force levels without asking for a specific number of troops. He said McNamara and his party made no comment of commitment.

An increase in U.S. forces, he said, is being considered as part of an over-all buildup that would include induction of 100,000 Vietnamese recruits. That would bring the Vietnamese armed forces to well above 600,000 men. American armed forces in Viet Nam now total somewhat less than 75,000.

Adlai Death Given ¾ Inch By Pravda

Moscow (AP)—Pravda, official Soviet Communist Party newspaper, devoted three quarters of an inch of page 3 of its Thursday edition to the death of Adlai E. Stevenson.

Under the headline "Death Of Stevenson," a Tass dispatch from London said: "The permanent representative of the U.S.A. to the United Nations Adlai Stevenson died today in London of a heart attack."

Lincoln Marine Killed In Viet Nam

A Marine Lance Cpl. from Lincolnl Richard Lansing Zichek, 20, once scheduled to leave Viet Nam on June 7 of this year, was killed Thursday while on guard duty at the Da Nang air base in Viet Nam.

His relatives in Lincoln said his clothes had been shipped here, but then his leave was "frozen" and he remained in Viet Nam.

Cpl. Zichek was the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. George Wertz of 128 K, who had been his legal guardians since the death of his mother in 1957. Mrs. Wertz was his mother's sister. His father, Adolph, had died in 1954.

The Wertz family was notified Friday by local Marine Corps authorities and the family pastor, and later received a telegram from the commandant of the Marine Corps, Gen. Wallace M. Greene.

LHS Graduate

A 1962 graduate of Lincoln High School, Cpl. Zichek left for Marine training later that year, and went through basic training at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

He had been overseas about 13 months. His uncle said he had been stationed in the Pacific, touching various times at Hong Kong, Hawaii and Okinawa. His uncle said part of the time he had apparently traveled on an ammunition transport, and had been in Viet Nam once before, for about a month.

Cpl. Zichek planned to attend the University of Nebraska after his 1966 discharge.

"The Marine Corps was his life, and he wrote many times it was the only service to join," Mrs. Wertz said.

Shot By Sniper

Wertz said neither the local Marine authorities nor the telegram had many details regarding Cpl. Zichek's death, except that he had been shot through the chest while on guard duty, apparently by a sniper.

A World War II veteran himself, Wertz said, "Somebody has to be over there, and if it wasn't Rick who had died, it would have been some one else."

A military funeral is planned when the body, which is enroute, arrives, with burial planned for Lincoln.

Court Orders Payment

Munich, Germany (AP)—A civil court ordered Der Spiegel magazine to pay 25,000 marks ($6,250) damages to former Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss and to refrain from accusing him of corruption in office. Spiegel lawyers announced they would appeal.

Car, Cycle Collide Near Air Force Base

A car-motorcycle accident on Baker Ave. at Lincoln Air Force Base resulted in Horace T. Walker, 39, of 3359 Zeamer being held for observation at the LAFB Hospital.

Police said Walker, southbound on Baker Ave., collided with a northbound car driven by Victor L. Kestner, 22, of 106 A, Huskerville.

Kestner was making a left turn into a fire run at the time of the collision.

STEER'S HEAD STUCK FAST IN BIG KNOTHOLE

Spring Valley, Ill. (AP)—A steer had a tussle with an apple tree on the farm of Louis Budnick, and the apple tree won.

Budnick said the animal, an Aberdeen Angus about nine months old, worked his head into a large knothole in the trunk of the tree. But he could not withdraw it.

The farmer said he had no idea now long the steer stood patiently before he noticed its plight. He chopped the hole larger, and the steer trotted away.

Piece Presented

Tokyo (AP) — Communist China's boss Mao Tze-tung and President Liu Shao-chi conferred with Hoang Van Hoan, head of a North Vietnamese parliamentary delegation, in Peking, the New China News Agency reported. The broadcast said Hoang presented to Mao a piece of the wreckage of a U.S. F105D shot down over North Viet Nam April 4.

Ky Regime Boosts Idea Of U.S. Buildup

Saigon, Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military government gave a boost Friday to the idea of swelling U.S. ranks in the Vietnamese war. It asked Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara for a further rise in American force levels in Viet Nam.

A U.S. embassy spokesman, Barry Zorthian, told newsmen that if the Johnson administration agrees to the Vietnamese recommendations, "we would go about it quickly."

McNamara's latest fact-finding survey was denounced as "another act of sabotage against world peace" in a Viet Cong statement broadcast by Radio Hanoi. The statement declared the United States has suffered heavy failures in Viet Nam and is doomed to crushing defeat.

Sergeant Escapes

Among developments sharing attention with the McNamara mission:

—A military spokesman announced U.S. Army Sgt. Isaac Camacho, 28, of El Paso, Tex., captured by guerrillas who overran a camp 25 miles northwest of Saigon Nov. 24, 1963, has escaped to safety. He reappeared Tuesday, apparently in good condition. The spokesman said Camacho has now been removed from the country. He refused to say where. Details of the escape were withheld on the ground such information might harm other captives of the Viet Cong.

—U.S. Marines killed a Viet Cong sniper while clearing a village five miles south of Da Nang, the spokesman announced. No longer authorized to give specific losses of Americans or Vietnamese troops in any engagement, he said Marine casualties were light.

—Reported Viet Cong losses in an abortive ambush 15 miles suth of Da Nang Thursday were raised from 56 to 152. The spokesman said this figure was confirmed. A correspondent in Da Nang said it was known that one battalion—perhaps 300 men—had been knocked out as an effective fighting force.

—Radar sites at Cap Mui Ron and Ha Tinh, respectively 205 and 185 miles south of Hanoi, were among targets in continuing U.S. air strikes against North Viet Nam. Direct hits were reported at Ha Tinh. There was no assessment of the damage at Cap Mui Ron.

McNamara met for more than two hours with the generals running the Saigon regime shortly after he arrived from Washington for a fact-finding survey generally expected to lead to a decision to beef up the American forces substantially.

Sitting in with Ky, the air force commander who took over the premiership June 19, were Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and Defense Minister Nguyen Huu Co.

Assistant Defense Secretary Arthur Sylvester, who accompanied McNamara, said the Vietnamese presented their request in terms of force levels without asking for a specific number of troops. He said McNamara and his party made no comment of commitment.

An increase in U.S. forces, he said, is being considered as part of an over-all buildup that would include induction of 100,000 Vietnamese recruits. That would bring the Vietnamese armed forces to well above 600,000 men. American armed forces in Viet Nam now total somewhat less than 75,000.

Adlai Death Given ¾ Inch By Pravda

Moscow (AP)—Pravda, official Soviet Communist Party newspaper, devoted three quarters of an inch of page 3 of its Thursday edition to the death of Adlai E. Stevenson.

Under the headline "Death Of Stevenson," a Tass dispatch from London said: "The permanent representative of the U.S.A. to the United Nations Adlai Stevenson died today in London of a heart attack."

Firearms Regulation Bill 'Stupid'

President Johnson's proposals to tighten the federal regulation of firearms was termed "stupid legislation" Friday by Mel O. Steen, Nebraska Game Commission director.

Steen's sentiments were also expressed by Frank Foote, a commission employe who has appeared before the Senate subcommittee that considered the legislation.

Steen said the bill would "only disarm the honest citizen."

Foote said it "wouldn't touch the criminal at all."

The state commission went on record earlier this year against the bill, recommended by the President and introduced by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

Steen said the proposal would make any minor violations involving firearms — such as carrying a loaded weapon in a car — a federal felony.

"That's like saying if you J-walk across a street, you get 25 years in jail," Steen declared.

Foote said backers of the bill were "formidable," but predicted that milder legislation than that recommended by the President would be the result of the current controversy.

State Land Acquisition Bill Advances

The Legislature Friday gave first round floor approval to LB277, a measure which will facilitate certain land acquisition by the State Game, Forestation and Parks Commission.

In amended form, the measure allows the Game Commission to acquire not more than one section of state school land in one calendar year, and hold title to such land.

Sens. Gerdes and George Syas of Omaha explained that the measure is needed particularly at Chadron State Park, 40 acres of which are state school land.

Sen. Chester Paxton of Thedford, who made a motion to kill but later withdrew it, said he may attempt an amendment later which would specify that the bill apply only to the Chadron situation.

Other bills advanced from general file included:

[illegible]—Creating a $5,000 emergency fire fighting fund under the governor's control, so a fire fighting plane which the U.S. Forest Service proposes to station in Nebraska could be called upon in other forest or prairie fire situations.

LB319—removing a time limitation for aliens to be engaged as teachers or research scientists at Nebraska institutions, with particula rintent to retain one individual who otherwise might have to leave the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute staff in Omaha.

LB702—Authorizing the Department of Roads to build frontage roads on certain controlled access by-pass routes around cities.

LB407—providing that youths under 21 shall receive a "minor's" driver license instead of a probationary license, and providing that the minor's license shall be of a different color than the adult license.

—LB812, permitting the State Military Department to transfer to the City of Chadron a tract of land which had been acquired as a site for a National Guard armory.

Bill For Single College Board May Lose Signer

The chief introducer of a bill proposing a constitutional amendment creating a single governing board for higher education in Nebraska said Friday he may withdraw his name from the bill.

Lincoln Sen. Marvin E. Stromer, who headed an interim study on higher education problems, said the University of Nebraska Board of Regents and the State Normal Board, which governs the four state colleges, have requested more time to develop cooperation voluntarily.

Stromer has been an outspoken advocate of board merger for the past two years.

The bill, LB258, would place on the ballot a proposed constitutional amendment creating a board to rule over the University of Nebraska, four state colleges, Omaha University and state junior colleges.

Withdrawal of Stromer's name would not automatically kill the bill. Co-sponsors Richard Marvel of Hastings, Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, Dale Payne of Papillion, Richard Lysinger of Ravenna and Ross Rasmussen of Hooper would also have to consent.

Firearms Regulation Bill 'Stupid'

President Johnson's proposals to tighten the federal regulation of firearms was termed "stupid legislation" Friday by Mel O. Steen, Nebraska Game Commission director.

Steen's sentiments were also expressed by Frank Foote, a commission employe who has appeared before the Senate subcommittee that considered the legislation.

Steen said the bill would "only disarm the honest citizen."

Foote said it "wouldn't touch the criminal at all."

The state commission went on record earlier this year against the bill, recommended by the President and introduced by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

Steen said the proposal would make any minor violations involving firearms — such as carrying a loaded weapon in a car — a federal felony.

"That's like saying if you J-walk across a street, you get 25 years in jail," Steen declared.

Foote said backers of the bill were "formidable," but predicted that milder legislation than that recommended by the President would be the result of the current controversy.

State Land Acquisition Bill Advances

The Legislature Friday gave first round floor approval to LB277, a measure which will facilitate certain land acquisition by the State Game, Forestation and Parks Commission.

In amended form, the measure allows the Game Commission to acquire not more than one section of state school land in one calendar year, and hold title to such land.

Sens. Gerdes and George Syas of Omaha explained that the measure is needed particularly at Chadron State Park, 40 acres of which are state school land.

Sen. Chester Paxton of Thedford, who made a motion to kill but later withdrew it, said he may attempt an amendment later which would specify that the bill apply only to the Chadron situation.

Other bills advanced from general file included:

LB[illegible]—Creating a $5,000 emergency fire fighting fund under the governor's control, so a fire fighting plane which the U.S. Forest Service proposes to station in Nebraska could be called upon in other forest or prairie fire situations.

LB[illegible]—removing a time limitation for aliens to be engaged as teachers or research scientists at Nebraska institutions, with particula rintent to retain one individual who otherwise might have to leave the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute staff in Omaha.

LB[illegible]—Authorizing the Department of Roads to build frontage roads on certain controlled access by-pass routes around cities.

LB[illegible]—providing that youths under 21 shall receive a "minor's" driver license instead of a probationary license, and providing that the minor's license shall be of a different color than the adult license.

—LB[illegible], permitting the State Military Department to transfer to the City of Chadron a tract of land which had been acquired as a site for a National Guard armory.

Bill For Single College Board May Lose Signer

The chief introducer of a bill proposing a constitutional amendment creating a single governing board for higher education in Nebraska said Friday he may withdraw his name from the bill.

Lincoln Sen. Marvin E. Stromer, who headed an interim study on higher education problems, said the University of Nebraska Board of Regents and the State Normal Board, which governs the four state colleges, have requested more time to develop cooperation voluntarily.

Stromer has been an outspoken advocate of board merger for the past two years.

The bill, LB258, would place on the ballot a proposed constitutional amendment creating a board to rule over the University of Nebraska, four state colleges, Omaha University and state junior colleges.

Withdrawal of Stromer's name would not automatically kill the bill. Co-sponsors Richard Marvel of Hastings, Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, Dale Payne of Papillion, Richard Lysinger of Ravenna and Ross Rasmussen of Hooper would also have to consent.
